COOKING IS FUN

Short-cut to his heart can be via Angel Nectar Pudding

By FANNIEJOE REID

A way to a man's heart can be short cut if you serve him this delicious "Angel Nectar Pudding." And he will think you're an angel, too, when you set this dessert before the man in your life.

This crispy pudding has the ripe, fresh fruit flavor of apricot whole fruit nectar combined with cereal flakes. The nectar is made from whole, sun-ripened apricots, liquified by a special process.

It's luscious, true apricot flavor that gives the pudding personality plus. Serve almond cookies for added bait-lure.

MAKE ANGEL NECTAR Pudding with two-thirds cup sifted all-purpose flour, one-fourth teaspoon salt, two-thirds cup brown sugar (packed), one half cup fine-dry bread crumbs, one cup crisp cereal flakes, one-third cup butter or margarine, one and one-half cups boiling whole fruit nectar, one-fourth cup granulated sugar, three tablespoons confectioners sugar, one egg, one egg yolk, one tablespoon fresh lemon juice and one-fourth teaspoon grated lemon rind.

Sift flour and salt together. Add brown sugar, crumbs, cereal and butter and blend until crumbly. Spread about two-thirds of mixture in bottom of greased eight-inch round baking dish.

Heat nectar. Blend together sugar, cornstarch and salt and stir into nectar. Cook and stir until clear and thick. Remove from heat and slowly stir in slightly beaten egg. Cook one minute longer, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat; blend in lemon juice and rind and pour over crumb mixture. Top with remaining crumbs.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 40 minutes. Serve warm or cold.

Makes six to eight servings.

THERE'S MORE FUN than a little in those little concoctions that give an added touch to a dish, a meal or even a party.

Here are a few hints that may give you a lick.

Start off school days with a hearty breakfast. A bowl of oatmeal cereal with some raisins mixed in, topped with brown sugar and butter is pleasing and helpes with minerals and vitamins.

For an extra good salad, serve sweet tender canned peach halves filled with green seedless grapes, and chunks of fresh pineapple, ice cream cheese dressing goes well with this. Garnish with mint sprigs or watercress.

LENGTHWISE quarters of California avocado filled with cranberry sauce make a superb accompaniment to baked or fried chicken. It makes a nice extra to serve with patio or indoor meals.

Cook a package of French cut green beans according to directions, drain and add a tablespoon finely chopped onion, one-fourth cup French dressing, salt and freshly ground black pepper. Chill thoroughly. Serve in lettuce cups with topping of chopped salted almonds.

RAISIN BREAD sandwiches with a cream cheese and chopped walnut filling make a tasty sandwich for a school lunch box. It's wise to wrap each sandwich separately in waxed paper or a sandwich bag.

Roll tortillas with a filling of chopped onion, grated cheese and chunks of ripe olives. Place in a shallow baking dish and top with a canned enchilada sauce. Cover and bake in moderate oven about 25 minutes. Serve topped with more cheese.

SEASON COOKED or canned sweet potatoes and whip until fluffy. Pile in greased baking dish, sprinkle thickly with brown sugar, dot with butter and cover with chopped almonds. Bake in hot oven to melt sugar and brown almonds. Serve with baked ham.

COMPLIMENT your Valentine Buffet with a huge White Layer Cake you've baked and decorated yourself. What better time better was to add to the merriment and wish everyone Happy Valentine's Day? Decorate the cake with crushed peppermint candy, red cinnamon candies, colored heart-shaped mints, red - tinted coconut, or swirls of red made in the Fluffy Frosting with red food coloring.

BETTER DENTAL HEALTH — Feb. 7-13 has been designated National Children's Dental Health Week and the Maryland Dental Society has joined with the American Dental Association and other members of the dental profession to focus attention on importance of protecting the dental health of tomorrow's citizens. Here is a public meeting of the Auxiliary to the Maryland Dental Society in a panel discussion. Shown, left to right: Dr. L. A. Aitemus, Mrs. N. Dillard, Dr. H. B. McCawley and Dr. Eric White. Mrs. Joan Phillips is president of the Auxiliary.

Tuna salad

Main dish salads, like Tuna Crisp made with Carnation Evaporated Milk, make meals interesting and fun to prepare and serve.

TUNA CRISP SALAD is made with one tablespoon (one envelope) unflavored gelatin, one-fourth cup cold water, one cup undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk, one cup mayonnaise, one - fourth cup lemon juice, one cup (six - seven ounce can) well - drained tuna, two tablespoons chopped pimiento, and one - half cup well-drained sliced ripe olives.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Dissolve gelatin over hot water. Slowly add Carnation to mayonnaise in bowl. Stir constantly. Add lemon juice. Stir in dissolved gelatin. Fold in remaining ingredients.

Blend well. Spoon into one- and one half quart mold. Chill until firm, about two hours. Unmold, serve on salad greens.

Lemon Butter new frosting

To up your prowess as an imaginative cook, top your next cake with a Lemon Butter Frosting.

This frosting is particularly good on spice cake and on chocolate cake.

LEMON BUTTER frosting is made with a cup of lemon chips, a half cup soft butter, three cups sifter confectioners' sugar and a fourth cup of milk.

Melt lemon chips in a small saucepan over low heat, stirring constantly. Cool slightly. Add soft butter, beating until well blended.

Then add sifted confectioners' sugar alternately with milk, beating well after each addition until frosting is smooth and thick enough to spread.

Makes about two and a half cups frosting, or enough for tops and sides of an eight-inch layer cake, or top and sides of a nine-inch square cake, or top and sides of a 13 by 9 by 2-inch cake.

IF YOU AIM to be famous for frostings you can't make a better start than this delectable Lemon Butter Frosting. Used to frost a spice cake, as it is here, or a chocolate cake, it is a real conversation piece.

Southern Chicken Pie

In parts of the South, they serve delicious chicken pie for Sunday dinner. A corn bread crust makes a perfect topping for a creamy chicken sauce dressed up with appetizing ripe olives. Pitted ripe olives, either sliced or whole, are most convenient to use in sauces and casserole dishes. Keep a few cans always handy on the pantry shelf.

MAKE SOUTHERN Chicken Pie with one small onion, one stalk celery, one-fourth cup butter or margarine, one half cup sifted all - purpose flour, three - fourths teaspoon salt, one - sixteenth teaspoon pepper, two cups cream and chicken stock, two cups large cooked chicken pieces, one cup pitted ripe olives, and Corn Bread Crust.

CORN BREAD CRUST requires one - half cup smoked yellow corn meal, one - half cup sifted all - purpose flour, one tablespoons sugar, one and one - half teaspoons baking powder, one - half teaspoon salt, one egg, two - thirds cup milk, and three tablespoons melted butter or margarine.

Chop onion and celery fine; cook in butter until soft but not browned. Blend in flour, salt and rosemary. Stir in cream and chicken stock, slowly; cook and stir until smooth and thickened, about 5 to 10 minutes. Add chicken and olives and turn into baking pan or casserole. Pour corn bread batter evenly over top. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 20 to 25 minutes or just until crust is baked and golden brown.

CORN BREAD CRUST: Sift corn meal, flour, sugar, baking powder and salt into a bowl. Add all remaining ingredients and beat to a smooth thin batter.

Makes six servings.

Gadabouting In Baltimore

Dr. Deborah P. Wolfe will address sorority

by Lula Jones Garrett

Zetas in Baltimore are busy putting the finishing touches on their plans for their annual Finer Womanhood Week Activities. Their week will begin on Sunday, February 21 with a worship service at Shiloh Baptist Church and will continue with a visit by the members of the Sorority to the Anna Mae Hunter Home for the Blind.

This year their open meeting and tea will be held on Sunday, February 28 at the Douglass Memorial Church. The brilliant Dr. Deborah P. Wolfe, grand basileus of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority and professor of Education at Queens College, New York, will be the main speaker.

One of the highlights of the meeting will be the music of the Zeta choir which has been organized under the inspiration of Soror Ruth M. Cleaver, Basileus of the Baltimore Chapter. The choir has been under the direction of Sorors Thelma Ashe, Goldia Ford, Catherine Winslow and Mildred Williams.

Soror Audrey J. Davis is serving as chairman of the Finer Womanhood Week Activities.

Members of the committee are Sorors Isolene Crdoner, Mary C. Frazier, Beatrice Hall, Doris Howell, Annie Johnson, Beatrice Mayo, Hazel Phillips, Blanche Powell, Geraldine Powell, Ruth Russell, Carrie Scott, Iris Wheaden, Precious Williams and Katherine O. Johnson.

KAPPA CHAPTER of Iota Lambda Sorority will hold its Annual Living Makers of Negro History program on Sunday, February 13, 1960 at Union Baptist Church, Druid Hill Ave., near Dolphin St.

For a number of years, citizens have been selected from the community to be honored for their outstanding achievement in the community, and for humanity in general.

In a brief ceremony during the 11 a.m. services, recipients of the citations will be introduced into the society of Living Makers of Negro History.

Honorees are Senator J. Alvin Jones and Councilwomen Verda Welcome and Irma Dixon; Mrs. Gladys Shepphard and Dr. Roland McConnell, author; Earl Koger Sr., and George Boone, businessmen; Cliff W. Mackay, journalist, and the Rev. Baxter Matthews, clergyman.

The awards will be presented by the national president of the sorority, Mrs. Florence Madison Hill of Philadelphia.

A Coffee Hour will follow.

The affair has been planned by a committee headed by Mrs. Willie Mae Scott and of which Mrs. Fannie Poulson is co-chairman.

THE KAPPA SILHOUETTES met in the lovely Midwood Avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward (Helen) Thornton during the past week.

Mrs. Bernice Robinson, wife of Dr. Archie Robinson, joined the club and was warmly welcomed by the members. After a brief business session, there was much "buzzing" over the plans for the Post - Valentine supper - dance for the gals' husbands.

Games were enjoyed by all and prizes were awarded to Emily Roberts and Rosita Uncles. A very delectable repast was served by the hostesses who were Vera Carrington, Lavada Hobson and Helen Thornton.

The following members were present:

Mesdames Helen Thornton, president, Gwendolyn Brooks, Bernice Brown, Gloria Carpenter, Vera Carrington;

Mesdames Joan Carr, Marian Hainey, Lavada Hobson, Lydia Musselwhite, Bernice Nickens, Cleava Poag, Idelle Pugh, Lelia Ray, Vivian Rigby, Emily Roberts, Bernice Robinson;

Mesdames Marion Russell, Viola Taliaferro, Mildred Taylor, Hilda Wallace and Rosita Uncles.

THE MARTINIQUES topped off their last meeting with champagne and fancy eating supplied by their hostess of the evening, Ruth Payseur.

At the session were Beatrice Smith, who heads the group; Victorine Adams, Hester Greenway, Helen Tucker, Myrtle Thompson, Alma Lyle Perry, Justina Chandler and Susie Moore.

Tucked in with fig were Irene Harris and Doretha Foster.

THE CHIT-CHATS gathered in the charming apartment of Beatrice Brown on Saturday, to be hosted jointly by that lady and Iola Minton.

Three of the members, Margaret Bivers, Mary West Jones and Marphelia Winston were absent. Gotta do some checking on the first two. . . but Mrs. Winston had been detained on business in Gloucester, Va., following the death of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Buckner.

Mesdames Ella Mae Hurtt and Henrietta Wood and Mrs. Emma Jones were guests.

Erma Williams had to play real hard (and I'm not kidding) to win the top score and snag the booby prize at pinochle. Top score and first prize went to Mary McCray; second prize, to Mrs. Hurtt.

MINIATURE SHIPS and sand bags bearing bon voyage messages were the appropriate decorations used when a party was given for Mrs. Annie C. Hill, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Hill left Wednesday for a five - week tour of Europe. Hostesses were the members of the Jollyette Club.

The party, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones was attended by:

Messrs. and Mesdames Joshua Williams, Joseph Christopher, Hector Covington, Edward Jones;

Mesdames Sarah Washington, Roberta Baptiste, Alice Robinson, Mamie Parker, Emma Taylor, Susie Young, Helen Jones, Mildred Williams, Louise Covington, Bethany Lewis, and Landres Smith.

The honoree was of course, showered with cards and gifts.

ZETA SIGMA chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, has taken title to the property formerly held by the Ascot Club (1125 N. Mount St.) and is in the process of renovating the building to be used as a fraternity house.

They intend, I understand, to occupy the premises by early summer.

On the recent Founder's Day, the chapter honored Dr. Parlette L. Moore, president of Coppin Teachers College, and Dr. Maceo Williams, who formerly directed the Druid Hill Center. Both received plaques for outstanding contributions in their fields.

The affair was attended by wives, sweethearts and a few friends of Sigma men.

Chapter members held their recent meeting in the Northeastern Bank Building on Greenmount Ave. Phillip Phillips will have the next session—on the 18th, in the Chesapeake Club.

FLASH FROM OBERAMMERGAU, GERMANY: Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth L. Wilson (she is the former Ruth Taylor) announce the arrival of a son on February 5. This is their third child and second son. Mr. Wilson is attending school in Germany on a government scholarship. He is with the Department of Defense as a translator in language. He is the son of Mrs. Franklin Fulton and Ellsworth C. Wilson, AFRO-AMERICAN mailing room supervisor.

Dr. Gladyt Jones, of Morgan State College faculty, is up and about after a jaunt to the hospital. Still tucked in as a result of that automobile accident is Mrs. Beatrice Beasley.

Good news items include the Up - and - about item about Ronald Bayne, and that P.D. G. Pennington, hospitalized the past weeks, has been sitting up at home this week.

Liliana Edmonds (Mrs. Walter) is still house - bound after a two - week bout with influenza.

Mrs. George B. Murphy Sr., who is recuperating at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Murphy of Morgan Park, marked her 86th birthday, Monday.

Was "feeling fine" . . . and as chipper with her children, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, and William Murphy, as usual.

Cornelius E. Griffin (he's chairman of the art department of Dunbar High School) was among the chosen, selected this week, whose painting will hang in the 1960 Maryland Art Show this month.

SATURDAY Alice Warner Parham realized a dream of years when she gathered a few Morgan friends in her pretty Gilray Drive home, for school-day chit-chat and a beautiful lunch. Husband (Clarence) put his books, aside and rushed home to be a charming host in the club-room before lunch. About were Beulah Davis, Jean Fisher Turpin, Susie Pearce Clark, Beatrice Reid - Hunt, Gaynelle Jones Spaulding and Frances Berry Hill.

Old scrap books and photos caused gals to lose thoughts of time.

50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hall of 1021 Harlem Ave., was observed Sunday at home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Parker of 2423 W. Others are Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Parker, Mrs. Delores Kerr, Miss Gloria Hall, Mrs. Shirley Johnson, Miss Sylvia Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, Miss Jean Parker, Reginald Parker and Judson Kerr. A grandson not shown is Calvin Parker Jr who in 1954 was a Carver High School student and became the first colored "Youth Mayor" of Baltimore.

Phi Gammas mark birthday

Alpha Chapter of Phi Gamma Mu Sorority of Washington is celebrating its 24th anniversary this weekend.

The Founder's Week activities open on Sunday, Feb. 14, with memorial services at Metropolitan Methodist Church in Baltimore, where the sorority is organizing a second chapter, Beta.

The Rev. Frank Williams, pastor of Metropolitan, will deliver the Founder's Day address at the 11 a.m. services, at which time the sorority will present a cash award to the church's junior choir. The presentation will be made by Mrs. Celestine Bowden.

FOLLOWING THE church services, members and friends will gather for dinner at Wilson's Restaurant.

There they will be joined by probate of the Beta Chapter who are; Mesdames Mildred Murphy, Rose M. Wallace, Helen Hardin, Elizabeth Phillips, Jeannetta Wilson, Julia Richardson and Misses Virginia Price and Louise Pankey.

Mrs. Jennie Fletcher is basileus of the sorority which will winding its Founder's Week activities with a formal dance on Friday evening, Feb. 19, at the Masonic Temple in Washington.

Ladies of Art plan cocktailer

The Ladies of Art are having a Valentine cocktail party Sunday, Feb. 14 from 5 to 9 at the Sphinx Club, 2107 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Miss Mae Daniels is president; Mrs. Marie Jackson, secretary; Mrs. Catherine Henry, chairman; and Mrs. Irene Madder.

Alphas fete wives, sweethearts tonight

Baltimore Alphas, awake to the seasonal import of Valentine's Day, are paying devoted tribute tonight to their wives and sweethearts at their annual closed dinner-dance.

The affair is being held in the main dining room of Wilson's Restaurant.

A significant reminder that Alphas never forget were the special invitations sent out to recent widows of Alpha men, who are to be guests of honor.

TO BE GIVEN seats at the head table will be Mrs. Miles Connor, widow of Delta Lambda's long-time chaplain; Mrs. Berkely Butler, widow of the chapter's past president; Mrs. Woodley Lawrence, Mrs. Arthur M. Randall and Mrs. S. Bernard Hughes.

Serving as co-chairmen of the party are Pierre Davis and Joseph Bracey, who vow that this affair will be one Alpha wives and sweethearts will recall with fond memories for years to come.

Charles P. Howard Jr., newly elected president of Delta Lambda, assuming office for the first time at the chapter's February meeting Monday night, outlined an ambitious program for the year.

IN LINE with Alpha's determination to help build a financial "institution of our own" in Baltimore, the chapter voted to transfer its savings account to the Advance Building and Loan Association, headed by Dr. W. O. Bryson.

A plea for all Alphas to deposit their savings with Advance was made Monday by Emerson Brown Jr., a member of the board.

He disclosed that the association now has more than $150,000 on deposit. This represents savings of more than 1,200 Baltimoreans, he said.

William Griggs was elected associate editor of the Sphinx, succeeding Cliff W. Mackay, who in December was elected vice president.

ALONZO P. MOSS of Springfield, Ohio, a newcomer to Baltimore, was introduced and brought greetings from members of Zeta Delta Lambda chapter, where he had served as corresponding secretary.

Mr. Moss has been appointed associate director of camping and community relations for the Baltimore YMCA. He indicated his intention of becoming active in Delta Lambda chapter.
