Fall fashion flair takes spotlight

with Lula Jones Garrett

By E. M. OLIVER
Substituting for vacationing Mrs. Garrett

Singing a song of the sirens, mothers, many brilliant fashion shows, now in season, have arrived to bewitch and lure middlelady, whether she already has everything or nothing to wear.

Bright as fall leaves, furs, frocks and hats, aglow in color, have literally sparked an autumn benfire of desire in milady's heart.

The Delta Sigma Theta sorority affair Wednesday at Morgan's Murphy Fine Arts building highlighted important clothes for glamorous days ahead and featured smoky golds, violet roses and bright reds to wear.

COME SUNDAY, at 4 p.m., the Cooperative Women's Civic League is showing everything from the fabulous opulence of mink to country clothes and the sheer shimmer of evening wear.

Called "Fantasia of 1960," the stellar event comes at Carver Voeational Tech High School. Bentalou and Presstman Sts. with Vivian Cook, president; Catherine Adams, Frances Hill Vivian Washington, and Ethel Harris; joint chairmen.

THURSDAY, OCT. 13, Victorine Adams' Charm Center shop will be the scene of her annual fashion show styled just for school marms attending the Md. State Teachers meet here. Cocktails will add a festive and an irresistable note beginning at 4 p.m.

THE SAME evening, at 8 p.m., while milady is still in the mood, precious little frocks, dramatic coats, distinctive chapeaux, will be featured at Mad Hatters on Parade and Fashion Show at Pennsylvania Ave. AME Zion Church, by the Nurses' Unit.

This one is called "A Panaroma of 1960 Fall Fashions." Willana Valentine is president. Co - chairmen are Elnora W. Burton, Plymouth McCoy.

Other nurses are Molly Dowdy, Rose Dowdy, Walleana Fletcher; Anna Gilchrist; Artelia Holman, Helen Hunter, Reba Putts, Mildred Quille, Idella Rankins, Margaret Singletary, Delia Thomas, Sallie Young.

ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA'S Freedom Ball at the Mcazar ballroom come Friday, Oct. 21.

Neither the ladies nor their swains seem to mind the $10 per couple fee since all is for the benefit of sit - downers' court cases.

Here, also, fashion models will be on hand to show "how romantic and exciting a lady can look this fall.

SUNDAY, OCT. 23, brings a highnote when WomanPower holds its Third Annual Leadership Conference at the Sheraton - Belvedere at 12:30 p.m.

Beauty truly begins the day as the feminine civic leaders enter the door, all of them a picture of loveliness, from the platform speakers to the hostesses.

Here, the fashion show is the golden moment.

SPEAKING OF fashion certain to be radiant and smartly frocked on Thursday night, Oct. 20, will be Yvette Murphy and Alverta Bowie, who will receive coveted - WomanPower awards on Special Award night.

Ethel Rich is executive secretary, Mary B. Adams is luncheon chairman. Mrs. Murphy is co - chairman.

AND, BEHOLD, we have Baltimore's newest gentlemen's group, "The Ten Guys" venturing forth at their first cabaret party, magnificently glorified with a fashion show.

They're tempting the ladies with elegant furs, hair styles and clothes, to show them how wonderful they can look.

Hosts at the Oct. 14, 10 p.m. extravaganza will be William McConkey, Clarence L. Carter, Leonard Hawkins, Leroy Dorsey, Daniel Dorsey, Harvey Johnson, Carroll Scroggins and Junius Hawkins.

TOTALLY beautiful were Morgan State College faculty and trustee wives and women of the faculty when Mrs. Martin D. Jenkins, wife of the college president, entertained on Sunday.

Elegant is the word for the dresses worn by guest speakers, Verda Welcome, Irma Dixon, both Maryland General Assembly members, and Mrs. Elaine Jenkins, Republican National Committee member.

Well informed as well as well dressed, the trio of feminine politicians gave the answers to questions during a discussion of women's place in the political world.

Joining in a delicious dinner were:

Mesdames James E. Morrow, Donald G. Murphy, R. Hayes Strider, Melvin J. Humphrey, Frank A. DeCosta, Albert Whiting, Harold Delaney, Edward N. Wilson, James E. Nix, Philip Butcher, Marshall Payne.

Also, Mesdames Donald G. Brandon, Thomas Prayer, Percy H. Baker, Marcus Allen, Essie M. Banks, Cyril F. Atkins, John C. Turner, James Lewis, Edward C. Johnson, George Spaulding, Waters E. Turpin, Daniel Skinner, Samuel L. Myers, Howard L. Cornish, Richard McKinnet;

And Mesdames Charles R. Campbell, Clifton Lamb, Roland McConnell, Clarence Stephens, Virgil Clift, Alexander Walker, Talmadge Hill, Eugene Byrd, Faye Costa and Nick Ford.

Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, the president himself, and Dr. Drystal B. Pellangill—served as moderators.

SHOWING FASHION authorities were the town's club women who held first - of - the - season meetings recently.

Among them were the Chit Chats Pinochle Club members who were hosted by Marie Murphy and Morphelia Winston at Mrs. Murphy's Carey St. home for an evening at cards.

Invited guests were Lucille Moore, Nettie Brown, Louise Madden, Elizabeth Butler, who copped the guest prize, and Dorothy Gladden.

Other prizes went to Emma Jones, Mary West Jones, Beatrice Brown, May MacCray.

Other members present were Dorothy Tilghman, Elaine Taylor, Iola Minson, Aubrey Williams.

Missing the fun were absent members, Alice Nixon, Mary Holmes, Henrietta Woods and Cora Meredith.

THE PHILADELPHIA Branch of the Chit Chats were also endowed with autumn charm as they visited their Baltimore sisters last week.

First they had lunch at the Garrison and then went to Aubrey Williamson's place for cards and prizes.

The Pennsylvania matrons included Mary M. Boyd, Mae Briscoe, Addie P. Headin, Mae Hills, Johnson, Jeanette Williams, Minnie Taylor, Lucille Pierce, Juanita Kings, Kathryn Sue Scruggs, Dorothy Simmer, Gladys Epps.

Misses - Frances Beckett, Kathryn King, Gladye Lecato.

SURE TO earn a second look will be members of the Wives Club who meet Oct. 11 at the Garrison for dinner at 7 p.m.

Hostesses are Ada Weaver, Sarah Tarter and Ola Smith.

UNRIVALLED, unmatched were the ladies and lawyers who recently held their initial meeting of the year at Shirley Harper's Fillmore Rd. home.

In addition to Shirley, hostesses were Adrianne Hayes, Georgianna Howard, "Just visiting" was Merriel Brinkley.

New officers are Shirley Pinkett, president; Anna Williams, vice - president; Zaider Koger, recording secretary; Georgianna Howard, corresponding secretary; Jacqueline Watts, treasurer.

Others present were Lucille Fitzgerald, Verna Gosnell, Ida Nicholas, Catherine Green, Adele Foreman, Rosa Murray.

National Guard Aux. organized by ladies

LANGO'S (Ladies Auxiliary of National Guard Officers) met in the Officer's Lounge of the new Winchester Street Armory Saturday past and organized with Mesdames Jeanette Leath as president; Juanita Smith, vice president; Julie Williams, secretary; Willie Cade, treasurer; Ivy Harris, program chairman, Melvina A. Jackson, publicity chairman and Juanita Mills, sergeant - at - arms.

Designed to be of service to the 229th; to support their activities and those of the community; not the least of which is charity, their first project is to help put over the unit's first charity benefit cabaret scheduled for Nov. 12 at the Armory.

Col. Melvin Cade spoke with the group before its organization; welcomed them as part of the 229th and explained to them the dire need for such an organization. Greetings were also offered by Capt. William (Box) Harris. Refreshments for the evening were provided by the officers.

Other officers' wives in attendance were — Mesdames Marzine Hudgins, Amelia Brooks, Vanessa Porter, Eleanor Bracey, Carmelita Waters, Carrie Knox, Bernice Buckner, Sarah Bundy, Margaret Mason, Alice Koger, Marcella Compton, Daisy Josey.

THE MOLES were frocked with flair when they met at

Dear friends in the brotherhood of God through the love of Jesus Christ and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. I am a Jew by the proper name of Lightson and I am endeavoring their children to attend regularly the Sunday school of their choice. We feel this early training in the teaching of Christ is an investment that will contribute greatly to the future happiness of both parent and child. In order to help the children of God to begin such a movement NOW. May the inspiration of the Holy Spirit give the people of all races and creeds with us in this our chosen endeavor.

AKA's planning lavish Oct. 21 'Freedom Ball'

Epsilon Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority is completing plans for its "Freedom Ball" to be held on Friday evening, Oct. 21, in the Alcazar Ballroom.

This affair is a step towards making an adequate monetary contribution to the American Council on Human Rights (cooperative Social Action program of the five major sororities — Alpha Kappa Alpha, Delta Sigma Theta Phi Delta Kappa, Sigma Gamma Rho and Zeta Phi Beta Sororities) and other organizations sponsoring activities for Civil Rights, such as the Student Emergency Fund.

Heading the special guest list for the affair are: Gov. and Mrs. Tawes, Ex. Gov. and Mrs. McKeldin, Hon. Mayor and Mrs. J. Harold Grady, Dr. August Meier, President of ADA, Miss Ruth Fegley of the Baltimore Fellowship House; Dr. Carl Murphy, AFRO-AMERICAN; Dr. Marjorie Parker, National President of ACHR and Supreme Basileus of AKA; Mrs. Aretha McKinley, director of ACHR; Mrs. Ruth Cleaver, local president of ACHR; Mrs. Emma Brinkley, Anti Basileus of AKA; Mrs. Emma Bright, North Atlantic Regional Director of AKA; Miss Angie Brooks, Asst. Sec. of State and Delegate of the U.N. from Liberia; well known and active members of the Civic Interest Group; Robert Watts, local lawyer, and Albert Sangiamo.

It is also anticipated that outstanding professional athletes, including Claude (Buddy) Young, will be in attendance.

Over 1,000 guests are expected to thrill to the special attraction of orginist Fred Adams who has appeared at local clubs.

A limited number of reservations for the benefit affair are available from members of the Sorority.

Mrs. Johnson to attend tea

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, wife of the Vice Presidential candidate, Mrs. J. Millard Tawes, wife of the Governor, and Mrs. J. Harold Grady, wife of the mayor of Baltimore, will attend a tea at The Me-De-So Club, 1800 Eutaw Pl. Friday, Oct. 7, 3:30 to 5 p.m.

The tea announcement came from Delectie Verda F. Welcome, advisor of the Valiant Women's Democratic Club, and Mrs. Victorine Adams, chairman, Colored Women's Democratic Campaign Committee of Maryland.

The public is invited to come and meet them.

Surprise party for Mrs. Alsup

Mrs. Margaret Alsup, 3016 Ascension St., Cherry Hill, was honored at a surprise birthday party Saturday at the Spirit of the Chesapeake Lodge Home.

She wore a beige brocade satin dress, accentuated with a red corsage, to sip her birthday champagne.

She received many gifts.

UNION LEADER SUPPORTS KENNEDY — T. D. McNeal of St. Louis, international vice president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters (AFL-CIO), says, "I am supporting John Kennedy for president because I am convinced that his election will mean a long step toward the security of our country; a prosperous United States in which all citizens who want employment can find jobs at decent rates of pay. I also believe Senator Kennedy's election will bring us much closer to the American objective of equal opportunities, rights and privileges for all."
