CATONSVILLE HISTORY

Mt. Olivette Methodist Church had its beginning in 1918 at the corner of Fristing Ave. and Egles Lane. It was known as the Catonsville Mission Church. It was set apart by the Rev. J. M. Goodrich, pastor of Mt. Zion Church, Ellicott City. After a short period the church moved to 16 Winters Lane and then later it is present site on Edmondson Ave., at which time the name was changed to Mt. Olivette.

The church has had eight pastors and the incumbent, Mrs. Annie Smith of 54 Winters Ave. is the only surviving member of the Catonsville Mission.

Miss Jones dies in N.Y. last rites here Saturday

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. for Miss Eleanor Jones, New York City teacher and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Jones, 507 Carrollton Ave.

Miss Jones, 39, died at New York's Mt. Sinai Hospital last Friday.

Her family reports that she entered the hospital on the day of her death.

Having lived in New York City for 10 years, Miss Jones taught kindergarten there for eight years.

She was a member of Baltimore's Douglass High School's class of 1938, and a 1942 graduate of Morgan State College.

MISS JONES had been a member of Leadenhall Church in childhood.

The Rev. Thomas Davis, pastor of the church, will officiate at her last rites.

Interment will be at Arbutus Memorial Park.

In addition to her mother and father, a retired produce dealer, Miss Jones is survived by a sister, Miss Marion Jones, and two aunts, Mrs. Elizabeth Harris (East Orange, N.J.) and Mrs. Mary Russell of Washington.

Mrs. A. V. Wilson

Funeral services were held Sunday at the St. Stevens AME Church, Elkridge, Md. for Mrs. Anna Victoria Wilson, 59, 1305 Myrtle Ave., who was pronounced dead on arrival at Provident Hospital on Thursday.

Burial was in the St. Stevens Church Cemetery.

Mrs. Stevens was the widow of Randolph Wilson and a life-long member of the St. Stevens Church.

She was taken ill with a heart ailment shortly before she was rushed to the hospital.

A native of Hitchester, Md., she was born Oct. 7, 1901. The daughter of the late Charles and Sarah Sparrow.

MRS. WILSON is survived by five sons, Andrew, Elmer, John, Thomas and David Wilson and two daughters, Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Johnson, and Mrs. Anna Allen Baltimore.

Also surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Rosie Matthews, New York; Mrs. Ethel Foster and Mrs. Lucille Brown, both of Baltimore; two brothers, William Sparrow, St. Stevens and David Sparrow, Catonsville; a step-father, Edward Smith, Catonsville, and 12 grandchildren.

Mrs. K. C. Crawley

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Elizabeth King Crawley, 59, 737 W. Franklin St., Tuesday at the New Jerusalem Baptist Church.

Mrs. Crawley died at her home on Feb. 4.

She had been ill for over 13 years, but only confined to the house for the past four.

A native of South Carolina, she had lived in Baltimore for 25 years.

Mrs. Crawley, a member of the choir, joined New Jerusalem Baptist Church shortly after her arrival in the city.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Sadie Smith and her husband, James Crawley.

Celebration slated

NEW YORK — NAACP branches, youth councils and college chapters were urged this week by association executive secretary Roy Wilkins to launch plans for May 17th commemorations.

This May 17th marks the sixth anniversary of the historic Supreme Court ruling on school integration. Delegates attending the association's 50th anniversary convention here last July passed a resolution calling for such action.

RELATIVES OF Harold Griffin, 54, 1000 block W. Franklin St., enter church for his funeral rites. Mr. Griffin was hit-run victim in Saturday accident. A man has been charged in connection with the accident.

Saturday services for Mrs. Holmes, teacher

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. at Union Baptist Church, Druid Hill Ave. near Dolphin St., on Saturday for Mrs. Mary Watson Holmes, a veteran teacher, who died suddenly Monday. Burial will be in Arbutus Cemetery.

The body will lie in state from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Saturday at the Union Church. The family will receive friends from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m. this evening (Friday) at a funeral parlor, 1011 Arlington Ave.

Mrs. Holmes was for more than 20 years the third grade teacher at the Phyllis Wheatley Elementary School No. 110.

SHE WAS present in her classroom on Thursday however, when she felt ill on Friday, she called in and reported that she would return to her duties on Monday.

On Monday morning, her sister, Mrs. Fanny Lawson, was summoned to Mrs. Holmes residence by neighbors who discovered she was ill.

Mrs. Lawson rushed her sister to Provident Hospital where she died a few hours later.

A native of Baltimore, Mrs. Holmes was the daughter of the late Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Jasper E. Watson. The Rev. Mr. Watson was pastor of the Passey Park Community Baptist Church until his death in 1941.

Mrs. Holmes was educated in Baltimore public schools and was graduated from Douglass High School and the old Coppin Normal School.

She was a lifelong member of the Union Church and a member of the Harvey Johnson Circle there.

She was also a member of the Gamma Chapter of the National Phi Delta Kappa Sorority and the Toujours Amies Club.

She is survived by her husband, William P. Holmes her only sister, Mrs. Lawson and a niece, Miss Charlene Lawson.
