WHEN YOU FINISH READING YOUR AFRO PASS IT ALONG TO A FRIEND

GALLOPING GALIMORE — The Baltimore Colts will have the unenviable task of containing the high-stepping Willie Galimore when they entertain the Chicago Bears at Memorial Stadium Sunday. The fleet halfback from Florida A and M is one of the most feared runners in pro football, and was a headache to the Steeds in last year's 26 - 21 Burin victory here.

COLTS FANS ALL — Their expressions may be showing because the Colts weren't doing well at the time, but these loyal Baltimore fans held on until the world champions whipped the Washington Redskins, 20-0, at the Stadium Sunday. Left to right in the AFRO camera are John Strothers, 1820 N. Bentalou St., Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Green of 1824 Etting St., and little Curtis Green, Jr.

Thompson steps up preps for title bout

NEW YORK (ANP) — Federico Thompson of Buenos Aires last week started boxing drills in stepping up training for his welterweight title fight with champion Benny (Kid) Paret, Oct. 15. The two will clash in Madison Square Garden.

Paret, of Cuba, is in training at Ehsan's gym in Chatham, N. J., while Thompson drills at Kutscher's in Monticello, N.Y.

Bears may surprise NC Eagles

The Morgan State College Bears, fired by their opening victory over Hampton last week, could have a surprise in store for North Carolina College at Hughes Stadium tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon.

The Golden Bears at the start of what they hope will be a football resurgence on Hillen Road took the Pirates apart 28-7.

Jack Dennis, back in business after a year's ineligibility accounted for three of the four Morgan touchdowns and otherwise gave cause for Bear hopes to rise.

He threw two scoring passes and contributed a third TD by running 66 yards on one of his patterned "keep" plays. The combination of Dennis, halfback Vernon Johnson and end Bob Utley never gave the Buccaneers a moment to relax.

As a result, the afternoon turned out to be a glorious initiation for Earl Banks, Eddie Hurt's successor at the Bruin helm.

Both Johnson and Utley were Dennis' targets and Utley also helped Sophomore Quarterback Carmie Pompey to get into the scoring act by catching a short pass in the end zone for the Bears final talley Saturday.

North Carolina, however, loomed as likely favorites in the game. Coach Herman Riddick's ego boasts three great wins over the Bears and have finished no worse than second in the CIAA grid race since 1955.

Frosh back stars but Panthers bow

By JOHN B. HARRIS

RICHMOND

Despite the hard running of halfback Jones Davis, an 18-year - old, 160 - pound freshman from Cleveland, Virginia Union's Panthers fell behind 14-6 at half time, had a 12-point last quarter rally, but dropped a 22 - 18 decision to Shaw University Friday night at Hovey Field.

This was Shaw's first season at test and Union's second CIAA game.

• • •

THE PANTHERS drew first blood in the opening period on a 25 - yard aerial from Milton Marshall to end Warren Williams. However, the lead was short - lived as Shaw came right back for a TD on a 13-yard pass from Frank Baker to Winfield Knight.

The Baker - to - Knight combination clicked again in the second period, this time a 14-yard completion, and Shaw led 14-6, at intermission.

Early in another Knight-Baker TD— this time two yards. This made the score 22-6.

UNION FOUGHT back for twelve minutes less than left sparked the team and scored on a 12 - yard end run and halfback Hezekiah Braxton gathered in a 20-yard pass in the end zone from Napoleon Bambosa for the third Union TD.

Union had a chance to tie the game in the final quarter on passes for the conversions, but failed to convert in all three attempts.

Four 200-pounders bolster Carver line; Southern light

(First of a Series)

Carver High School appears to have fortified coach Charley Robinson with enough poundage to make his first year at the football helm a weighty, if not winning, one.

Four youngsters tipping the scales in excess of 200 pounds are on hand to anchor the Cubs' 1960 forward wall. Headed by 220 - pound Herman White, the Carver line hits an average of 183 pounds.

In the 200 - plus bracket with White are Bob Garrett (210), Hugh Witherspoon (210), and Bill Harvey (202).

Robinson's backfield, with quarterback Roscoe Handy tops at 170, shows an average weight of 157 pounds.

• • •

ON THE other hand, Southern High which shares high seeding with Carver in the "B" Division of the MSA, may have to rely on speed and flexibility. Coach Stan Fieldman has but two "big" boys in his 22 - man roster.

Joe Cottman, at 207 pounds, and Lee Turner, at 199, are topweighted among the Bulldog gridders. Both are tackles on a line that averages a quesionable 155.

• • •

IN THE backfield, Fieldman has a brilliant young fullback, Major Lawson, carrying high weight of 169 pounds.

The Southern co - captain is regarded one of the two finest players on Fieldman's eleven, along with tackle Jim Tellington, who hits the beams at a mere 157.

Restriction against fire company removed

The complaints of residents that their nearest firehouse, the Chapel Oaks Fire Company, was not allowed to serve their community, led to the lifting of restrictions by the Prince Georges Volunteer Firemen's Association recently.

The Association has notified the County Commissioners that in the future, fire companies will be sent to fires solely on the basis of distance.

THE ONLY NON- WHITE company in Prince George's County, the Chapel Oaks Fire Company often has been excluded from service even when it was the closest company to the fire. In other cases, it has been used only at the third and fourth alarm.

Recently, residents in the Chapel Oaks - Beaver Heights-South Cheverly area complained of the restrictions. The Volunteer Firemen's Association and the Fire Board directors voted to change the policy, Sunday.

Chapel Oaks is the only volunteer fire company barred from membership in the Firemen's Association. It receives seven per cent of the County companies. Seat Pleasant, Capitol Heights and Hillside get 31 per cent each.

Most of the opposition to Chapel Oaks comes from Seat Pleasant and Kentland. Fire Association officials reported attempts have been made for more than a year to persuade a minority of white firemen to permit an expanded role for Chapel Oaks.

AFL eleven signs ex-Bear tanster

BUFFALO, N.Y. (ANP) — The Buffalo Bills of the newly-formed American Football League, last week announced the signing of Jack Johnson, former Chicago Bears defensive halfback, to a 1960 contract.

The 200 - pound Johnson will help bolster the sagging Bills defensive department. His signing was announced as the Bills released two other players.

DUNBAR'S DEMON DIVER — One of the main headaches awaiting opponents of the Dunbar High eleven this fall is Earl Divers, stellar all-city tackle. Earl anchors the line that faces Calvert Hall tomorrow (Saturday) at Gibbons Fled.

TOP QUARTERBACK? — Beginning tomorrow (Saturday) Reggie Lewis of Dunbar will begin proving or disproving claim he's MSA's best quarterback. Poets engage Calvert Hall at Gibbons Field.

AFRO picks Edmondson, Poly Dunbar as MSA commences

Seven highly promising football games are on the Maryland Scholastic Association schedule for the weekend as schoolboy elevens get down to the serious business of determining a 1960 champion.

The AFRO views the inaugural action, Edmondson looks like a winner over Carver, Poly appears stronger than Douglass and Dunbar figures to be the choice in a tight fight with Calvert Hall.

• • •

EDMONDSON GETS the nod over Charley Robinson's young Carver squad, largely because of greater experience. Coach Julian Duke has a veteran line-up which has played together for three years and now should be at maturity.

Headed by the Blow brothers, Maurice and Collis, the Redskins loom as an explosive aggregation capable of short or long gains as the situation demands.

• • •

POLY LOST two fine boys in Ron Klages and Ed Sturkrath, and otherwise suffered big losses in depth. Still, the Engineers may have enough left to take care of outmanned Douglass.

This, however, is a game that will pit a scrappy Duke eleven against a favored rival. Coach Mack Payne might have a surprise in store for both coach Bob Lumsden and the AFRO.

• • •

SUGAR CAIN does not have the awe - inspiring combination usually characteristic of Dunbar elevens.

The Poets figure to improve over their pre - season outing with Carver, but it could be that they haven't yet reached the cohesion needed to beat the Cardinals by more than a shade.

• • •

CITY, LIKE POLY, took a beating from the June graduations. As a consequence, the Collegians will have their hands full with Loyola at Kirk Field.

Because this may be the toughest pick of the schoolboy lot this weekend, the AFRO is tossing a coin: heads for City, tails for Loyola. It came down tails.

Another good contest should be provided at Gibbons Field this afternoon (Friday). That's the Patterson Park - Mt. St. Joe scramble.

We're stringing with Patterson as the more rugged of the two.

• • •

IN OTHER MSA tilts, the AFRO choices are Forest Park to trim Severn and McDonogh to take the measure of Mervo Tech.

Southern, many of her best athletes gone, plays a non-league contest with Gilman, of the long-time powers of the private school league.

Gilman is the selection — LACY.

'Don't push me or I'll fight in Sweden,' Floyd threatens

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (ANP) — Concluding a tour of Sweden here last week, heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson issued a statement warning "certain persons" in the United States not to push him too far or he'd defend his title against Ingemar Johansson in Sweden.

Patterson, who became the first man in ring history to regain the heavyweight title, did not name the people but he said they understand what he meant.

He apparently was peeved at ratings recently released by the National Boxing Association listing Sonny Liston over Johansson as the No. 1 contender. He said, however, that he did not think the NBA rating will make his return match with Ingemar unattractive.

• • •

HE DECLARED:

"If I am pushed in a certain direction which I don't want to proceed, but that certain persons will understand, I will have the next title fight here in Sweden and I am sure Ingemar has nothing against it.

"I have no reason to charge the NBA with anything. There must be some misunderstanding. I have the title and I do not think that the NBA rating will make the return match unattractive."

• • •

"I HAVE traveled this country from north to south and have always been met with friendliness. I love Sweden and I have seen many places here where I would like to set up a training camp. If I am pushed in a certain direction the next time fight will be here."

Patterson, a fan of Sweden, began his tour August. He is now in England and will go on to Germany for further exhibitions before returning to the United States in about three weeks.

Ace Armstrong held to draw

CHICAGO — Ernie Burford making his first start as a main eventer, spoiled the Chicago debut of "Ace" Armstrong here last Wednesday night, as he held his more highly reputed adversary to a 10 - round draw before a small crowd in the Chicago Stadium.

The fight was not an impressive one. However, if this observation is of any significance, it was the second fairly televised 10 rounder in two weeks to go the limit in the big west side arena without a winner being determined. A week previously, hard - hitting Henry Hank was held to a 10 - round draw by "undersized" Jesse Smith of Chicago.

Armstrong at one time was one of the hottest middleweights in the business. He still has an impressive record of 19 wins and only one defeat. But his trouble is that he doesn't hit hard enough.
