MRS. FLORINE BURLE — Honored By Church

Mrs. Florine Burle honored for 37 years as Sunday school teacher

A local seamstress who has been known to sew a fine seam for more than 35 years was recently honored as a Sunday School teacher of 37 years standing.

The seamstress who is now retired from her profession is Mrs. Florine Allen Burle, 1220 W. Mosher St.

She has taught Sunday School at New Shiloh Baptist Church since 1923.

Other ways honoring her service to the Sunday School was "This Is Your Life, Mrs. Burle" and was appropriately given on Sunday morning during the Sunday School Hour.

SINCE IT was entirely a surprise to her, Mrs. Burle told the AFRO as late as Wednesday, "I am still nervous and excited. I can't get over the fact that it was all for me."

Mrs. Burle received gifts of cash and many beautiful presents from members of the church and Sunday School.

There to greet her on the occasion were her brother, Dr. Willard W. Allen, a distinguished Baltimore citizen and his wife, Mrs. Allen, and their two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Nolle and Miss Rosalind Allen, both Baltimore teachers.

Also present were Mrs. Burle's longtime class friends, Mrs. Patricia Harrison, her family and many other associates, pupils, church members and friends.

MRS. BURLE is a native of Buckingham Co., Va. and came to Baltimore as a young girl. She joined the New Shiloh Church in 1923 and because of her deep knowledge of the Bible, was appointed a Sunday School teacher the same year.

Although her time was occupied with sewing she found time to take on other activities in the church and became a member of the Pastor's Aid, the Kings Daughters, and served as assistant superintendent of the Sunday School for many years.

She was also a Bible Class member for 25 years and often attended Sunday School conventions.

Mrs. Burle is the widow of Addison Burle, who died 1959. The couple has no children of their own.

Mrs. Burle celebrated her 80th birthday last Sunday.

Among those who assisted in the "This Is Your Life" program was Mrs. Vernice Jones, who was assisted by the Rev. Timothy Bodmon and Mrs. Biddie and other members of the church and Sunday School.

Mrs. Sarah Williams is superintendent of the Sunday School.

New Metropolitan revival opens here on April 3

Dr. B. F. Johnson, pastor of Metropolitan Baptist Church, Newark, N.J., a nationally famous Evangelist, will be guest speaker at a revival at the New Metropolitan Baptist Church, Mosher and McCulloh Sts., beginning April 3 and continuing to April 17. Nightly services begin at 8 p.m.

The Rev. Mr. Johnson is a familiar figure on the Baltimore scene and has recently served as guest pastor at the New Shiloh Baptist Church where the Rev. J. Timothy Goddie is pastor.

The Rev. Mr. Johnson is moderator of the North Jersey Baptist Association, vice chairman of the Home Mission Board of the National Baptist Association, vice-chairman of the House Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention.

Revival set for April 4 to 17

Two weeks of evangelistic services will be held from April 4 to 17, at First Emanuel Baptist Church, 2016 W. North Ave., with the Rev. Leonard E. Hicks as the featured evangelist.

Services will begin at 8 p.m.

A number of churches will participate. Also, a number of song groups.

Special services of the two-week revival are as follows:

Palm Sunday (April 10), morning service, 11 a.m. Holy Communion, 3:30 p.m., also the birthday of the Rev. Mr. Hicks, Easter Sunday (April 17), Sunrise services, 6 a.m.; morning service, 11 a.m.

Baptists endorse the Rev. Mr. Bryant for AME bishopric

On Monday, members of the Baptist Ministers Conference assembled at a regular meeting at Enon Baptist Church, endorsed the Rev. Harrison B. Bryant as a Baltimore candidate for bishop of the AME Church.

The endorsement was in the form of a motion which was unanimously adopted by the more than 100 ministers present.

The Rev. Mr. Bryant is pastor of the Bethel AME Church. New bishops will be named at the AME General Conference in Los Angeles, Calif., May, this year.

Holy Name Society convention Sunday

The 46th annual convention of the Archdiocesan Union of the Holy Name Society of Baltimore will begin with Mass on Sunday, April 3 at the Lord Baltimore Hotel. It is expected to attract over 1,000 delegates.

Following 12:15 mass at the Cathedral, delegates will assemble at the hotel for the 2-hour session. Workshops begin at 2:30.

Among them is one entitled "Population Explosion, the Catholic Viewpoint." Discussion leader will be Rev. William K. Bunn, chaplain of Notre Dame College.

Other workshops will include "Moscow to be led by George Shriver, managing editor of the Catholic Review; "Catholicism and Modern Psychiatry," Dr. Leon Ayd Jr., and "Labor" the Rev. John F. Cronin, discussant.

THE BANQUET at 6:30 p.m. will feature a talk by Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, president of the American Red Cross, and advisor to President Eisenhower.

Among officials planning the convention are Frank J. Sewell, St. Peter Claver; a vice president and member of the reception committee; Toledo R. Moseley, St. Pius, a member of the registration and information committee.

Dr. J. Alexander Wiseman, Bowie State Teachers College, is secretary of the Archdiocesan Union.

AME conference in session here

Young people will be in the spotlight tonight (Friday) as the 144th session of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church climaxes its third day at Trinity AME Church, Hoffman St. and Collington Ave.

Youth from AME Churches of the Baltimore District, under direction of Mrs. Harrison J. Bryant, will present a pageant based upon the ABC Book and the AME Primer.

Mrs. Gloria Collins will preside and music will be by youth choirs of the conference.

• • •

THE CONFERENCE opened Wednesday with the Rt. Rev. Frank Madison Reid, presiding Bishop, in charge.

On Saturday, the Bible hour is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. followed by Conference business of the various committees.

The annual ordination service is to be held at 12 and the laymen will meet at 3:30 p.m. The Saturday session will close with the Evangelistic hour.

Highlighting the Sunday services will be the appointments by Bishop Reid.

Music will be rendered by the choirs from Bethel, St. John and Grace Church.

On the opening day the annual sermon was preached by the Rev. Charles N. Bourne, pastor of Bethel AME Church, Cambridge.

Bishop Reid has been assisted by the Rt. Rev. Frank Carver, bishop of the 13th Episcopal District in South Africa.

Over 500 delegates and visitors heard the message delivered by the Rev. Mr. Bourne on opening day.
