Neighbors, Inc. hear talk on housing

WASHINGTON

Neighbors, Inc. heard a talk on "An Integrated Housing Project in Montgomery County" at its meeting Thursday at the Brightwood Methodist Church, 8th and Jefferson Sts., NW.

Oliver Popenoe, treasurer of Homeparks, Inc., affiliated with Morris Milgrim's Modern Community Developers, and president of the National Clearing House for Neighborhood Democracy, addressed the group.

HARD AT WORK, beginning today (Friday) are members of the St. Peter Claver Catholic Church parish and assistant priest, Father Joseph Tyson, preparing for the sacred ritual of the blessing and distribution of the palms on Palm Sunday. More than 400 persons are expected at the special High Mass, the first service of Palm Sunday, which comes at 7 a.m. and many palms must be torn from the "head" striped into pieces so that everyone may take palms home in commemoration of the Holy day. Palms are also distributed after other masses during the day at St. Peter Claver, and at other churches throughout the city. Clockwise are, Willina Parker, Gerald Harley, Lawrence Leake, Father Tyson, Audrey Dyson, Doris Sterling and Fannie Braxton, all pupils of the St. Peter Claver School.

Testimonial for Bethel pastor on April 19

The testimonial honoring the Rev. Harrison J. Bryant, pastor of Bethel AME Church, is set for Tuesday, April 19, at 8 p.m. at Bethel Church, Druid Hill Ave. and Lanvale St.

The event is sponsored by the Rev. Harrison J. Bryant for Bishop Club of the church and the Citizens for the Rev. Harrison J. Bryant, for Bishop City-wide organization.

On this occasion, Baltimore citizens will be given an opportunity to honor the Rev. Mr. Bryant who is a nominee for the bishopric at the General Conference meeting in Los Angeles in May.

The Rev. Mr. Bryant led all nominees from the Second Episcopal District when the General Conference met in Miami, Florida in 1956.

FRIENDS and supporters will nominate the Rev. Mr. Bryant again at the General Conference which opens on May 4 in Los Angeles.

The Rev. Mr. Bryant has served as pastor of the St. Johns AME Church and Bethel Church and has been influential in civic and community life in the city for over 19 years.

Noteworthy among the Rev. Mr. Bryant's accomplishments is the beautification of Bethel church in 1958. The exterior was cleaned at a cost of $17,000.

An historic church, and the second oldest AME church in the country, the building presents an inspiring sight against the Baltimore skyline.

Palm Sunday marks Christs Triumphal march 1,960 years ago

Sunday, April 10, marks the 1,959th Palm Sunday since the day Jesus made the triumphal entry into Jerusalem 1,960 years ago.

The Christian celebration is marked throughout the world with the giving of blessed palms, significant of the garlands, flowers and palms which lined the Savior's path as he entered the gates of the Eternal City.

Although primarily a Catholic custom, many churches of other denominations also give the blessed palms on Palm Sunday.

The ceremonies also mark the day before Holy Week rituals also observed in most Christian churches throughout the world.

Holy Week is considered a week of sorrow as services recall the agony of Christ, His conviction in the court of Pontius Pilot and His death on the cross.

• • • •

PALM SUNDAY is the last Sunday before Easter Sunday which marks the resurrection of Christ an occasion for joy. In Baltimore, palms are shipped in from Florida where they grow as plants in a swamp region and are called "the large wild, variety."

The rugged light - green fronds are cut with a sharp knife close to the ground as far ahead as 30 days before Palm Sunday.

Wrapped in burlap for shipping to all parts of the nation, they stay fresh for an unlimited period of time after cutting.

The "heads" or bunches, as they grow in the swamps, contain many sprays which must be stripped off by parish members or in the case of Catholics, by the priest who holds that office in the church.

The stripping of the palms is usually done on the Friday or Saturday before Palm Sunday.

• • •

THE ACTUAL Palm Sunday ritual begins at the Baltimore St. Peter Claver Catholic Church at 6:15 a.m. Palm Sunday morning.

According to Father Joseph Tyson, assistant pastor, members of the parish gather in the Parish Hall which has been decorated as if it were the main auditorium of the church.

The special ritual of the blessing of the palms is performed before the Parish Hall altars.

Father Tyson describes the ritual as a traditional one which is highly spiritual.

Following is the Palm Sunday public processional which leads from the Parish Hall out of doors and around to the front door of the church, led by the parish pastor, Father Thomas O'Connor, assistant priests and altar boys.

Parish members follow bearing palms.

• • •

THE DISTRIBUTION of palms to the congregation is made after the 7 a.m. solemn high Mass which is also a special Palm Sunday Mass.

Palms are then distributed following the remaining masses throughout the day.

The St. Peter Claver Church altars are all veiled in purple cloth as are all Catholic churches throughout the world.

The only added decoration includes fronds of palms which are placed on the altar.

WALLACE D. MUHAMMAD
TO SPEAK IN BALTIMORE

Wallace D. Muhammad, minister of the Philadelphia Temple of Islam, and formar professor of Arabic at the University of Islam in Chicago, will lecture at

Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 6
514 Wilson Street, Baltimore, Maryland
SUNDAY, APRIL 10th – at 2 p.m.

The Young Moslem Minister will explain:
"Islam and Its Effect upon Dark Mankind"

Since Rev. Billy Graham's recent "Crusade for Christianity" through Africa, and his report that Islam is sweeping throughout that continent winning thousands of converts to the Moslem religion, a new surge of interest has also been created among the American socalled Negroes.

Therefore, a large turnout is expected in Baltimore to hear this brilliant young speaker, who is also the son of Messenger Elijah Muhammad, the spiritual head of the fastest growing group of Moslems in the western hemisphere.

Mrs. F. Madden

A funeral service for Mrs. Florence Madden, 52, 1607 Gwynns Falls Pkwy., was held Thursday at St. Luke's Methodist Church. The Rev. Mr. Young, pastor officiated.

The Great Southern Temple of Daughter of Elks, of which she was a member, held brief services at the Memorial Elks Home.

Mrs. Madden died Saturday at University Hospital after a prolonged illness.

A native of Baltimore she attended Douglass High School. She had been a member of the Daughter of Elks for nine years.

She was also a member of the Friendly Travelers and Twenty-One Savings Club.

Survivors include two daughters, Mesdames Florence Madden and Lillie Mae Pinder; and a brother, Robert Grey.

Mrs. E. Gantt

Funeral services for Mrs. Estelle Gantt, 46, 2119 Penrose Ave. will be held Friday 1 p.m. at St. James Methodist Church. The Rev. Albert H. Hammond, pastor, will officiate.

Mrs. Gantt died Monday at her home after a prolonged illness.

A native of Charleston, S.C., Mrs. Gantt came to Baltimore 17 years ago with her husband, David Gantt Sr. They would have celebrated their 22nd anniversary on May 4.

An active member of St. James, she belonged to the Mothers' Club, was chairman of Student Work of the Women's Society of Christian Service, and an advisor of the Neighborhood Youth Club.

Survivors include her husband, son, David Jr., 7; three sisters, Mesdames Julie Armistead and Alice Clinton and Julia L. Payne of New York; and two brothers, Frederick and Isaiah Clinton.
