ON THE Eastside

By CHARLOTTE W. DOWNIE

I enjoyed a most delightful evening the past Sunday when I attended the services at New Bethel Christian Community Church, located in the 1600 block of Madison Ave., Rev. Charles H. Mack, pastor.

The pastor, officers and members of New Bethel are working very hard toward moving into a new church in the near future, and their sister churches are going all out to aid them in this effort.

On Sunday evening the trustees sponsored the Way of the Cross Chorus from Emmanuel Christian Community Church in their first anniversary program. Participants were choral groups from the various churches in the city.

• • •

THE YOUNG people of New Bethel are also quite active.

On Sunday, at 6 p.m. they presented the Junior Choir in a concert.

The youth supervisor and Sunday school superintendent is Mr. Irvin K. Harvey.

Participants on the program included soloists by Misses Cynthia Cousin and Evelyn Williams.

Officers of the choir are president, Candanee Williams; vice president, Yvone Cousin; secretary, Evelyn Williams; treasurer, Yolande Harvey; and assistant director, Patricia Williams.

Others include, Misses Carolyn Eldridge, Cynthia Cousin, Rosalyn Willis, Joan Holdclaw, Denise Harvey, Andre Wise, Doris Miller, Nadine White and Francine High.

Larry Hicks, Larry Smith, Gerald Williams and Harry Williams.

• • •

THEN THE Gospel chorus of New Bethel will celebrate their first anniversary this Sunday at 3 p.m. Mrs. Geraldine Williams is president; Mrs. Betty Moore, secretary; Mrs. Thelma Harvey, treasurer; Mrs. Daisy Johnson, pianist; James Johnson, director, the Rev. Charles H. Mack is the pastor.

Invitations are in the mail from the children of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Lewis who are giving them a 40th wedding anniversary celebration . . . The date is Sunday, Oct. 16 from 6 to 10 and will be held at 2317 Dukeland St. Swell children don't you think?

From what I hear the members of the Youth Council of the NAACP are making great plans for this year. Officers are president, Stanley Butler, David Williams, vice president, and Brenda Johnson, secretary.

OUR GOOD NEIGHBOR is a former resident of Our Eastside and is an active member of Antioch Baptist Church, located at 1000 Durham St. the Rev. H. J. Tunston, Pastor.

Mrs. Lewis is a member of the senior choir, the Pastor's Aid and an active member of the missionary society.

Her hobbies are music and sewing. She likes the color blue. Our neighbor's favorite verse from the Bible is "I was glad when they said, come let's go unto the house of the Lord."

Her favorite hymn is "How Great Thou Art." She is also a member of the NAACP and she says she likes to read my column. Thanks.

EDUCATOR ENTHUSIASTIC FOR KENNEDY — Dr. Rosa L. Gragg of Detroit, distinguished educator and president of the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, Inc., says, Because education is our most valuable resource for the future, I am voting for Senator John Kennedy for president. He and the Democratic Party pledge an end to segregated schools by 1963. Even further, they believe in Federal aid to education, our only hope for ending the shortage of classrooms and teachers.
