Youngsters who visit the Chick Webb Memorial Center may begin using the new multi - purpose room for roller skating on Oct. 11.

The $76,000 addition to the building at 603 N. Eden St., provides a gym, auditorium and stage. It was completed in August.

The roller skating program on Oct. 11, begins at 4 p.m., and will be available again at 7 p.m. Thereafter, roller skating is scheduled for Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, and on Friday evenings.

Funds totaled the $3,285 to make these improvements in a four - week period. The money raising program was under the direction of Dr. Ralph J. Young, a member of the original committee which built the Center.

Will you cripple your own child?

Parental neglect can cause a vicious paralyzer to invade the home, to rob the lives of children.

Already this year, the vicious, merciless paralyzer—POLIO—has stricken children whose parents have put off having them inoculated.

Can this happen in your home? Will your child suffer with paralysis the rest of his life — because of your oversight?

Now is the time — don't put it off —to have all children inoculated.

* * *

THE POLIO VIRUS has already dealt a blow to Baltimore.

According to Dr. Huntington Williams, Baltimore has experienced the greatest outbreak of polio in ten years.

Fifty - five cases have been discovered in Baltimore since the beginning of the year.

Thirty - one of them were colored — 56 were children — 18 of the children were school ages — five of these struck were adults.

Twice of the adults were colored.

Thirty - five of the cases occurred in September.

POLIO STRETCHES its talons far longer — to the young and old.

An adult can blame himself when he is struck by polio after neglecting inoculation.

Who may a child blame — a child who must live in today's world a hopeless cripple?

Dr. Matthew Tayback, assistant health commissioner, said the surge of polio will run its course. A "strike" among Baltimoreans before the coal breaks lessens in November.

Health officials urge parents to see children have not been vaccinated, to have them inoculated immediately at the nearest public health clinic.

Everyone should complete the series of four shots.

* * *

PARENTS CAN obtain free shots for children under 12 years of age each week at the following health district buildings:

Monday, 12:30 p.m., Western Health District Building, 700 W. Lombard St.;

Tuesday, 12 noon, Eastern Health District Building, 620 Broadway, and Druid Hill Drug Health District, 1703 Druid Hill Ave.;

Thursday, 12:30 p.m., Southeastern Health District Building, 2411 Bank St.

Beginning Oct. 27, and continuing the fourth Thursday of each month at the room, in the Southern Health District Building, 2411 Wolf St.

Dixon may introduce rights bill Monday

Councilman Walter T. Dixon (4th D.) announced Thursday that he is considering again introducing his public accommodation ordinance at the Monday session of the city Council.

Mr. Dixon, following a similar announcement last week, suddenly cancelled an appointment to discuss the ordinance with Mayor J. Harold Grady Friday morning — and said he would not put it before the Council.

He said he was withholding it at the request of a House of Delegates member who thought all efforts should be concentrated on getting such legislation on a State - wide basis.

On Thursday, Mr. Dixon gave the AFRO this statement on the matter:

"IT IS TRUE that I did cancel the appointment I had with the Mayor, because I had been assured that the City Delegation in the Legislature contemplated reintroducing a similar bill at the next session of the Legislature in January.

"I was also told that a new measure would be introduced in Congress along with civil rights when Congress recon venes.

"At that time, it seemed to me that if all of the efforts were concentrated at about the same time that there might be a possibility of getting some concrete results, if not on the national level, certainly on the state level.

"Upon sober reflection, I am almost convinced that in view of the fact that passage of an civil rights measure in the next session of the Legislature seems to have little chance of success.

"And in view of the further fact that there is a viral force of young men and women who are just tired of being kicked around and have organized into a most potent force for good in the community.

"I feel the urge to submit the ordinance again at the next session of the Council."

MR. DIXON'S statement then continues thusly:

"I have talked with several people in the immediate community, and it is the thinking of the group that the measure should not be allowed to gather dust in my desk. But instead should be placed on the calendar without further delay.

"In fairness to the City Delegation in the Legislature, I felt that they should be appraised of my position.

"And in the event that I decide to introduce the measure at the next session of the Council, I would hope that they would agree that step is the best procedure to follow at this time.

"If we are able to get it passed in the city, it should be much easier for our delegation in Annapolis when the Legislature meets."

Shooting victim is recovering

Authorities at Lutheran Hospital reported late Thursday that Joseph Keene, 25, 1800 block Spring St., is recovering from what police termed a self inflicted bullet wound.

Keene was admitted to the hospital Sunday afternoon after a shooting at 3028 Belmont Ave in which he was wounded and Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers Miller 27, of the Belmont address, was killed.

No charges have been placed, pending Keene's recovery, police said.

* * *

THE VICTIM in the shooting, Mrs. Miller, was buried on Thursday following funeral rites at Mormon Star Baptist Church.

Mrs. Miller was the attractive widow of Marvin Miller, 27. He was killed in April 25 of this year, by an automobile at Stricker and Franklin Sts. They had no children.

Keene, who was employed as a hospital orderly, is also a musician and formerly played saxophone in a Gay St. night club.

WITNESSES TO the Sunday shooting said Keene came to the house to see Mrs. Miller, who eventually asked him to leave.

The shootings took place in the kitchen. Mrs. Miller was shot twice in the face and Keene was shot once in the stomach.

Vagrant sleeps on floor at Central; lawmen ignore him

If you drink, don't drive but if you do, go to Central Police headquarter and sleep it off.

Should you come there to nap on the hallway floor don't worry, people will bother you.

A vagrant who found himself "under the weather" napped outside the court room Wednesday and not a soul bothered him.

Three uniformed officers, passing in the hall looked in his direction but didn't stop.

When a reporter, acting in the capacity of a public spirited citizen reported the incident to a desk officer, three patrolmen rounded the corner from the adjoining Police District room, in the same building.

Even our "cops" were amused by the drunk with these soothing words: "Citizen, wake up."

"Citizen" did wake up and off the quartet went.

9,000 will seek Wilson scholarships

It is estimated that well over 9,000 college students will be competing for the faculty members from universities and colleges throughout the United States and Canada for one of the coveted Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation awards, according to Dr. Hugh Taylor, president of the Foundation.

The program, designed to encourage college seniors of outstanding ability to study for advanced degrees with faculty jobs as their goals, is administered by the Foundation under a $24,500,000 five year grant from the Ford Foundation.

Nominations close October 30th.

Eugene Staples, assistant dean of the office of fellowships of the Foundation at Morgan State College.

There are 1,000 fellowships awarded for first year graduate study at any university of the recipient's choice in the United States and Canada.

Mayor's sec'y left out new city directory

There should be a moral or a message in this story somewhere.

A man strode confidently into Mayor J. Harold Grady's outer office Tuesday afternoon to get an order for the new city directory — published every two years by a private agency.

The man, V. A. Topelius, launched into his sales talk before Miss Doris M. Schulze, the Mayor's secretary.

Miss Schulze, who has lived with her mother in the 3900 block Wilsby Ave. for four years, stopped him abruptly by asking if her name was in it.

A long search and minutes later — as red as a beet Mr. Topelius said he couldn't find Miss Schulze's name — nor the name of her mother.

Seems like some days a fellow will put run across the wrong people — at the wrong time.

EXHIBIT NO. 1 — The weapon, being carried by this officer, was reportedly the one used in the slaying of Mrs. Hannah Keith, Monday evening. She was fatally wounded in a second floor bedroom of a home in the 1200 block Calhoun St.

Suspect charged in shotgun death

A 38-year-old barber who was found sitting in a parked car with a 12 gauge automatic shotgun in his possession has been charged with murder.

In Central Police Court Wednesday Robert (Georgia Boy) Smith of the 1700 block N. Calhoun St., was charged with the death of Miss Hannah Jackson, 72, of the same address.

Mr. Smith was denied bail and ordered held for a further hearing.

* * *

PATROLMEN JAMES OSBORNE and Shannon L. Turner reported they were called to the Calhoun St. address on Monday by a man and woman. The couple said they heard gun fire inside the house, and had seen a man leave with a shotgun under his arm.

The officers found Mrs. Jackson lying on a pile of clothing on the second floor.

She had been shot in the back of the head.

* * *

Police also found a shotgun shell at the base of the stairs leading to the second floor and another shell near the cellar stairs.

THE VICTIM who was known to neighbors as Hannah Keith and Hannah Presbury, was identified from bills and letters found in the home.

Police said Mrs. Mary Bell of Rabbith, N.C., would claim the body today (Friday).

Mrs. Bell is the sister of the victim.

How long does a man have to wait for freedom?

By BILL SLATER

How long does a man have to wait for freedom?

For more than 95 days, this question has pressed on the mind of Horace Spriggs, who while he anxiously awaits his release from the Maryland Penitentiary for a crime he did not commit.

This question has also pressed on the mind of his faithful wife, Mrs. Carrie (Peaches) Spriggs who waits patiently for the day her husband will return to her and their two children.

She also asks:

"How much longer are they going to keep him in there?

"They've had him there long enough, why won't they let him come home to me and his children?"

Freedom for Spriggs came a step closer, some only a two small step closer on Wednesday when Judge J. Gilbert Prendergast convicted a 27 year-old man for the robbery which sent Spriggs to jail.

Convicted Wednesday for the Aug. 18, 1957 robbery of John T. Ford, 2400 block Guilford Ave. was Charles H. Byrd, 200 block E. 24th St.

Still awaiting trial as his alleged partner is James Fields, 25, 700 block E 22nd St.

DESPITE WEDNESDAY'S action, prison officials still have not set a date for Mr. Byrd's release.

Instead, they say the man may not be released until the second man, Fields, is tried and as of Wednesday, no date had been set for the trial of Fields.

Charles Moylan Jr., prosecutor, said that Fields may be tried for another six weeks or even two months.

HOW MUCH LONGER is the question remaining how much longer.

Spriggs has already served three of the nine years he was sentenced to, and his imprisonment goes on.

Says his wife:

"We aren't getting any younger and we have a lot more living to do yet.

"Why do they have to go through all this? They know he didn't do it?

Mrs. Spriggs, mother of two girls, Juanita, 12, and Beulah, 11, both junior high school pupils, said she feels no bitterness against any one.

"But I do feel the state owes us plenty because they've taken away three years of happiness from us.

"The kids are even afraid to talk about their father — to tell other people that their father is in jail," she said.

"I'm just waiting for the day they release him," she added.

"All he ever talks about when I visit him is getting out. He always wants to know is there any news yet.

"He has suffered enough and so have we. How much longer is it going to be?"

WHY SHOULD a man be made to suffer as much as Spriggs has for a crime he never committed?

It was a "mistake," said John T. Ford, the key witness who identified Spriggs at his trial as the man who robbed him.

Mr. Ford made his statement Wednesday as he took the stand to testify against Byrd.

"I picked out Spriggs at the first trial, but I realize now that it was a grave mistake.

"He wasn't the man at all," said Mr. Ford.

THE CONVICTION of Byrd, Wednesday, came after two persons, Gerald Dent, 400 block E. 20th St. and Mrs. Margaret Ireland, testified that Byrd told them of his part in the robbery.

In a statement presented to the court by Plumbethes officer Glen Buchanan of the Western District, Byrd confessed to being one of the principals in the robbery.

According to evidence produced by prosecutor Charles Moylan Jr., the robbery occurred on Aug. 18, 1957 at Greenmont Ave. and Worsley St.

Mr. Moylan said that Ford and other witnesses were drinking in a Greenmount Ave. bar, and when the three left together for another six pack they were followed by two men who left ahead of them.

Mr. Ford said they heard gun fire inside the house, and had seen a man leave with a deceased.

Clifts deny all abduction charges

Dr. and Mrs. Virgil A. Clift say in a District Court bill that the Lebanon Ambassador who charges them with abduction of his 14 - year - old daughter in a custody suit, has forfeited his parental rights.

They charge also, in an answer to his original petition, that the wealthy ambassador was then $12,978 in back support for Miss Najwa Adra now a Baltimore public school student.

Plaintiff in the two - continent litigation is Abdul - Rahman Omar Adra, Lebanese Ambassador to Teheran, Iran.

Defendants are Dr. Clift, head of the education department at Morgan State College, and his wife since June 1958, Mrs. Nesrine Adra Clift.

The child is now a ninth grade student at Woodbourne Junior High School.

CHIEF JUDGE Roszel C. Thomsen last month enjoined the Clifts from leaving Maryland until Ambassador Adra's charges they abducted the child from Europe could be heard. The hearing has been set for Oct. 11.

Charges filed on behalf of Ambassador Adra by Warren Grimes, a Chevy Chase, Md. attorney, contend mainly, that:

1. Following their divorce in 1948, the daughter was taken for a visit to Iraq and never returned.

2. He has a judgment from the Religious Courts of Beirut, Lebanon, which grants him custody of the child.

* * *

IN THEIR ANSWER, filed by Charles J. Josey, Dr. and Mrs. Clift deny these and other charges in the ambassador's petition.

They note that while under Muslim law, a child is given into custody of her father after he becomes nine years old, they contend:

"It is no longer equitable that the judgment of the Religious Court of Beirut, registered 12/12/59 should have prospective application."

The bill contends that the mother should not be deprived of custody for any reason.

* * *

AS FOR the abduction charge, the bill says that Mrs. Clift held a unique position with the United Nations in the Middle East and that there was never any secret about her whereabouts.

It contends the ambassador not only made no effort to have his daughter returned to his custody but "for 12 years has shown only sporadic interest in her."

1st degree verdict in slaying

The sequel to an East Baltimore gangland type killing was written in Criminal Court Wednesday.

Convicted of first degree murder was Charles David White, of the 500 block N. Mount St.

A first degree conviction carries an automatic penalty of life imprisonment or death in the gas chamber.

Sentence was withheld pending a motion for a new trial for White.

The 29 - year - old youth was charged with the April 22rd shooting of 17 - year - old John Watkins of the 2409 block Greenwich Ave.

Three other persons freed of the charges were Roy L. Johnson, 22, 2000 block Liselot Ave., Hezekiah Allen, 43, 1700 block Darley Ave., and the convicted boy's brother, James Odell White, 21, 1800 block Park Ave.

* * *

TESTIMONY PRODUCED by the defense charged that the two - day trial shocked that the victim was shot a day after he and a gang of boys had allegedly beat James White, the convicted boy's brother.

Mr. Reamer charge that to get revenge, the convicted boy and his brother picked up the other two men in an automobile and went to the eastside seeking the boys involved in the fight.

The four men found the boys at Wolfe and Fayette, and after a few heated words, Charles pulled a pistol and shot from the automobile, hitting Watkins, the prosecutor charged.

The other three men were charged after the jury received that they knew the convicted boy had a pistol, and knew of his intentions.

Charles White, represented by T. C. Hughes, contended he did not intend that the boy shot fired the shot to scare the fellows away from the car.

The youth claimed that the other boys were the aggressors, and that he only tried to halt a fight.

He said they went to the eastside in an attempt to locate a coat and wallet his brother lost in the fight the night before.

17 new workers okeyed for Welfare Dept.

The hiring of 17 new employees for the Department of Public Welfare was approved Wednesday by the Board of Estimates.

The new employees will be a supervisor, case workers, four investigators to check fraud cases, clerks and typists.

The new positions will cost the city approximately $3,500 for the remainder of the year.

These jobs, plus three others approved a month ago, carry salaries totaling about $100,000 for the coming year.

However, the state will pay 80 per cent of the salaries, and the city the remaining 20 percent.

Russell heads new Nixon-Lodge unit

Organization of a Human Rights Committee for Election of Nixon and Lodge was announced Wednesday.

George L. Russell Jr., attorney and GOP leader, is chairman of this Committee, which is bi - partisan.

Mr. Russell gave this insight into the group:

"Our primary purpose is to counteract the hypocrisy that exists in the Democratic Party, and especially with Kennedy and Johnson regarding human rights.

"Also, to unveil the real image and real people the candidates stand for.

"For example, after Kennedy had been nominated, the first thing he did was go to the South and get the chief architect of every move in Congress to obstruct full attainment of human rights."

Mr. Russell then charged:

Lyndon Johnson has led the fight against all civil rights."

He said the organization's headquarters would be announced later.

CORNISH — In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, MARY E., who departed this life October 8, 1957.
We do not forget you, nor do we intend.
We think of you often, and will do the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be.
Your Devoted Children,
VELMA, MARIETA, RONALD, OLIVER, VERNOSTE, EMILE AND GRANDCHILDREN

DAVIS—In loving memory of my devoted husband and my father, HENDERSON DAVIS, who departed this life three years ago, October 10, 1957:

God saw you road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered, peace be thine.
It's a few hours, his days of pain are over,
His weary nights are past, for
I know you have found a world of rest at last.
Sleep on honey, and take your rest, I love you and you loved me,
But God loved you best.
From Your Devoted
WIFE AND SON.

GILBERT — In loving memory of our dear grandmother, HARRIETT GILBERT (MUTHER) who passed away October 7, 1957.
God left a beautiful memory,
A sorrow too great to be told;
And a home loved and lost you
Your memory will never grow old.
Lovingly, Your Grandchildren,
GEORGE, JR.
GENESTA LINE

Kind memories are all we have of our dear mother, ELVIRA who departed this life October 8, 1956.
Your memory is as dear as the day you died.

As long as you are in our hearts.
We still have you in our hearts.
Loving Children,
MABEL, ETHEL AND ALBERTA

PRETTYMAN — In loving memory of our dear mother, ELLA and sister, VIOLETTA who passed away October 8, 1955.
Sad and sudden was the call;
Came when least we thought at all.
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
We did not think you could disappear.
We often sit and think of you,
And wish you were here.
To think your could not say
Good bye.
Before you closed your eyes
Your last sigh, we were not
On God, grant you eternal rest
Amen.
