Table tennis is one of our easiest played home games

During the past decade, one American home sport has zoomed higher in popularity than any other.

That sport, table tennis, or ping-pong as it is so very well known, has proved to be one of the easiest to learn and most economical means of enjoyment today.

In other words, ping-pong is fun.

Just ask anyone who has ever played it or anyone who owns a set and table.

Its popularity which grew widely through recreation centers, especially the YMCA, spread so quickly and widely that sets can today be found in nearly as many homes as TV sets can be found.

And it is of little wonder, for ping-pong sets can be bought twice as cheaply as televisions, and they are just as much fun.

As a means of entertaining friends and guests, a ping-pong set can't be beat; and there's nothing like ping-pong for wholesome family fun.

It's a game designed for all ages, from junior at four years old to grandma and grandpa at 85 or even older.

WHAT HAS made ping-pong so popular among Americans?

Says Charles Halm, director of the Mt. Royal Recreation Center.

"The table doesn't take up so much space, and the equipment is so inexpensive . . .

"And I believe it is so popular because it can be played at home; besides that it can be played all year round."

Just how popular is table tennis in the city of Baltimore?

T. MADISON GARRISON, director of the Chic Webb Recreation Center, says:

"I don't think I'd be exaggerating when I say the ping-pong ball is going across the table from the time we open to the time we close.

"And I would venture to say that it is like that in most of the city's recreation centers."

So popular is the sport that the Department of Recreation sponsors several city wide tournaments for children of all school ages during the year.

In addition to local tournaments, world championship competition is held once a year sponsored by the International Table Tennis Federation.

TABLE TENNIS is an extremely fast game which is nearly always played indoors. It is said to have begun in the 1880's in England, a descendant of outdoor tennis.

The game is played by striking a small white celluloid ball across a net fixed in the center of the table.

The ball is struck to and fro over the net after bouncing once until a point is scored by failure to make a return.

Service alternates every five points and the winner is the one who first scores 21 points.

* * *

DIFFICULT? Not at all. All required is fairly good sight, good judgment, and a sense of rhythm.

Expensive? A table tennis set, including table, can be bought for roughly $30, according to one downtown sports goods dealer.

The more expensive tables, those that come in two pieces or can be folded and tucked away in a corner are a little more expensive, about $40-$50.

But the do-it-yourself man can come out cheaper yet. All he needs to spend is about $15 for material.

A special type wood is needed for the table top, which can be bought at almost any lumber company.

Balls, paddles and a net can be bought for about 58 cents, according to downtown merchants.

So why wait? Get more pleasure out of life; get a ping-pong table.

The need for a Community Health Center is still with us. The treasury of the building fund is growing slowly, but surely.

I believe the original plan was to build an annex to the present Community Center on property that belongs to the community. Since the center will service every one of the community it is my true feeling that all of the residents should share willingly in raising funds to erect the facility so that all of the clinics that are needed for the community may be held here in the community.

At the present time, some of the clinics are still being held at Sparrows Point.

'WILL YOU ADD your name to those who have already made a contribution to the building fund so that the ground breaking will not have to be put too far in the future? The following groups and individuals have made cash contributions:

The Public Library Board $1,157.86; Mt. Olive Baptist Church, $25; New Shiloh Baptist Church, $25; Fleming Elementary School, $600, and Turner Elementary School, $706.50.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Gwaltney, $150; Mr. and Mrs. Claben Winston, $20, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Darden, $50; Mrs. E. S. McDaniel, $25, and The Phalanx Fraternity, $25.

With the special gifts and other funds, we now have $9,700 in the Building Fund.

If you would like to make a donation or a special gift, you may do so by contacting the chairman, Robert Lee Abbott, 215 Sollers Point Rd., Dundalk 22 Md. or you may bring your gifts in person to the next regular meeting of the Health Committee at the Community Building 411-A New Pittsburg Ave. on the first Saturday of each month at 1 p.m.

ON SATURDAY, the Bernadetta School of Dancing presented a Ballet and Modern Dance recital for the benefit of the Volunteers of the Turner Health Committee. The performance took place at the Community Center, 411-A New Pittsburg Ave. The students were a credit to their teacher, Bernadetta Smith.

The classes meet on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. The age limit is from 3 to 12. You may contact Bernadetta at CE 3-7063.

Don't forget the Social Hour Benefit at the Turner Elementary School on March 21. The admission is $.35. This will be the only benefit affair of the PTA for the year.

During the evening, Elliott Lapin, supervisor of special education of the Baltimore County Board of Education, will be the special guest and he will discuss the pecial education program.

LLOYD ROBINSON spent the weekend at home, but was returned to the Johns Hopkins Hospital on last Monday morning. Lloyd is very much in need for our prayers; please, please don't forget him.

Mrs. Nannie F. Hurley of 217 Center St., is no longer with us. Her funeral was held at the Greater St. John Baptist Church on Tuesday, March 15. Her body was later carried to Warrington, Va., her native home where interment took place in the Warrenton Baptist Church Cemetery.

Mrs. Hurley was a quiet neighbor wro could be seen going about the community in a quiet manner. She was always faithful to her obligations.

Mrs. Hurley's family has expressed their appreciation to
