Debutantes swing into presentation circuit

with Lula Jones Garrett

Debutantes swing into their full party season, next week culminating in their presentation at the annual Me-De-So Club's Cotillion on the 22nd.

MR. AND MRS. Waters Turpin entertained at dinner, Sunday, in honor of their debutante daughter, Rosalie Rebecca. Guests included:

Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Alleyne, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. S. Benjamin Tillman.

Miss Betty Williams, Dr. and Mrs. Nick Aaron Ford, Dr. and Mrs. Broadus Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Sheffey, Mrs. J. Edward Fisher and J. Edward Fisher Turpin.

Miss Turpin will again be honoree at a party given by her parents, when the latter are "at home" on the 18th at their home on the Alameda.

ON SATURDAY of this week, Mr. and Mrs. Milton R. Brattson will receive in honor of Miss Sonia E. Brattson at their home on Windsor Avenue, and on Saturday, the 16th, a reception will be given by Mr. and Mrs. William Dorsey at the Me-De-So Club, feting Miss Lauretta Dorsey.

ON SUNDAY of this week, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wilson will be hosts at home for their daughter, Peggy Anne, and the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gray will entertain on the 14th for their daughter, Dorothy.

The Chesapeake Club will be the site for the breakfast party which will follow the cotillion and given by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gardner and Mrs. Virginia Randolph in honor of Misses Ann Shirley Gardner and Patricia Hill Randolph.

Sunday, the 24th, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Murphy, 3rd and Mr. and Mrs. George Lottier will receive in honor of their daughters, Misses Sharon Murphy and Virginia Lottier at the Murphy's Wickes Road home.

And on May 1, Dr. and Mrs. James Pair have scheduled a reception in honor of her daughter, Miss Myrtle Jackson.

MRS. GILBERT BANFIELD, who is happiest when she is giving a party, and Dr. Banfield had one of their happiest parties on Sunday night in the Me - De - So Club.

Happiest, because the affair first half of two literary offerings Dr. and Mrs. Banfield will have this season) presented Dr. C. Philip Butcher in a review of his "George W. Cable, the Northington Years" to some scores of pleased guests.

Dr. Butcher is pleased because his tome is bringing a real revival of interest in Cable.

And his audience was pleased over the great store of knowledge outside of the book, which his talk provided.

Marion (Mrs. G.) served one of her self assembled suppers, including her specialty, chicken liver paste and a huge and beautiful cake in the form of a book, decorated with tiny roses and inscribed with the Author's name, among others delicacies.

The discussion went on through supper and into the evening, among:

The Arthur Stansburys celebrate 50th wedding anniversary on Palm Sunday

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR STANSBURY
Happy in love and wed 50 years

On Wednesday, April 6, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stansbury, 2315 Druid Hill Ave., marked their 50th wedding anniversary and to put it in their own words, "we're just as proud as we can be that we reached 50 years together."

"We want everybody to know about it."

Bubbling with excitement, the couple is now busy preparing for "the big party" to be held at the Emmanuel CC Chuch at 4 p.m. Sunday and they have invited about 500 guests — "everybody we could think of."

They add: "If we left anybody out, tell them to come on and join us. We're so happy, we want everyone to help us celebrate."

FROM THE above statements it is easy to guess that the Stansburys are a lively couple, interested in life and as they say "we are still in love and glad we have been married so long."

Their formula for 50 happy years is simple: "Stick to it. Make it work. Don't give up easily. Stay in the church and it will hold you together."

Using this formula, the Stansburys say that the years have passed by so swiftly, "it seems just like yesterday."

Childless, the couple has made a home for foster children and have served as parents to nine boys and girls who have grown up to be successful men and women.

Mr. Stansbury was 25 years of age when he became a bridegroom. Mrs. Stansbury, the former Miss Susie G. Hazelton, was 19 years old. Both are natives of Baltimore.

THEIR WEDDING was at the Allen AME Church parsonage in the 1100 block of W. Lexington St. on April 6, 1910.

Soon they became "Aunt Susie" and Uncle Arthur" to the children sent to them by the Family and Children's Society for a foster home.

Mr. Stansbury as city school custodian for 30 years, was able to match his wife who was mothering the children at home by helping school pupils in "many, many ways," he says.

Being handy with a saw and hammer, Mr. Stansbury made things for the teachers and all the same time gave out good sound advice on life and living.

MR. STANSBURY joined the Trinity Masonic Lodge No. 75 37 years ago and is a past senior warden. It is still an active member, and a 32nd degree Mason.

Before he was married he played the clarinet in the City Band.

Mrs. Stansbury is an active member of the Order of Eastern Star and is past matron of the Calvary Chapter No. 2 and Past Grand Matron of the Myra Grand Chapter, a reporter on the Eastern Star News and a member of the Mary Etta Stewart's Nurses.

She is a former president of the 2300 block Druid Hill Ave. Neighborhood Club and still interested in all its activities.

Both the Stansburys are active in Emmanuel Church. He is a trustee, member of the choir and serves as church sexton since he retired from the school system in 1955.

He is also a member of the Men's Council and a member of the board of directors of the Sophia Stansbury Bible Class which is named for his mother, the late Mrs. Sophia Stansbury.

MRS. STANSBURY is president of the church Social Relief Club, a member of the Charity Circle, a Sunday School teacher of 50 years standing, and a member of the church choir for half a century.

She is secretary of the Stewards Board and a member of the Mothers Club and the Stansbury Bible Class.

The foster children who are still close to the Stansburys are Mrs. Bertha Tyler, Miss Ruth Wright, Charles Love and Andrew Smith.

Another is Mrs. Catherine Goodman who is with her husband in Germany.
