Fabulous was the 25th birthday party for Mrs. Delores Madden Hawkins, 2123 Ashburton St.

She is the petite, pretty clerk at Provident Hospital.

At the Sunday night affair at the Elks Home, were 85 well-wishers, including members of Provident staff, classmates and family.

The honoree, demure in a sassy, violet frock of polished French cotton, greeted guests until the wee small hours. She cut the pink and white birthday cake at midnight.

Meantime the jolly group enjoyed a smorgasbord, cocktails from a bar, gay with balloons, and danced the night away.

AMONG THOSE present were Drs. Samuel Owings, George Pendleton, Bruce Benjamin, Robert Branch, Gilbert Banfield;

Messrs. and Mesdames Murrel Copelin, Clifton Macer, Leroy Barber, Lester Buster, Buster Thornton, Earl Wingfield, John Pinkney, John Rainey, Thomas Curley, Benjamin Cooper, James Harvey, John Davis;

TOMORROW Saturday, is the day when the Matthews family gathers for the 68th birthday of another well-known Baltimorean, Mrs. Bessie Mathews, 2221 Roslyn Ave., longtime Mutual Benefit agent, and for 20 years deaconess at Concord Baptist Church.

She is also an active Elks and Order of Eastern Star member, and a gracious, wonderful mother, who approaches her natal day as young as Springtime.

About the health of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Matthews, the's a Douglass High engineer, and the delight of the children and daughters, Mrs. Doris Rose and Mrs. Willie May Oakman, a nurse, and Mrs. Alice Brooks Brooks; her eight grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

A wonderland birthday fete at Sharp Street Methodist Church Community House on Sunday marked cute Romaine Alecia Wilkins 5th birthday.

It was planned by her parents, Rosa Mae and Ollie Wilkins Sr. Distinctive was the cake with a merry go round on top.

Each child was presented with a basket of goodies, a hat, a balloon and a small toy, and later enjoyed ice - cream, kup cakes and punch.

Kiddies present were: Rita Jones, Toni Sinkler, Antoinette Thornton, Ann Jones, Adaezil Stith, Ann Jones, Charles Wilkins, Ronald Smith, Arlene Jones, Inell Wilkins, Velda Smith, Carol Young, Nadine Ewell, Sharon Young, Calvin Newman, Kevin Wilkins, Richard Jones, Lee Greene, Winetta Hayes.

Parents and other adult guests included Mesdames and Misses Doris Wilkins, Margaret Bailey, Gladys Jones, Maxine Jones, Dollie Stith, Tyrone, Sonia and Theresa Stith, Alice Davis, Lena Boone, Clarice Rucker, Gwendolyn Johnson, Carolyn Wilkins and Misses Rebekah and Wanetah Wilkins.

FOUR - YEAR - OLD Janice Leona Young, given a birthday party by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Leon Young, who presented her with a bouquet of white daisies, her first corsage.

A doll in red and white nylon dress, Janice greeted her little guests in her clubroom, which was gaily decorated with balloons.

Mrs. Susie Cordery, her godmother, supervised the games, but the delight of the affair came when ice cream was served in shapes of nursery rhyme characters.

Helping out were Mrs. Lois Waters and Mrs. Lillian Drapier. The members of the young social set who skipped and played included:

Brenda Mae Rollins, Jo-Ann and Carol Ann Jackson, Roshi and Hastings and Peggy Draper, Anita Drapier, Sharon Hall, Denise Jones, Isaiah Dixon 3rd, Nathan Rollins, Rudy Washington, John White, Anthony Dixon, Kim Savage, Leda Ann Fuller, Cheryl Hastings.

Md. League will meet on Saturday

The fall quarterly meeting of the Md. League of Women's Clubs, will be held tomorrow (Saturday) 1:30 p.m., at the Madison Ave. YWCA.

Mrs. Lena K. Lee, president, has issued a call to all member clubs to send representatives.

Matters before the body include proposed changes in the special committees, and a report on League participation in the community.

The group will also consider holding a meeting on Oct. 29 in Cambridge, in an effort to enlarge member clubs on the Eastern Shore.

MR. AND MRS. ALEXANDER BONNER JR.

Miss Brown bride of A. A. Bonner Jr.

Miss Charlotte Ineta Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown of 1700 N. Bond St., and Alexander A. Bonner Jr., were married in Fountain Baptist Church, here, recently.

The Rev. Dennis Barrow officiated at the double - ring ceremony.

Miss Jean Tucker was soloist, and William Stanley was at the organ.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace which featured a Cathedral train.

Her finger - tip length veil was attached to an Oriental crown of seed pearls and rhinestones.

She carried a white satin-covered prayer book showered with satin ribbon. A pearl neck-lace and earrings were her only jewels.

MISS GRACE FAIZLEY was maid of honor. Matron of honor was Mrs. Dora Giles, sister of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Beverly Simpson, Mrs. Palestine White and Mrs. Ernestine Foster, a cousin of the bride.

They wore street - length frocks of silk organza in shades of green, with matching hats and accessories. Their flowers were old-fashioned bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

The flower girl, Brenda Brown, sister of the bride, also wore green, and carried a basket of chrysanthemums.

• • •

GEORGE CLAY was best man for Mr. Bonner.

Ushers were Theodore Giles, Romeo Tillery, William Bonchy, brother of the bridegroom, and William White.

Mr. Bonner's newphew, Stephen Boone, was ring bearer.

A reception after the ceremony was held in the home of the bride's parents.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown selected a sheath of rose taffeta and lace with matching hat and accessories.

Mrs. Bonner was gowned in pale blue silk. Both mothers wore red rose corsages.

• • •

THE NEW Mrs. Bonner is a graduate of Coppin State Teachers College, and is on the faculty of School No. 105.

Mr. Bonner, a veteran, is employed by a chewical company. They will be at home at 2507 Calverton Heights.

Jack and Jill group has day in country

The five and six year-old members of Jack and Jill, Inc., enjoyed a day in the country at the Little Folks' Camp in Ellridge, Md. on Saturday.

Mrs. Grace Burkett was Chairman of the activity. Mrs. Catherine Snead is age group chairman.

The children explored the countryside, watched the feeding of the rabbits and chickens and made friends with the cows as they walked to the brook.

They gathered fall flowers, acorns, pine cones and wood for the camp fire. After dinner the children were dismissed by the camp fire.

Neighbors who are members of St. Paul Baptist Church, well done for the grand 5th anniversary banquet that was held last Thursday evening.

The selection of the beautiful Morgan State College Reflectory was the ideal setting for the affair.

Highlights of the evening included the presentation of the drama, "The Unfolding Years" which depicted the founding of St. Paul Baptist Church to the present time.

Members of the church are to be congratulated for their splendid acting. Hats off to lovely Miss Mary Fields who wrote the play and is a senior at Morgan State College.

Too pretty to eat was the large white and gold anniversary cake made in the shape of a church edifice.

Genial toastmaster was Edward Wilkens who did a fine job throughout the evening.

• • •

PARTICIPANTS ON the program were the Rev. Marion C. Isaacson, pastor of Israel Memorial Community Church, who gave the invocation. The oration data was given by George L. Moore, with charming Mrs. Gloria A. Jones rendering a vocal solo, followed by a piano solo by Richard Corbin.

Musical selections were also presented by the popular singers known as the Princeons who hail from Princeton, N.J.

Presentations were made by Mrs. Addie Keys and Cortez Puryear.

At the close of the program, remarks were made by Rev. George A. Crawley Jr., pastor.

Among those on the steering committee for the excellent program and celebration were the Social Committee, Miss Doris E. Pharr, chairman, and Mrs. Janie Haskins, Miss Alice Cook, Mrs. Ruth Thorton and Mrs. Gladys Lewis all co-chairmen.

Program committee, Mrs. Melvena Amy, chairman, Mrs. Ada Spencer and Marshall Jones Jr. assistants.

General chairman was George L. Moore.

Members of the 50th Anniversary Club are the Rev. George A. Crawley Jr., Mesdames Elizabeth Jones, Adlener Crawley, Malvena Amy, Viola Robinson, Ida Winder, Janie L. Hill and Betty Ford.

• • •

MESDAMES Janie Haskins, Ada Spencer, Edna Robinson, Cora Crawley, Rosa Hazelwood, Carrie Robinson, Berdie E. Brown and Alice Holmes.

NEIGHBORS — Don't forget to attend the Rummage sale being held by Mrs. Mary Hawkins and Mrs. Mariam Williams both active members of Union Memorial Methodist Church.

The ladies will be at Lafayette Market all day Friday and Saturday working to help raise money for their Woman's Day . . . Give them your support.

A Must On Your List — Do attend "Around the World With O.E.S." an extravaganza you can't afford to miss . . .

It is being presented by the Myra Grand Chapter and Subordinates, O.E.S. PHA in the auditorium of school No. 130 Lafayette and McCulloh Sts. (tonight) at 8:30 o'clock. Julie Butler is directress, Margaret Dyer, coordinator; Iola Bates, grand worthy matron, and J. Thomas Cooper, grand worthy patron.

See ya there . . .

When the parents auxiliary of the East Baltimore Kadets ages 18 - 32 present the Jay Dee Sweethearts of Fashions come Oct. 2, our Eastsider will get a real gone lookee . . .

Just for the record, Neighbors, the fasions to be shown were created by stylist Jeanette Van Horn of Philadelphia, with aim to create original designs in order to project the personality, charm and hidden beauty of the individual.

• • •

MODELS WILL be Pearl Simmons, Delores Collier, Betty Granger, Ruby Upshaw, and well known model from New York City, Jackie McNickels.

Other participating members are Edward Jones, David Thorn, James Sivels, James Simmons, Ralph B. Granger.

I gotta see this, neighbor, . . . you too . . .

Come Oct. 9, the lovely women of Faith Baptist Church invite all to worship with them in observance of Women's Day. There's no excuse, neighbors. The ladies are having three services, 11 a.m., 3:30 and 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Irene Paige is president, Mrs. Amanda Lowman, chairman of program committee; Mrs. Margaret B. DeShazo, recording secretary and the Rev. Walter E. Paige, pastor.

While you are willing remember to join the Ladies' Guild of Provident Hospital. The Guild is doing good work, but needs your help.

At the 37th annual convention of Benevolent held in Akron, Ohio this month, our very own East Baltimore Sweet Benhalland Chapter No. 29 B.P.O. came back with many honors.

Among those honored were Princesses Evelyn Conway, Carrie Ligon, Lula Peoples, Louise Russell, Louise Palmer, Costella Johnson, and Mary L. Cook all received their past Grand Most Noble Queen Honors.

Princess Madeline Saunders received her collar. The chapter raised the second highest amount of money of all chapters and had the highest number of princesses honored.

Her recent hung to be proud of is that the chapter is only 1 year and 9 months old, next to the youngest chapter.

AND WHY SHOULDN'T THE EASTSIDE BE PROUD, NEIGHBORS? . . . CONGRATS. Just you wait, the officers and members of the Northeast Neighborhood are making elaborate plans for their Annual Harvest Musical Tea to be held Sunday, October 30 at the Greenmount Recreation Center. The group put on this affair every year to help raise money for the Big Neighborhood Children's Christmas party.

One of the nighlights of the Tea will be the presentation of lyric soprnao Bertha Dyson of Berwyn, Pa. Mrs. Emma Rice is president of the club. More about that later.

Racial conflict seen as the no. 1 problem

WILMETTE, Ill. — The world's most challenging issue is the one of racial tension and strife, says Charles Wolcott, national secretary of the National Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'i.

Calling attention to the writings of Baha'ullah, founder of the Baha'i faith, Mr. Walcott said disharmony and conflict exist only because men will not accept the oneness in humanity.

Alpha Beta merges with Acme Stores

Claude W. Edwards, president of Alpha Beta Food Markets of California and Paul J. Cupp, president of American Stores Compassy, based in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, have announced that their management have reached an understanding for a merger, subject to stockholder approval of both companies.

Holders of Alpha Beta common stock will receive one share of American Stores common for each 3.6 shares of Alpha Beta.

Alpha Beta's sales for the fiscal year ended July 31st in its 50 markets were over $91,000,000.

American reported sales of $889,000,000 for the year ended April 2nd in its 810 markets and stores.

Combined sales currently are estimated at an annual rate of approximately one billion dollars. American operates the Acme Markers in seven eastern states and the District of Columbia.

Alpha Beta will continue to operate with the present management as a separate unit of American.

The managements of both companies believe that the merge should be mutually advantageous and will help Alpha Beta meet the opportunity for growht in the Southern California area.
