Services today for Mrs. Ollie Sewell

Funeral services are being held today (Friday) at 1 p.m. at Sharon Baptist Church for Mrs. Ollie Robinson Sewell, 80, 561 Pressman St., who died Monday at Provident Hospital after a lengthy illness. Burial will be in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Mrs. Sewell was the widow of Levi Sewell, Sr., a Mutual Benifit Insurance Co. agent for 30 years, who died in 1947. She had been ailing since Mr. Sewell's death.

Mrs. Sewell was an active member of the Sharon church for more than 60 years and a member of the church Missionary Society and the Friendship Club.

She was also a longtime member of the Frances Ellen Watkins Harper Temple No. 429 of the Elks Lodge. Members held services at the Pressman St. residence Thursday night.

Mrs. Sewell born in Essex Co., Va., Sept. 16, 1879.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Lucille Monroe, Miss Ollie R. Sewell, Mrs. Helen S. Johnson and a son, Levi Sewell, Jr.

Also, two sisters, Mrs. Annie R. Reid, Baltimore, and Mrs. Minnie Roston, Boston, Mass; three nieces, Mrs. Agnes Howard and Miss Beatrice Roston, Boston and Miss Electra James, Baltimore; five grand children; seven great grandchildren; two great, great grandchildren.

liams, came to the church's pulpit.

A native of Robeson County, N.C., he was the son of the late Henry Williams and Leonora Monroe Williams.

Having attended the public schools of N.C., he went to Fayetteville State Normal, School and continued his education at Shaw University.

He was ordained under the authority of the First Baptist Church of Parkton, N.C. in Dec., 1916.

Among the churches he pastored was the noted Martin Street Baptist Church in Raleigh.

Among the organizations he participated in were the Union Baptist Association; the General Baptist Convention where he served as secretary of the steering committee,—and the Ministers Interdenominational Ministers Alliance of which he was a former secretary.

Interested in the Baptist movement of the state, the Rev. Mr. Williams joined the United Baptist Missionary Convention of Maryland.

In 1944, he was elected secretary of the organization — a post which he still holds.

THE REV. MR. WILLIAMS is also a member of the trustee board of the Maryland Baptist Center and School of Religion, the NAACP, and is treasurer of the Interdenominational Ministers Conference.

Concerned over the spiritual and intellectual growth of the community, he has successfully used the church as a vehicle to further the advancements of the community.

Gradually, but successfully, the Rev. Mr. Williams has raised the church financially and spiritually.

Under his guidance, the church erased a $7,000 debt, purchased an organ, resurfaced the church at a cost of $10,000 and repaired the church's parsonage.

Later the church moved its parsonage from Eden and Chase Sts. to 1710 N. Broadway.

In 1955, the church was sandblasted and the interior repainted.

Among the civic organizations the church holds membership in are the NAACP, the Red Cross and the Heart Fund.

On May 19, 1959, the church celebrated the 100th birthday of its oldest living member, Mrs. Annie May, 1229 N. Caroline St.

This year, First Baptist celebrates its one hundred and twenty-fourth anniversary.

TRUSTEES ELECTED for two were: Gardie Williamson (chairman), Alvan S. Stanley, Robert J. Seldon, John H. White, Calvin T. Roach, Ernest W. Baker, John Harvey, Wardelle T. Richardson, Desper D. Brooks, Harry L. Wilson, Ellis Booker and Mrs. Hattie M. Myers.

Other officers of the church included Mrs. Myrtle R. Stanley, treasurer; Robert J. Seldon, assistant treasurer; Ernest W. Baker, financial secretary; Thomas Pearson, benevolent and missionary treasurer.

Mrs. Nina B. Whitfield, church clerk; Mrs. Mary Eaves, assistant church clerk; Wardelle T. Richardson, acting Sunday school superintendent; Andrew Pearson, B.T.U. director; Mrs. Helen Booker, associate director of B.T.U.; Mrs. Nettie Williams, president of the Missionary Society and Gardie Williamson, chairman of the Deacon Board.

Burglary ring still under investigation

"The end is not in sight," it is believed that it is responsible for the theft of $20,000 worth of cigarettes from a drug firm.

Police said they believe the ring stole on the average of one to two cases of cigarettes a day.

The drug firms loss was so great that the home office launched a separate investigation.

One of the suspects was arrested after he allegedly splurged $6,000 on wine, women and song.

Slaying of 'fence' gets 3 defendants 30 years

Three defendants were sentenced to a total of 30 years in the Penitentiary Wednesday by Judge J. Gilbert Prendergast in Criminal Court for the manslaughter of a man described as a "fence" who ran out on them without paying off.

The defendants were: Cherry Alston Eldridge, 22, 2000 block E. Preston St.; Robert—Henry—Princeton, 21, 1200 block E. Oliver St. and 1609 block Bradford St.; and Robert Smith Mercer, 22, 400 block E. Lafayette Ave.

According to the testimony during the four-day trial of Eldridge, each of the three defendants — who were grand of stolen items for them, refused to pay them the money.

ALTHOUGH MEYER told police Mercer had stabbed him, Mercer, testifying as a State's witness in the Eldridge trial, contended Meyer named him because he was the only one of the three men known to him.

Represented by Michael Freedman, Eldridge argued that he had been with the group when they decided to take Meyer for a ride. He denied ever stabbing him with a knife in an alley on the East side of the viaduct near Gay St.

Eldridge also contended that Mercer and Priester had conspired while they were awaiting trial in City Jail, to paint him out as the knifer, shifting the blame from themselves.

During the trials Wednesday, Mercer and Priester submitted to an agreed statement of facts read to the court by assistant State's attorney Charles E. Moylan Jr., in which they told substantially the same versions as they had testified to in the Eldridge trial.

Mercer was represented by Alvin Sellman and Priester was represented by George C. Mercer.

Powell probe bid blocked by speech of Sen. Lausche

The resolution calling for a Senate investigation of charges by Rep. Adam Clayton Powell had been passed had large sums of money for his political support was blocked Friday by Sen. Frank J. Lausche (D-Ohio).

Senator John J. Williams, (R-Del.) author of the resolution, had sought to have it brought up for Senate action during the morning hour when it would have been disposed of by routine business. Following Williams' request for approval, Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson asked for a quorum call.

A quorum was declared present, and the presiding officer, Sen. Stephen Young (D-Ohio) recognized Sen. Lausche. Senator Lausche, who spoke on his amendment to H.R. 9151 during the morning hour, said he had left the floor to make a speech. Senator Williams commented that the "morning hour" had expired, and Williams' resolution went to the Senate calendar.

A majority vote of the Senate would now be required to bring it up for consideration.

Senate to hold hearings on aged

Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich.), Chairman, Senate Subcommittee on Problems of the Aged and Aging announced last week that the Subcommittee will start its 1960 hearings on March 21, beginning with the topic of the health problems of the aged.

Fla. boycott head to speak

WASHINGTON

The Rev. Charles Konzie Steele, vice president, Southern Leadership Conference and leader of the Tallahassee bus boycott movement, will speak in Washington on Sunday, March 27.

The Rev. Mr. Steele will address the kickoff membership rally of the Washington Branch NAACP on that date at 4 p.m. at Metropolitan Baptist Church, 1225 R St., NW.

The NAACP campaign has a goal of 25,000 members.
