CLUB OF THE WEEK

Fun at fund raising also aids club's pet charity

It is secretly a secret that when it comes to promoting a program, the auxiliaries (especially when women) give the parent body a run for its money.

It is exceptionally true of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Sphinx Club, whose annual benefit cocktail party has become a town tradition.

WHILE MEMBERS, their husbands and guests have great fun at the party, they also earn quite a few dollars, all of which go to charities.

Early in 1956 the members of the Auxiliary learned of the plight of the Home for the Blind.

They decided that they could not have a more worthwhile project than to aid Mrs. Anna Mae Hunter, who blind herself, was trying to help other blind.

THAT YEAR they garnered $500 from their cocktail party and presented the whole to the Home for the Blind. Mrs. Laura Shelton and Mrs. Juliette Carpenter were chairmen that year.

In 1957, the club members and the members of the Sphinx Club, gave the Home $10 and a Christmas treat, but the bulk of their funds went to providing 110 baskets of food for needy families.

In 1958 they again made a cash donation to the Home for the Blind, this time making a gift of $250. Mrs. Esther Harris and Miss Susan Watson were chairmen that year.

LAST YEAR, $254.55 went to the Home as a result of the cocktail party which was arranged by Mrs. Laura Shelton and Miss Margaret Jones. Later, with Mrs. Juliette Carpenter and Miss Helen Fowlkes as chairmen, the group had a raffle from which $300 went to the Home.

Members of the club include: Mrs. Anna Bailey, Mrs. Evelyn Green, Mrs. Constance Wooden, Mrs. Mary Brent, Miss Helen Fowlkes.

Mrs. Esther Harris, Mrs. Selma Cole, Mrs. Marie Rawen, Mrs. Geneva Jones, Miss Sylney Smith, Mrs. Doris Reed; Miss Susan Watson, Mrs. Margaret Jones, Mrs. Orpha Razzle, Mrs. Marie Elliott and Mrs. Thelma Gamby.

POT - POURRI: That elegant gray stone rancher on the corner of Granbley and Sequoia will be the future home of Dr. and Mrs. Marcus Moore.

Mrs. Rosearie Garner of Scranton, Pa. has announced the engagement of her daughter, Tamara E. Gaither, to Edward W. Clapke.

The bride - elect is a student at Scranton Lackawanna Junior College.

Mr. Clappe, son of Mrs. Marie E. Clappe of this city, is a graduate of Morgan State College and Coppin State Teachers College; a Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity and Phalax Fraternity man, and a teacher in the public school system here.

A fall wedding is planned.

'Twas a two - purpose party that Rozena Ridgley had on Thursday evening. . . to entertain her house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Wilmington, N.C., and to celebrate with her friends, the Lloyd Randolphs, the opening of the latter's new restaurant.

Mrs. Ridgley's guests were Mesdames Alice Randolph, Mary Stokes, Lillian Mann, Ann Moore, Ann McAllister, Blanche McRae, Fanny Garrett of Pleasantville, N.J., Louise Lee of Reidsville, N.C., and Blanche Hughes; and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hill.

Mrs. Calvin Ashe is tucked in Johns Hopkins Hospital (Bradyd 423) after a bit of surgery, but not too tuckered to continue work on plans for the annual Baltimore Urban League dinner.

The dinner, at the Sheraton-Belvedere at 4:30 on March 19th will have a speaker, Dr. Alfred J. Marrow, who, said Mrs. Ashe, this week, will be introduced by Dr. George B. Brain, superintendent of Baltimore schools.

Also in Johns Hopkins is Dr. Ralph Young: Out of that hospital as of Wednesday are Mrs. Juanita Holsey Gates and Mrs. Ida Chisholm Lynch.

DATE DATA: We Wives will be dancing and dining tomorrow (Saturday) night in the Variety Club at their annual Valentine Party.

Earlier on the same day, Barbara Sheppard and James Nelson will exchange vows in New Shiloh Baptist Church (at 3:30 p.m.) and will receive at the bride's home, 3313 Pressman St. afterwards.

At 11 a.m. at St. James Episcopal Church on Saturday, Verna Mitchell will become Mrs. Nathaniel Jackson.

Madison Avenue YWCA to celebrate Founders' Day

On Sunday, March 6, at 4:00 p.m. the Madison Ave. Branch of the YWCA will celebrate its Founders Day and its fifteenth year in the building at 1912 Madison Avenue.

Mrs. Lillian M. Parrott, chairman of the committee on administration for the branch, will present a dedication to the founders who were Mrs. Sarah A. Charity, Mrs. Mary E. Bright, Miss Frances L. Murphy, Mrs. Novella A. Rayne, Mrs. Edyth Cooper, Mrs. Maggie B. Ridley, and Mrs. Martha Murphy.

• • •

THE DEDICATION will be followed by an informal panel discussion of the YWCA in countries around the world. Panelists are Mrs. Clyde Alvin Clapp, a national YWCA board member; Miss Louise Medella, world traveler; and Mrs. Lena York Roth, executive director of the International Center YWCA and formerly director of the YWCA in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Under the direction of Miss Mildred Williams the Dunbar High School Girls' Chorus will present a recital, followed by a fellowship hour with Mrs. Ellen Fisher as hostess.

The newly published book, "Mars Church Terrell — Respectable Person," written by a Baltimorean, Mrs. Gladys Sheppard, will be introduced at the festivities.

CHAIRMAN OF the Founders' Day Committee for this Red Feather Agency is Dr. Ruth Brett Quarles, who is being assisted by Mrs. Lillian M. Parrott, Miss Ruth Pegley, Mrs. Ellen Fisher, Mrs. Mae Folkes, and Miss E. Estelle Thomas, executive director of the branch.

Scrabble party told in rhyme

If you got an invitation
Of hearts and paper lace,
Then you were at the party
At Bettye Shelton's place.
The party was held on Saturday night.
To celebrate Valentine's Day
Games given by the Scrabble Club
(On Tuesday nights, they play)
Ladies dressed dresses of brown
Or red and ones of snowy white.
The guys wore bright red neckties
Twas really a beautiful sight.
Medales of hearts, from the door hung
As the gooies danced in two's
And the "big string" Charleston
Had the ladies taking off shoes
Fox-Trots, Lindy-Hops and Jitterbugs
And Jitterbugs too
Were danced to records, aprons
A good time was truly had by all.
In spite of the ice and snow.
Members of the club are
Phyllis and Samuel Hurdum,
Bettye M. Shelton, and Alice Dodson.
Guests included, Messrs. and Mesdames William Bevans, Charles Dowdy, Armstead Jenkins, Austin Johnson, Robert McIntosh, Milton Rice, and Randolph Taylor, and Barbara Tubb, Irvin Thomas, and Wilfred Shelton.

"BATES HIGH School Graduate Makes Good" would be one's thought for the following item:

Howard Marcellus Johnson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Johnson, Sr., of Annapolis, majored in mathematics and graduated from Ohio State University with a B.S. degree in June, 1958.

Then in August of the same year, he married the former Miss Nancy Byrd, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Byrd of Circleville, Ohio, who also attended Ohio State.

The latest news is that Howard received his Master's degree in bacteriology this past December from the same school. He is now doing research for the dean of medicine on the campus and is working toward his doctorate.

He is also a member of Omega Psi, the men's National Scientific Honorary Society. Howard and his family reside at 1743 Richmond Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

A FOUNDER'S DAY address entitled "The PTA and You," delivered by Leon White, president of the Anne Arundel County PTA, was the feature of the Founders Day program of the Parole School recently.

Mr. White was introduced by Mrs. Alice Pinkey.

He noted that Founder's Day had its beginning in the year of 1925 at Annapolis with twelve people who united themselves together, having a dream to build schools to educate.

In 1929, the first local committee, called the Anne Arundel County Federation of Parent and Teachers, was organized. Theodore Kess of Glen Burnie was the first president, William H. Richardson, vice president; Mrs. Carrie Simpson, recording secretary, and Mrs. John Hardesty, corresponding secretary.

Mr. White encouraged the PTA to wholeheartedly support the school and accept only the best in education so that the dream of these pioneers would become a continuous living reality.

A film entitled "Love, Thy Neighbor," was shown in observance of Brotherhood Week. Tributes were also paid to the past president of the Parole PTA by Mrs. Genevieve Dyson, program chairman.

Past President are Mrs. Catherine Pindell, John Mackey and the Rev. John T. Chambers.

A cake, raffled at the door, was won by Lindbergh Howard, a parent. Refreshments were served by Troop 256 of the Boy Scouts, who also served as ushers.

Orlando Day, is president and Walters S. Mills is principal.

MISS JEANETTE S. ANDERSON, the youngest daughter of the Bernard R. Anderson of Bronx, Woodlawn, became the bride of Roland C. Stevenson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stevenson, of Glen Burnie at the home of the Andersons on Sunday, January 31.

The marriage rites were performed by the Rev. Mr. Jennie Butler, the Rev. J. H. Carter, pastor of the Broadneck Asbury Methodist Church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle length gown of white silk organza, bordered in yellow and green in a daisy pattern, augmented by rhinestone jewelry. Her waist length veil was edged with rosebuds.

She carried a bridal bouquet of carnations and a white Bible. Her attendants were Mrs. Marlene Ray and Maude Brashears. They wore yellow and pink ankle length gowns with white accessories.

The mother of the bride was attired in a light blue gown, fashioned along princess lines, topped in face. She wore pink jewelry and a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a green and blue floral print with rhinestone jewelry.

The bridegroom chose as his best man his brother, Claymond Stevenson.

The reception followed the ceremony immediately. The table was centered by the beautiful wedding cake, made in three tiers and decorated with white roses and bells.

GUESTS WHO attended the wedding were:

Members of the bride's family, Miss Alice Anderson of Baltimore and Mrs. Loretta Brooks of Annapolis, sisters of the bride; brothers of the bride and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Anderson and son, Bruce of Severna Park; Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson and children, Roxanne, Eric and David of Baltimore.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Rodgil Anderson and children, Deanna and Rodell, Jr. of Annapolis; Alice Alexander A. Anderson of Bolling Air Force Base, and Henry and Richie Anderson of Annapolis.

Also nieces of the bride, Robin, Toynette, Delphine, Shelley, Wendy and Cordale and nephews of the bride, Ted Alexander, Harold and Tyrone, also cousins and uncles of the bride, Mrs. Margaret Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Park, all of Baltimore.

Also other members of the bridegroom's family, his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Pearmon of Glen Burnie; other guests Mrs. Elaine Eldridge of Glen Burnie, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Day, Severna Park; Mrs. Elvira Manns, Glen Burnie.

Also Alvin Roger Carter of Bolling Field; Mrs. J. H. Carter, Annapolis; Fellowship presents John R. Thomas, Samuel Augustus Mrs. Frances Johnson, Mrs. Alben Odell Allen, Harold Little Jr., Pvt. Lt. Wesley E. Anderson, another bride of the week, could not attend the wedding due to being diplomed in Germany.

The newlyweds are at home to friends at Severna Park in White's Road.

CHERRY HILL NOTES

Snow caused some changes in program

By ELMA OGLESBY

A "Martha Washington Banquet" will be held on Monday, Feb. 22 at the Cherry Hill Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m.

This banquet will be sponsored by the Parent Club of the Church School. Tickets are $1.25. Mrs. Ethel Ellison is chairman.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lane (Sally) Butler, 14 Rue Square, on the birth of a daughter last Friday (12th) at Provident Hospital.

THE SNOW LAST week caused the cancellation of some programs. All services of the Cherry Hill Methodist Church scheduled for last week will be held this Sunday, the 21st.

At 4:00 p.m. the Wyndsor Saving Club will celebrate its anniversary with the pastor, Rev. Nathaniel Perry delivering the sermon.

Friends and members of the Cherry Hill Methodist Church can look forward to a Week of Dedication from Sunday, Feb. 28 to March 4.

The Rev. Albert Holbrook will be the guest speaker for the entire week. There will also be special music. Services will begin each night at 8 p.m.
