APOLIS DINGS

By ELOISE RICHARDSON

The successful Northwest Street YMCA membership enrollment campaign closed last week with 284 memberships.

Hanson E. Hodge made the highest individual report and Team No. 2, captained by Herbert S. Hilliard, had the highest team report.

Reporting the highest amount of money and $100 in memberships to become eligible for Century Club awards were Mrs. Elizabeth Hodge, Mrs. Minnie Glenn and Messrs. Hanson E. Brooks, Clarence Turner, Walter S. Mills and Francis L. Noel.

Five or more memberships were reported by Mesdames Helen Weatherford, Helen Smothers and Marvia Glenn, Misses Marita Carroll and Mary V. Wiseman and Messrs. Francis L. Noel, J. Alexander Wiseman, Walter S. Mills, Roscoe Parker.

Also Messrs. George Phelps Jr., William H. Richardson, James R. Cutting, T. Norwood Brown, John Dennis, Donald King, John Makell, Thomas Baden, Clarence Turner, Hanson E. Brooks and Dallas Pace.

Additional contributions were made by the Annapolis Shriners, the Van Dyke Orchestra, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, the Rev. Chelsea Club, the Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, the Annapolis Frontiers, the American Legion, Ancient City Lodge No. 175 of the Elks and the Anne Arundel County Branch NAACP.

ON SATURDAY, April 9, at 7 p.m., a committee from the Board of Management will present a soiree featuring fun, fellowship and food at Carvel Hall for the benefit of the Y's youth program.

AT A LUNCHEON sponsored by the Anne Arundel County United Church Women of the Southern end of the county, a Planned Parenthood Chapter was organized in Annapolis for Anne Arundel County.

Among members on the board of the local chapter are Mrs. William H. Richardson, and Douglas Roberts of Glen Burnie.

Among those at the luncheon were Mesdames Henrietta Johnson of Glen Burnie, Mrs. Philip Smith, Mrs. Clayton Randall, Mrs. Mary B. Thompson, and Mrs. Mary C. Brown. Sgt. Violet Hill Whyte of Baltimore was a speaker.

JOYCE PICOT McMANUS, contralto, held her audience spellbound as she culminated her Friday recital with "The Story of the Crucifixion and Resurrection of Christ" interpreted through spirituals, at Adams Park School.

The talented singer, in making her second appearance here, was superb in her beautiful interpretations and renditions with a near perfect diction and enunciation.

THE MEN OF Mt. Moriah AME Church were "kings for a day" when they observed Men's Day observance on Sunday, with services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Dr. Robert W. Mance of Washington, secretary treasurer of the AME Church, was the morning speaker.

Dr. Mance began his talk using the "babbling brook" as a symbol of what the lives of humans should be like. He pointed to its beauty and clarity and its steadfast characteristics of perseverance in its functions.

A native of Newberry, S.C., Dr. Mance is a doctor of medicine, practiced for about 30 years at Columbia, S.C. before taking up residence in Washington.

Dr. Mance was appointed to his present position in 1954 and is considered one of the leading lay churchmen in the country.

The Senior Choir under the direction of Miss Betty Stallum provided music for the services.

Other participants were John F. Wauls, John T. Wilson, John A. Taylor, Booker T. Johnson, Leon Bell and Thomas McKinnis. Jerome Edwards presided.

The pastor, the Rev. Albert R. Powell, delivered the evening message and Joseph A. Walker of Bay Highlands was soloist. Other participants were Dr. Aris T. Allen, the Rev. Howard E. Nichols, Phillip L. Brown, Booker T. Johnson, Arthur Diggs and John Butler.

After the reports of the canvass the Rev. Isaac R. Berry and his congregation took over the service as a courtesy to the Rev. and Mrs. Powell and the congregation as a pre-conference gesture. The annual conference is being held at Mt. Moriah this week.

Men's Day committees were as follows:

Finance: Howard E. Nichols, chairman; William E. Brown, William H. Eller, Booker T. Johnson, George W. Mitchell, Francis L. Noel, Alfred Williams and Jerome Edwards.

Program: Francis L. Noel and Phillip L. Brown, co-chairman; John E. Wauls and Ernest Sumner and Dr. Aris T. Allen.

Music: Ernest W. Brown, chairman; Charles Williams, Roland Day, John Wilson, Thomas McKinnis, Willie G. McManus, James Johnson and James Queen.

Publicity: George W. Mitchell, chairman; Alfred Williams, John E. Wauls, Jerome Edwards, Francis L. Noel, Rev. Howard E. Nichols and Dr. Aris T. Allen.

Flowers: James Hutton, chairman; Leon Bell, Arthur Diggs, Roy Holmes, William C. Parker, Leander Phelps and Frank Simpson.

Courtesy: Eliza Forrester, chairman, and all of the male ushers.

Officers were James E. Horney, president; Jerome Edwards, first vice president; Alfred Williams, second vice president; William E. Brown, secretary; Booker T. Johnson, assistant secretary; William H. Eller, treasurer.

How To Serve Rated "A" Blend Whiskey And Save $1 Or More A Fifth

By Wilfred Van Rink

You can solve better quality whiskey and pay less. Simply buy liquor according to facts well known in the industry.

It's no secret that distilling is rigidly regulated, quality controlled. Throughout the entire industry, whiskey blend quality is identified as A, B or C. The top rating is obvious.

Yet unknowing people can pay more for a B or C blend than an "A." Why none? Because highly advertised liquors spend $1 or so a fifth on things that can't affect quality, such as shipping, warehousing, big ads, big markups.

Pride of Baltimore Blended Whiskey is rated strictly "A"—no others come in this range that mean nothing to quality. Try Pride of Baltimore—see the difference!

Edmondson seniors to hold their last dance tonight

By DELORES COUSER

Ruth Frey captured first prize in Edmondson's Science Fair. Her project was on how different types of grass were affected when varying amounts of fertilizers and acids were added.

Second prize went to Elaine Weidman and Nancy Jeffers. Dot Sands won third prize.

For the second year in succession, The Eagle has been awarded first place in the national high school rating contest sponsored by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Joe Pundzak has been selected president of the Dramatic Club. Rosalind Porter is vice president; Mary Chiodi is treasurer; Janice Harris secretary and Marilyn Malloy assistant secretary.

Tonight (Friday) students of Edmondson High School dance to the music of the Van Dykes at the last dance to be sponsored by the senior class.

BALTIMORE AFTER DARK

on the town

WITH THE PUB CRAWLERS

"To Madison or not to Madison, that is the question," to paraphrase old Bill Shakespeare, but this is the hottest issue on the Baltimore night club scene at the moment.

Uncle Sam has entered the picture, demanding more moola for the Big strong "M." Or in other words, if the clubs are going to allow patrons to dance the Madison, then they'll have to charge a 20 per cent entertainment tax.

This is pouring acid on the ulcers of the harassed club owners, who have to decide whether to keep the strong lines going, and up their prices to pay the tax, or drop the tipes and keep the prices where they are.

THE OLD PUB CRAWLERS are on the scene once again to keep you posted on what's going on in Baltimore After Dark.

Started the rounds this week at the Club Tijuana and believe me, that joint is really jumping and swinging.

Dancing seems to be the order of the day, with the Madison featured on Wednesdays and Thursdays, and Latin American dances on Tuesdays.

Course you know that Al Brown and the Tunetoppers appear at the club on weekends, heading up a revue featuring real live chorus girls, yet. Al and the boys have really hit the big time with their Army recording of "The Madison." They've got an LP of it coming out next week.

Ray Torain, manager of the Tijuana, is doing a bangup job of keeping the customers happy, and the Pub Crawlers are forced to agree — the place really swings.

OVER TO the Club Astoria on Edmondson Avenue where Gene Smith's romping, stomping combo is the current attraction.

Funny thing about the Astoria, to be as large as it is, it is really a friendly club. No one stays a stranger long—it's a place where friends are made and fun is uppermost.

GUESS YOU'D have to call the Lucky Number, out on Poplar Grove St. the club of surprises. You never know what you'll find there.

Featuring really good music, Claude Grant's organ trio holding down the fort at present, the club has that subdued atmosphere of a top jazz spot.

And guest artists continually drop in to jam for a bit. Spied Lou Bennett doing a turn with the group on his night off. Sunday afternoons have become famous for the really swinging jam sessions.

Watty and his crew have done an admirable job of keeping the standards of the club high. Believe it or not, at the package goods counter there, you can't buy a bottle of wine.

Anyone who starts any trouble in the club is automatically barred from the place for life. This all helps to make the Lucky Number the spot to relax, sip and enjoy good music and pleasant company.

When the Crawlers made the scene at North End Lounge, where North meets Gay, the house was happy.

Celebrating its grand opening, the spot is showcasing Garry Bartz Quintet, modern sound masters.

For variety, owner Roy Bates staged a fashion show featuring the fashionable dolls of PAULINE BROOKS.

But amidst the festive fare, strangely missing was the big, strong line. Heretofore, North End was the Eastside mecca of Madison devotees.

Roy sadly related that since Uncle Sam didn't dig the big, wide turn, grabbing off his excise tax bite, he had to cut it loose.

But patrons, don't panic, because he has a solid substitute. And with the passing of a deuce of seven, he'll have a fabulous summer garden.

Bringing a dash of Paris to the Big B, the garden will feature candle lighted tables where nightlifers can sip imported wine under a starlit sky.

Accompanying manager Bill Hayes, bar maids Lillian Curley, Ruby Fortune and Dorthea Poe are working harder than ever making ready for this gay day.

AT JONES' Lounge, Lanvale at Fulton, gay lifers are soothed with the tender stroking of organ star Melvin Spears three nights a week.

Proprietor Theodore Jones reports that since the quietus is on the Big M, there ain't many happenings.

BARMAID OF THE WEEK—is Mrs. Eleanor Janey, 2320 Division St., who holds down a spot at the Club Tijuana out on upper Pennsylvania Avenue. A newcomer to the nightclub scene, she has been on the job a scant two weeks, and is proving to be a favorite of the club patrons. A Baltimore girl, she is married and the mother of five children.

'Baltimore International Airport' asked

A suggestion that the name of Friendship International Airport be changed to "Baltimore International Airport" has been proposed by Leon A. Rubenstein, Fifth District City councilman.

Mr. Rubenstein's proposal is scheduled to be placed before the City Council on Monday as a resolution, asking the Aviation Board to take this action.

The proposal notes that, while Friendship Airport is presently the only one in the Baltimore - Washington area with adequate facilities to accommodate jet airlines, Federal officials are proceeding of Motor Vehicles, has an International Airport at Chantilly, Va.

Also noting that trans-Atlantic jet service between Baltimore and this great airport give nationwide publicity to this area, the proposal to Baltimore materially to advertise the states.

"It is necessary that the vance the fame of this city as the name of Baltimore be identi a vital point in both national and with this airport, and that and international air travel."

By CAROLYN BAKER and JOYCE BROWN

Members of the school choir attended the annual Inter-Choral Festival at Eastern High School. The a capella choir was directed by Mrs. Marian Smith. Miss Gloria Ford led the Choraleers and the Boys Choir sang under the direction of Norman Ross.

The A Capella Choir and band presented a concert at William Lemmel Junior High School.

Sandra A. Dodson 11A, has been awarded a two-year scholarship to study at the Maryland Institute of Art.

THE EVALUATION of Douglass High School by the Middle States Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges was completed Thursday, March 31.

An oral report was made to the faculty by the chairman of the Visiting Committee, Dr. E. J. Gergeley of Brooklyn College, New York. A written report of the Committee's findings will be received later.

1611 Edmondson not okeyed for 4 families

The Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals refused Tuesday to allow the continued housing of four families at 1611 Edmondson Ave.

Edgar M. Ewing, assistant director renewal operations, Baltimore Urban Renewal and Housing Agency, and Andrew Hodsden, president, Northwest Improvement Association, appeared to successfully protest the application.

Mr. Ewing told the Board his agency investigation disclosed that the house had been occupied by two families from 1933 to 1941, when it was converted into four-family use.

Mr. Hodsden, who lives in the same block at 1637 Edmondson Ave., said his organization felt four families were too many for the house in question.
