tives of this ordinance, but I am not sure the Council would agree with them.

"It might have been better to confine it to restaurants and hotels. It would be more realistically to do this."

So it went. A lengthy discussion by EEOC board members on the Dixon ordinance, and the three new members holding out for a chance to study it further.

"This puts us in a very inefficient light," Dr. Fleming told the members. "Everybody here should have had a copy of this ordinance long ago.

"Action on it has been delayed long enough. A further delay for this reason makes us look inefficient."

—Stiff primary

23 citizens — seven Democrats and 16 Republicans — have filed in the Fourth District.

DEADLINE FOR withdrawal is the coming Monday.

Larry H. Goodman, Supervisors of Elections official, took a long look at the listing of the 283 candidates Tuesday, shook his head, and observed:

"It's a safe bet that there will be a lot of withdrawals in both parties before the deadline."

This is a congressional race that has no colored candidates.

Big strong rumors that Walter T. Dixon, Fourth District city councilman, would seek the Democratic nomination remained just rumors.

Mr. Dixon sized the whole thing up Thursday in this statement to the AFRO:

"Evidently some of my ambitious friends were thinking in those terms.

"Personally, I had not considered it at this time.

"Without organizational support, I don't think the time is ripe now.

"I think in the next two years I will give it serious thought."

FACING DEMOCRATS on May 17 ballot will be four candidates for president of the United States. They are:

Sen. John F. Kennedy, Boston, Mass., who filed some weeks ago; Sen. Wayne Morse, Eugene, Ore., a last minute filer; Lar Daly, Chicago, and Andrew J. Easter, a draftsman of the 4400 block Belair Rd.

The winner will have Maryland's 24 national convention votes in Los Angeles this summer, for as long as he stands a reasonable chance of winning the Democratic presidential nomination.

Gov. J. Millard Tawes had hoped an Democratic presidential hopefuls would file in Maryland, in order that the state's delegation could go to the convention uncommitted.

No Republicans have filed in the presidential primary in this state.
