East Calvary members eulogize D.C. teacher

WASHINGTON — She was sweet and pleasant, she spoke kindly of everyone, and had a smile for every one, she died.

That's what members of East Calvary Methodist Church said about Miss Jean A. Dickerson who died here recently, and those words have been echoed many times by all who knew the pretty socialite. "Even in death her face wore a smile," they added.

Funeral services were held Tuesday from East Calvary Methodist Church, 14th and Independence Ave., SE, among whose founders were her maternal grandparents and other relatives. The Rev. J. E. Cater officiated.

MISS DICKERSON was born here. After high school, from which she was graduated with honors, she attended Miner Teachers College, being graduated in June 1952. The same year she was appointed to the Dickerson public school system, teaching at Langston Elementary School. At the time of her death she was a member of the faculty of Langston Elementary School and members of the sorority. Her tiny pupils who in happier days showed their fondness for the teacher with the traditional apple and other small tokens of affection, and sent a large floral spray, simply marked "The Class."

Miss Dickerson is survived by her mother, and father, Rev. and Mary Dickerson; four sisters — Mrs. Joyce Wilkerson, Mrs. Jean Jan and Denise Dickerson, two brothers, Ralph and Anthony Bowen. Interment was at Mount School, then at Gage-Lincoln Memorial Cemetery.

Mrs. Sue Williston, 88, resident here 40 years

WASHINGTON — Funeral services were held Monday morning at the Jarvis Funeral Home for Mrs. Sue Belle Williston, 88, member of a prominent Washington family and a resident of the District 40 years. Burial was in Mount Hope Memorial cemetery.

The mother of the late Dr. Thomas A. Williston, Mrs. Williston was a resident of Washington for more than 40 years. She was the wife of David A. Williston, 1322 Fairmont St., NW, a landscape architect, who has been practicing his profession for more than half a century.

MRS. WILLISTON was also the sister of the late Neval Thomas, who, before his death was a leading fighter for civil rights and a local high school teacher. A school in the District has been named after him.

A native of Springfield, Ohio, Mrs. Williston received her early education in the public schools of that city, later taking a business course.

She was perhaps the first colored woman to be employed as a court stenographer in the City Courthouse at Springfield. Later she went to Tuskegee Institute where she was private secretary for Booker T. Washington and later Robert Russa Moton, both of them principals of the famous institution.

IN ADDITION to her husband, Mrs. Williston is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Florence M. Jones, of Columbus, Ohio; Miss Blanche Thomas, of Palm Springs, California; and Mrs. Jarvis Turnell, both of Cleveland, Ohio; and Mrs. Marie Thomas, of Detroit, Mich.
