Gadabouting In Baltimore

Bride wore beige, stardust in her eyes

with Lula Jones Garrett

Helen Glover was actually starry - eyed at her wedding to Dr. Emwood Odom of New York City, Saturday evening, and as beautiful as she has always been, was even lovelier in her ensemble of beige peau de soie and lace, with matching peau de soie shoes, a brief flirtation veil, and carrying orchids.

She was attended by Ivy Harris, who wore embroidered organza in a pale - blue shade, with matching accessories.

The wedding was in the garden of the Powhatan Avenue (Baltimore) home of Dr. and Mrs. H. Garland Chisell Jr., and had been arranged by four of the bride's close friends, Jimmie LaForest, Ivy Harris, Robbie Chissell and Wilhelmina Garner, with Dr. William Garner providing a program of recorded melodies.

It was but natural that the ceremony (read by the Rev. Harold L. Dodson of Union Baptist Church) should have been in the Chissell home. It was the Chisells who had introduced the principals three years ago, while Dr. Chissell and Odom were doing their hitch in the service at the same post, Fort Dix. And so, Dr. Chissell served as best man. William Harris escorted the bride.

It had been an exciting week for the bride - elect. Ellsworth Rhetta held forth at an elegant out - door supper for her on Thursday evening...where beat had that barbecue, corn-on-the-cob, steaks, salads and hot rolls in the elegant garden of Dr. and Mrs. Rhetta's Carlisle Avenue place.

This, a strictly hen party, was attended by Ruth Carter, Hortense Perkins, Gwendolyn Carter, Robbie Chissell, Ivy Harris, Stevie Harris, Norma Dillard, Louise Robinson, Carolyn Chissell, Tina Parker Hellena Edmonds, and the hostess, of course.

Earlier in the week, Gwendolyn Carter had hosted at a shower to which guests fetched lingerie ... everything from bras to negligees, in the new shade, sandlewood.

The champagne and other delicacies provided reasons to linger long at the wedding reception.

Guests were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Warren Weaver, Steven Moore, Miles Robinson, Walter Edmonds, Walter Cheatham, Richard Perkins, William Harris, John Wood, Harold Jennifer, Edgar Ewing, Goodrich Brame, Emerson Brown, Loyal Randolph;

Drs. and Mesdames Marcus Moore, Simon Carter, William Garner, Bernard Harris, B. M. Rhetta, Herbert Chissell, Albert LaForest; Mesdames Cleota Brayboy, Norma Dillard, Ruth Carter, Tillie Pair, Thaddeus Logan, Mark Patterson; and Misses Peggye Jones and Gwendolyn Carter.

The bride is the widow of the late Ulysses Glover, one of the original National Guardsmen. Dr. Odom is a specialist in gynecology and a Korean man as indicated by the brothers serenading the bride with the sweetheart song.

The newlyweds motored to New York. Were back in town the week end.

MISS CAMILLA BOOTH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colette Booth of Baltimore, Maryland, was married to Ronald Peterson, nephew of Mrs. Dorothy Greene, of Peekskill, New York, at St. Cecelia's Church in Englewood, New Jersey, on Saturday.

The bride's attendant was her sister, Carletta, and Gilbert White of Ossining, was best man for Mr. Peterson.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Verdell Hart, of Englewood. New Jersey. Immediately following the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Cape Cod, Massachusetts.

The bride is an AKA soror and a teacher at Woodbourne Junior High School, here. The bridegroom is employed by the Francis Earle Laboratories in New York.

CUPIDOODLING: Lyle G. Roberts Jr., son of Mrs. Margaret Mason Roberts and Lyle G. Roberts Sr., and Moira Niles will be married in St. Alphonsus Roman Catholic Church, Park Ave. and Saratoga St., Saturday, Sept. 10.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Wilhelmina Niles of the Virgin Islands, and a registered nurse in University Hospital. Mr. Roberts is also the grandson of Dr. Joseph Mason and a sophomore at Morgan State College.

The wedding of Miss Fronnie Whitehurst, of this city, and Olyemi O. Sodipo, of Nigeria, will take place on Sept. 13. The ceremony will be held in Mount Vernon Place Methodist Church, at seven in the evening.

And the former Veronica Sylvia Tyler and Barry St. John Hawkins, who were married a month back, will have a wedding reception on Saturday, the 10th, on Chelsea Terrace.

MEMBERS OF THE PARTY at the wedding of Mrs. Helen Glover and Dr. Emwood Odom of New York City, in Baltimore, Saturday, shown, above, are, left to right: the Rev. Harold Dobson, who officiated; Mrs. William Harris, attendant; Mr. Harris, who escorted the bride, Dr. and Mrs. Odom and Dr. H. Garland Chissell, Jr., best man.

MR. AND MRS. LLEWELLYN WOOLFORD were married in Union Baptist Church, Baltimore, Saturday. The bride is the former Miss Sadie M. Alston.

Llewellyn Woolford, Miss Alston married

Miss Sadie Maud Alston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Alston of Warrenton, N.C., and Llewellyn W. Woolford were married, here, Saturday.

The wedding, at high noon, took place in Union Baptist Church with the Rev. Baxter L. Matthews officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Lucille Marcus was at the organ and Mrs. Jacques Leeds was soloist.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her uncle, Eddie Park, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of white Chantilly lace, made with long pointed sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt sweeping into a chapel train. Her tiara consisted of seed pearls and her full length veil was of lace and net.

She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Maxine Alston, of Warrington, sister of the bride and maid of honor, wore a two-tone coral dress made with fitted bodice; full skirt and petal sleeves. Her shoes and tiara matched the deeper tone of her dress. White gloves and pearl necklace and earrings completed her ensemble.

BRIDESMAIDS WORE identical ensembles in turquoise. They included Mrs. Barbara Mealy, Miss Dorothy Woolford and Mrs. Lelia Ray. All of the attendants carried bouquets of coral poms.

The flower girl was Saundra Jones, whose dress was of coral nylon. She carried a basket containing confetti.

Selvyn Ray was ring bearer.

DR. UTHMAN RAY, JR. was best man for Mr. Woolford. Ushers were Jeannus B. Parks of Washington, Jacques Leeds and Charles Hawkins.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Woolford, parents of the bridegroom, in Morgan Park.

The reception was held on the lawn, where the bride's table was centered with a six tier cake resembling church steps. Replicas of the bridesmaids and ushers were on the steps. Two tables, in coral and turquoise colors held refreshments, and guests sat at surrounding tables under decorative umbrellas.

Gifts were displayed in the club room.

Later, dinner was served to the bridal party and out-of-town guests.

The newlyweds flew to Bermuda. For the trip the bride wore a light blue silk dress, with matching hat, and beige bag and shoes with multi-color trim, and white gloves.

They will be at home in Morgan Park upon their return on September 4th.

Mr. Woolford, a graduate of Lincoln University and Howard University's School of Law, is with the law firm of Howard Woolford and Leeds.

THE COUPLE was lavishly entertained prior to their wedding.

A lingerie shower honored the bride-elect on Saturday, August 20. As she arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawkins, on the pretext of playing bridge, she was astonished to find so many friends present to wish her happiness.

Hostesses were Miss Dorothy M. Woolford, Mrs. Barbara Mealy, Mrs. Lelia Ray and Mrs. May Hawkins.

The gifts ranged from a dainty pair of wife Bikini panties with red polka dots to a Cipari pajama set, with slips in the majority. After the gift opening ceremony the guests were served from a lavish table of shrimp salad and deviled eggs, with all the trimmings, complimented by a colorful fruit punch. Finally Miss Alston served slices of her cake which conveyed the groups' "Best Wishes."

Taking part in the festivities were Mesdames Ruth T. Wilson, Marion Haynes, Marian Russell, Maxine Gaskins, Muriel Johnson, Constance Langford, Mildred Long, Gertrude Woolford, Gladys Ellis, Hedy Brown, Maxine Alston and Margaret Scott.

On August 26, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity of which Mr. Woolford is a member, entertained him fabulously at the Frat House, 1207 Eutaw Place.

Approximately thirty men were on hand to wish him well on his new adventure.

A party was given for the bridal group Wednesday, by the bridegroom's parents, John and Gertrude Woolford.

After the wedding rehearsal the bridal party met at 2319 Ivy Avenue where on a table was an elaborately spread of Fried Chicken, Smithfield Ham, Crab Cakes, Salads and Cold Cuts and many other delicacies.

Champagne was served throughout the entire evening. This affair took place in the club room.

Those attending were:

Dr. and Mrs. Uthman Ray, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Leeds, Mrs. Barbara Mealy, Mrs. Carrie Alston, Mrs. Mildred Long.

Misses Sadie M. Alston, Maxine Alston, Dorothy M. Woolford, Jean Fields, Jeannus B. Parks, Robert Haynes, Llewellyn W. Woolford, James H. Dougherty, Avon Cooper and Clarence Roberts.

OUT-OF-TOWN guests were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Alfred Collins, Sr., Alfred Collins, Jr., Theodore Darden, St. Paul Davis, Leon Holley, Sr., Leon Holley, Jr., John K. Rector, James Williams;

Misses Jea Fields, Annette Alston; Mrs. Ellen Parks and George Knox, all of Washington;
