Good Friday services

Today, Good Friday, is observed in all Protestant and Catholic churches as a day of sorrowing at the crucifixion and suffering of Christ is remembered.

The day is also one of the most sacred and holy on the Christian calander.

Most Protestant churches scheduled noon-hour services today or conducted special rites at sundown.

The three - hour services at the Cathedral of the Incarnation began at 12 noon. Services at the old Cathedral, the Basilica of the Blessed Virgin Mary included Stations of the Cross at 12:30 p.m. Veneration of the Cross comes at 5:30 p.m.

Sts. has services 12 noon to 3 p.m.

ENON BAPTIST Church, Edmondson Ave. and Schroeder St. holds Good Friday services at 8 p.m.

Memorial Baptist Church, Caroline and Preston Sts., will hold services at 7:30 p.m. while Perkins Square Baptist Church scheduled services from 12 noon to 3 p.m.

At 5 p.m., Easter Sunday, the Sunday School Scholars of Unity Baptist will give a program.

Easter Sunrise Services will be held at Unity Baptist, Locust ME and First Baptist of Guilford.

The Charles Sisters of Baltimore gave a musical program at Unity Baptist on last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Martha Dickerson was sponsor. The affair was for the benefit of the Building Fund of the church. Ground has been broken for the addition to the church.

Samuel H. Moore Jr., son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Moore has been promoted to SF-4. He is currently stationed in Turkey. Philip, a younger son of the Moore's, celebrated a birthday on the 12th.

Oscar Battle

Oscar Battle, 26, 1504 W. Lexington St., was buried Wednesday at Mt. Auburn Cemetery after services at A. N. Schroeder St. funeral home.

After ailing for almost a month, Mr. Battle died Friday at home on his 26th birthday. Death was due to a liver ailment.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. James Battle (Annie Mae), who survive him, Mr. Battle was a native of Halifax, N.C.

He was employed as a truck driver for a local furniture company, before his illness.

IN ADDITION TO his parents, with whom he lived, Mr. Battle is survived by a wife and son from whom he was separated. A brother, Joseph, sister, Gloria Jean, 10, and other relatives survive.

GET THE ANSWERS TO THESE QUESTIONS

1. Why are the American Negroes divided?
2. Who is responsible for their present state of condition?
3. If Almighty God made us all, why did He make such a difference between His black children and His white children?
4. How can the two have the same religion, the same Bible, and one is being mistreated by the other?
5. Would a true father allow one son to hate, lynch, rape and deprive the other of civil rights while He (The Father) has the power to prevent it?
