THE MARYLAND Pharmaceutical Society held its regular monthly meeting, Tuesday at 1705 Edmondson Ave.

At the March meeting the guest speaker, Dr. Lloyd Davis, discussed Modern Concepts of Drug Store Accounting.

Following his talk, Mr. Davis, who is assistant manager of the Douglass Somerset Project and who also teaches economics at Morgan College, conducted an income tax forum and answered questions on small business tax problems.

The March meeting which was hosted by Wesley Shelton and Miss Melba McNeil, was attended by Bernard White, Richard Butler, Ralph Quarrels, James Scudder, John Hagan, Bernard Ralph, Wesley Shelton, James Hodges, Mrs. Romona Dorcas, Mrs. Rebecca Davis, and Miss Melba McNeil.

The April meeting was devoted to a discussion of common problems. The members, who are employed as pharmacists in several hospitals and various drug stores and chain operations, shared their experiences and discussed topics of mutual interest.

Dr. Maybelle Weaver invited the group to a meeting of the Monumental Medical Association. She also presented the group with ideas on maintaining intra and inter-professional relationships.

Every member was pleased to learn of the promotion of Carroll B. Lee to the position of manager at the Reads' Drug Store located at North and Pennsylvania Avenues. Mr. Lee thus becomes the first colored pharmacist to manage a chain store in the Baltimore area.

Harold Holmes served as host for the meeting and others in attendance were, Dr. Maybelle Weaver, Richard Butler, Bernard White, Carroll Lee, John Hagan, Mrs. Romona Dorcas and Mrs. Rebecca Davis.

It was announced that the guest speaker for the May meeting will be Dr. Lucius Leeper, prominent Baltimore physician, who will discuss the subject, "Drugs used in the Treatment of Allergies."

THE WOMEN'S Democratic Campaign Committee (headed by Victorine Adams), was no less than elated over their "Bring A Bundle" project for the Nearly New Shop at Crownsville State Hospital a Tuesday ago.

It took a truck to cart the stuff away.

Janet Woolridge received the bundles for the auxiliary, the project being chaired by Geneva Griffin.

Charm Centre, where the donors took their gifts, sipped Manhattans and heard entrancing music, was filled to the hilt with:

Mesdames Louise Harris, James L. Lomax, Marguerite J. Bevans, Naomi Jones, Zora Baysmore, Irene Savage, Marie Hersey, Lillian Smith, Miriam Winborne.

Mesdames Elizabeth Briggs, Ernestine Lovell, Maude Lewis, Hallie Wilson, Essie Sutton, G. W. Johnson, Bertha Cross, Gena Cole, Alma Perry, Beatrice Jackson;

Mesdames Myrtle Johnson, Lillian Jones, Jane Toney, Susie Moore, Myrtle Thompson, Irene Harris, Catherine Thomas, Esther McMillion;

Mesdames Shirley Diggs, C. Bailey, Susie Grafton, June Carter, Lessie Jacobs, Helen Ray.

Mesdames Rebekah Mitchell, Inez Dixon, Cora Goodwin, Frances Stafford, Thelma Ash, Geneva Griffin.

Misses Hattie Tilghman, Gladys Harbour;

Messrs. and Mesdames H. Lee Shipley, William Johnson.

POT - POURRI: Bless these women who have the time, the talent and the needs of others upon their hearts, and the will to do something about them. Anne Payne and Tommy White who are planning a bath party in May to benefit the children's ward of Provident Hospital.

In Baltimore this week to spend the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keiffer Jackson, is Marian Jackson Pierce, who "jetted" in from Los Angeles, California. Sunday. She went to New York City for a recital at St. Mark Methodist Church on Wednesday. Was back here and will sing at Sharp Street Methodist Church, Sunday. Then back to California, next week.

On (Good) Friday, the Leroy Greens (Gertrude Sowell) who welcomed a baby daughter on March 20. Baby, who weighed in at six pounds, nine ounces when she arrived at Lutheran Hospital, has been named Dennis Aurelia.

Add to "Annies who don't live there anymore" charming Esther LaForest, who is deserting a long residence on Eden Street for a manse at 3532 Lynchester Road. Dr. and Mrs. Evans Gilkes have been in their Powhatan Avenue place for a bit over a week.

Happiest couple in town is the P. D. G. Pennintons, because he has recovered from his illness enough to actually be not only up, but around!

DR. STERLING BROWN came over from Washington to read and interpret some of his original poems and others that are his favorites at the Friday evening session of the Parkin Club.

Dr. Brown is professor of English at Howard University.

The session, hosted by Edith Smith and held in the Me-De-So Club rooms, and followed by a buffet supper, had as guests:

Ida Smith, Hilda Higgins, Gladys Prestwidge, Vashti Christmas, Marian French, Pauline Watts, Dr. Delores Hunt, Dr. Effie Ellis;

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Waters, Mr. and Mrs. George Washington, Dr. Percival Smith, Charles Brown and Ernest Johnson.

Annette Johnson heads this interesting group, and other of the members attending included Jewel Moseley, Mamie Todd, Gwendolyn Tarter, Charlotte Mehane, Lydia Missendden, and of course, Mrs. Smith.

DATE DATA: The Easter basket is as full of delightful socialites as that Bunny's nest is of colored eggs.

On Monday, of course, Baltimore Links are holding forth at luncheon and bridge at the Sheraton - Belvedere at 12:30 p.m.

Veronica Tyler scores in scholarship recital

By ADAH JENKINS

Veronica Tyler, soprano, was greeted with an ovation when she appeared on the stage of the North Hall at Peabody Conservatory, Wednesday evening, for her scholarship recital.

This concert marks her completion of three years as holder of the Blaustein, Deiches and Wood scholarships.

The enthusiasm of her audience increased as the program progressed. She was recalled three times for her brilliant singing of the 20 - minute long "Motet and Exultate Jubilate," by Mozart.

Such appreciation was well merited, for Miss Tyler displayed amazing advancement and maturity as a singer and musician.

She is acquiring a gracious and well-poised stage presence. The voice, which has always been one of great promise, is gaining in luster, flexibility and power.

* * *

THE MOST significant development shown by this gifted, young singer, is that of projecting the emotional side of the music through her voice, and by her facial expressions.

This was apparent in the aria from the modern opera, "The Dead City," and in the German art song, by Beethoven, Schubert and Brahms and three French songs and the Burleigh's arrangement of two spirituals.

With experience will come, no doubt, a clearing of her diction in singing English, although the singing of three songs by the American composer Samuel Barber, displayed taste and beauty.

Accompaniments were played admirably by Reynaldo Reyes, pianist.

Miss Tyler, who will graduate in June from Peabody, will sing her diploma recital May 18. She is a voice student with Madam Duschak, and was also the winner of an AFRO scholarship.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.* Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

...APOLIS ...DINGS

By ELOISE RICHARDSON

Mt. Moriah AME praised by Washington Conference participants; Delta Alumnae Chapter boosts Delta Book Shelf, PTA Congress to meet in Cambridge; Odd Fellows convene in Annapolis.

"My, this was a great conference", . . "This is the best conference I have ever attended."

"The people at this church are lovely! . . . "Aren't these people at this church nice to strangers?" . . . "My, this is a beautiful clean church, and there is so much warmth and friendliness!" . . .

The above were among remarks heard that were made by delegates and visitors who attended the Washington Conference of the AME Church, held at the Mt. Moriah AME Church, the Rev. A. R. Powell, pastor, here last week.

The opening night meeting of the conference was a welcome program, when a number of prominent citizens greeted the visitors.

* * *

AMONG THESE were a representative for Gov. J. Millard Tawes, Frank Wilde, acting Mayor (the Mayor was out of the city on vacation), Roscoe C. Parker, alderman; Dr. Aris T. Allen, a member of the Anne Arundel County Board of Education.

Also Frank B. Butler, representing fraternal organizations of the city; J. Edward Bullock, president of the Annapolis Frontiers of America; the Rev. Isaac R. Berry, pastor of the Asbury Methodist Church.

Also the Rev. Leroy Bowman, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Father David H. Croll, vicar of St. Philip's Episcopal Church.

The Rt. Rev. Frank Madison Reid, presiding bishop, Second Episcopal District, responded to the reception. Francis L. Noel presided.

* * *

MT. MORIAH-CHURCH is to be commended for the well-organized way in which the conference was entertained.

Committees and their chairman were:

Souvenir Program—Alfred E. Williams, chairman; Mrs. Marie W. Thomas, co - chairman; Miss Barbara Jackson, secretary; Francis L. Noel and Mrs. Annie Evans.

Housing Committee — Mrs. Cledonia Johnson, chairman; Mrs. Sylvia R. Jones, chairman; Mesdames Ethel Southall, Christel Booth, Brooks, Mildred Noel, Hattie Phelps and Helen Brice and Booker T. Johnson.

Dining Room Committee — Mrs. Annie Gordison, chairman; Mrs. Beatrice Parker, co-chairman; Mesdames Lottie Coates, Ann Mitchell and Dorothy Day.

Hospitality Committee—Elzia Forrester, chairman; Mrs. Loretta Parker, co - chairman; Mesdames Maggie Wilson and Josephine Gray. Misses Bernice Shaw, and Messrs. Leander Phelps, Richard Washington and Marshall Brown.

Finance Committee — Mrs. Cecelia B. Greene, chairman; Mesdames Clementine Williams, co-chairman; Mrs. Hattie Williams, treasurer; Mrs. Claudia Randall and Messrs. William Coates and James Parker Sr.

Publicity Committee — Mrs. Estabelle Henry, chairman; Mrs. A. Burnett Browne, co-chairman; Mesdames Alicetine Wade, Lula Upchurch and Edna Wright.

* * *

AMONG DISTINGUISHED visitors who attended the conference was the Rt. Rev. Francis S. Gow of Capetown, South Africa, presiding bishop of the 15th Episcopal District of the AME Church, the Union of South Africa and Southwest Africa, with headquarters at Capetown.

While discussing the controversy in his country at this time, Bishop Gow said although things are very tense there, he pointed out that there are hundreds of Europeans who have been fearless in espousing the cause of the non-Europeans.

In his views on the sit-down protest, Bishop Reid said:

"The sit-down protest is a part of the movement of the world for freedom for people of color, and eventually the cause will be won."

"AME's will unqualifiedly endorse the battle for equality as a principle of our Christian faith."

SOME YEARS ago the national body of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority augmented its fine educational program by setting up five public service projects, namely, Job Opportunities, Mental Health, Volunteers for Community Service, International, and Library.

In an effort to maintain the standards and carry out the national projects on a chapter scale, the Annapolis Alumnae Chapter selected the library project.

In line with the library project in Southern areas, the chapter decided to begin its project by the establishment of a "Book Shelf" in the Anne Arundel County Public Library.

In May, 1957 the chapter authorized Mrs. Mary C. Brown and Mrs. Sylvia Richardson to present a check for $100 to the library for use in the purchasing of books by and for colored people in an effort to help bridge the gap between the two groups here. In the years succeeding the annual donation has been $50.

The "Delta Book Shelf" has been of much aid to adults and children. This year's appropriation was augmented by the gift of two copies of the book, "Mary Church Terrell-Respectable Person."

THE ANNUAL meeting of the Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers will be held at the Mace's Lane High School at Cambridge on April 29 and 30.

The banquet will be held at 6 p.m. on Friday and all persons interested in attending the banquet and who need housing, should make arrangements directly with Miss Edythe Jolley, principal.

The twenty-first annual group meeting of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows and Household of Ruth was conducted at the Adams Park School on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Speaker for the morning was Walter S. Mills, principal of Parole School. He was introduced by Frank B. Butler, retired vice-principal of Bates High School.

Soloists were Miss Betsy Brown and Augustus J. Hobey. Other music was sung by the Bates Males Chorus and Male Chorus sectets of Asbury Methodist Church.

Mrs. Marie Thomas gave the welcome address for the order and Francis L. Noel delivered the welcome address for the community. Mrs. Mabel Stewart responded to these.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Howard Nichols and the scripture was read by Mrs. Elizabeth Jones. A presentation from the Juvenile department was made by Miss Alice Hall.

* * *

REMARKS AND introduction of their cabinets were made by Mrs. Bertha Davenport, D.M.N.G. and Leslie Gaines, D.G.M.

The public offering was taken by Mrs. Annie Wilson, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. W. Harris and Warren Parker.

The committee on arrangements was as follows:

Thomas R. Allen, chairman; Lovey Blackstone, vice - chairman; Gertrude Jenkins, secretary; Lovey Blackstone, treasurer; William Gross, chaplain.

Also Mesdames Annie Wilson, Martha Snowden, Louise Brown, Russell Turner, Alice Harris, Carrie Johnson, Elizabeth Jones, Matilda Howard, Edna Brown, Sally Galloway, Georgia Boston and Romora Thomas and Miss Betsy Brown.

The annual achievement program at Jones School was held recently.

Each grade presented a skit that was significant of the motto. Teachers in charge of these skits were:

Miss Lillian Trotman, first grade; Mrs. Gloria Jones, first grade; Mrs. Marian Brown, second grade; Mrs. Carlean Gaither, second grade; Mrs. Victoria Sims, third grade;

Also Mrs. Jean Sparrow, third and fourth grades; Henry Parker, fourth grade; Mrs. Jessie Anderson, fifth grade; Mrs. Rosabel Landon is principal.

TUESDAY EVENING was a history-making occasion for the Book Club of Crownsville State Hospital and other patients and professional members of the staff of the hospital when members of the club presented a discussion on world affairs.

Also they listened to special guests, Mrs. Eleanor Graham of New England, the author of several best sellers, and Mrs. Joyce Picot McManus, contralto.

Speakers were Mrs. Essie Robinson and Edward Young, leader of the group.

A patient, Eugene Jones, played for the group and also gave background music during the social hour which followed the program.

Remarks were made by Dr. Charles S. Ward, superintendent of the hospital, and Dr. George McKenzie Phillips, clinical director. Mrs. Brucye Hamilton, director of volunteer services was also present. Mrs. William H. Richardson, director of the book club, gave remarks.

Montgomery NAACP hits press indictment

WASHINGTON

The Montgomery County Branch of NAACP last week sharply criticized a county grand jury for its recent indictment of the Washington Post and Times Herald on a charge of libel for a recent editorial, "Lopsided Justice."

Calling it a "disservice to the people" of Montgomery County, the branch charged that the indictment, arising from the newspaper's defense of Melvin W. Smith of Gaithersburg in a recent assault case, "tends to deter criticism of the administration of justice, no matter how well - founded." It urged that the indictment be dropped.

* * *

SMITH, HALF-BROTHER of Gordon Contee, convicted of the rape of a white woman and sentenced to life imprisonment, was charged with assault when he allegedly attacked a county detective in a courtroom after Contee's conviction Dec. 17.

Smith, only 18 at the time, was sentenced to three years in prison. People's Court Judge John B. Diamond suspended two years of the sentence.

In another case involving Smith, Judge Diamond acquitted certain policemen accused of manhandling the youth during his confinement.

The libel indictment blamed the Post editorial for "unlawful, by and maliciously" intending to bring the administration of justice by Judge Diamond, assistant state's attorney Harper M. Smith "into hatred and contempt among the citizens of Montgomery County. . ."

THE NAACP STATEMENT, drawn up Thursday at a meeting, read:

"In a free society, the press and the public have the right to criticize the conduct of litigation by courts and prosecutors, since this is a protection for the people against mistakes and abuses in the administration of justice. The colored people have a special stake in the preservation of this right because they are so often the victims of injustice.

". . . Because the indictment tends to deter criticism of the administration of justice, no matter how well - founded, it is a disservice to the people, and especially the colored people, of Montgomery County.

"It is of no consequence that the grand jury is convinced that, as it reported, "there was no maladministration or lopsided justice in these cases." The grand jury and the Washington Post are each entitled to express its own opinion. Grand juries are often wrong, and the fallibility of this one is demonstrated by its indictment of the Post. Nor have we seen any explanation of why application of a nightstick over the head was necessary to subdue a slight, unarmed 19-year - old youth (Ed. note: Smith was then 18), surrounded in close quarters by five police officers.

"We have not the slightest doubt that the Post will be fully vindicated in the courts. We think, however, that the prosecuting authorities owe it to the people of Maryland not to wait for the case to be thrown out by the courts. They should move to dismiss the indictment— with an apology to the Post."

Brooklyn youth charged with street slaying

Ferndale police have charged a Brooklyn youth with shooting to death Victor Stewart, 17, 100 block Elizabeth St., Patapsco Park.

Robert Houston, 18, 300 block Brooklyn Ave., is accused of shooting young Stewart in the back with a 22-caliber rifle.

The slaying occurred as the result in an argument following a dance off Belle Grove Rd. Tuesday night, police said.

A hearing for the accused slayer will be held Monday at 10 a.m. at Ferndale Police Station.

Funeral services for the victim are scheduled to be held from a N. Broadway funeral home, tomorrow (Saturday) 2 p.m.
