Afro-Asian bloc wants Ike-K meet

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (NNPA) — Delegates from 44 Afro - Asian countries in the United Nations caucused secretly Tuesday to hear plea to force a "two - man summit" meeting between President Eisenhower and Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Behind closed doors, Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India, and Presidents Sukarno of Indonesia, Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic and Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana urged the powerful Afro-Asian bloc to give solid support to their resolution on a proposed Eisenhower-Khrushchev meeting.

The Afro - Asian bloc is the most powerful numerically of any grouping in the UN, but cannot always be counted on for a solid vote on every issue.

Colts face Rams

Their seven - game regular season winning streak having been shattered by a determined Green Bay team, 35-21, in the Wisconsin city last week, the Colts will return to Baltimore's Memorial Stadium to host the Los Angeles Rams on Sunday.

The kickoff is slated for 2:05 p.m.

Usually opportunists themselves, the Steeds had the procedure reversed on them in Green Bay, the alert, hustling Packers intercepting four passes and gobbling up two fumbles to set up their first four touchdown drives of 27, 44, 15 and 13 yards.

One of the interceptions was made in the end zone to thwart a Baltimore TD bid late in the first half when the score was deadlocked at 7-7.

The Colts won't be able to afford similar mistakes against the Rams, who will be seeking their initial victory after three setbacks — the last two by margins of four and seven points.

Wills such brilliant offensive aces as quarterback Billy Wade, halfback Jon Arnett, fullback Ollie Matson and ends Del Shofner and Jimmy Phillips primed for action the Rams must be regarded as a threat to strike for six points from any place on the field.

IN THEIR first season under coach Bob Waterfield the Rams have been a trifle slow hitting their scoring stride, but they displayed signs of shaking loose in the second half of their 34-27 loss to the Chicago Bears last week, tallying 21 points in the final 30 minutes.

Always a tough club for the Colts to defense, Los Angeles has outscored the Baltimore eleven, 479 - 352, while gaining an 8 - 6 - 1 advantage in the series.

Even in defeat at Green Bay the Colts' defense held up admirably, with 11 - year pro veteran Art Donovan outstanding at his left tackle post. Donnie and his mates may have to be even better to halt the victory - hungry Rams' attack.

Offensively, halfback Alex Hawkins took over as the Colts top rusher with a 47 - yard outburst against the Packers that hiked his three - game total to 104 yards — an average of four yards per carry.

End Raymond Berry, with five catches for 85 yards in Green Bay, held his lead as a receiver with 16 for 238 yards.

HOODS UP — This was the scene at North and Ruxton Aves. Tuesday evening when an accident involved four cars. One car was driven by William L. Demeil, 50, 2000 block W. North Ave., and the other manned vehicle by Clarence H. Gordon, 55, 1900 block N. Fulton Ave. Mr. Demeil, who was taken to Lutheran Hospital and reported not seriously injured, was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol, reckless driving and changing lanes in traffic. Parked cars involved are owned by Taft Howell, 2300 block Presstman St. and Mrs. Lizzie Mae Bonner, 1900 Aisquith St.

Italian colt prepared for U.S. tracks

LAUREL, Md. — Ugo Penco, trainer of Malhoa, Italy's representative in the $100,000 Washington, D.C. International at Laurel Race Course Nov. 11, has informed Laurel officials that Malhoa has won his first effort over an "American - style" counter - clockwise track.

Vanned here from his home stables near Milan, the five - year - old son of Teneramente easily won the Premio Palazzo della Cisterna at 1,800 meters (a mile and an eighth) while carrying 133 pounds.

After the race, Penco said that Malhoa would remain in Turin and continue to train over the local track, since it is the only counter - clockwise course in Italy.

"I am anxious," the trainer explained, "for the horse to become accustomed to the change in stride and the opposite shifting of weight as he turns to the left."

Malhoa has won five of six starts this season, but all have been on clockwise courses. Prior to his victory here, he won the Gran Premio di Milano, Italy's biggest race in both prestige and value, to stamp him as the country's top thoroughbred of the year.

GALIMORE GOES FOR KENNEDY—"What I want to see in the White House," says Willie Galimore of the Chicago Bears, "is a man who can score for our side. For my money, Kennedy's that man. He's not afraid to take a stand on fair employment and integration and poll taxes. Senator John Kennedy will do great things for our country and our people. He's getting my vote for President. Yours, too, I hope."

Chick Webb Center opens new roller skating rink

Children and adults of East Baltimore can now roller skate to their hearts' contents.

This was made possible by the official opening of the Roller Skating Rink at the Chick Webb Memorial Center, Tuesday.

The rink, constructed at a cost of $76,000, marks the completion of the final of three sections intended for the center at the time for its erection, November, 1947.

The other two sections, constructed at a cost of $246,840, were completed in 1947 and '49, respectively.

THE FIRST section, opened at dedication services for the center, included:

An office, lounge, play room, kitchen, girls' lounge, crafts room, pool and study group rooms. It was a $21,840 job.

The second section, costing $225,00,0 was opened in 1949. It included the swimming pool, day and locker rooms.

The new rink, represents the climax of a 22-year effort. Dr. Ralph J. Young, key person behind the birth of the center, vice versa began in 1938.

THE THREE - STAGE project stretched across two state and city administrations.

It was started during the term of office of former Governor Theodore R. McKeldin. It was later taken over by Baltimore City under then Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro.

The dream of Chick Webb Center began taking the form of a reality when a committee, under Dr. Young, raised $8,000 at a benefit show at the Fifth Regiment Armory in 1940.

THE RINK, measuring 96 by 48 feet, will also be used as a multi - purpose room.

Other activities scheduled are adult ceramic classes, tap dancing, physical fitness programs, volley ball, badminton, paddle tennis, dodge ball and hon scotch.

The new, modern addition to the East Baltimore recreation center at 623 N. Eden Street is the last word in modern design.

It has hardwood floors, buff colored ceramic tile lower walls, accustical ceiling and re-

PLAYER DIES — Howard Glenn, New York Titans professional football player, who died Oct. 9 in a Houston, Tex. hospital.

N.Y. Titan guard leaves game, dies

HOUSTON, Texas — Howard Glenn, 21, a football player for the New York Titans, died in a Houston hospital Sunday night of undetermined causes.

An autopsy was scheduled to determine the cause of death.

A doctor who treated the former Linfield College (Ore.) gridder, said that he had not been injured in the game. His death was the first in the new American Football League.

GLENN, whose home was in Vancouver, Wash., was taken to Herman Hospital at about 5:30 p.m. —shortly after the New York —Houston Oiler game, and was pronounced dead 40 minutes later.

Dr. Franklin M. Rivers, who treated Glenn, said that the player returned to the bench after a series of plays and said he felt tired.

He was sent to the dressing room, showered, took some salt tablets and drank a soft drink.

Later he became hysterical and went into a stupor, the doctor said.

Although Houston had a high temperature of 91 degrees Sunday, Dr. Rivers said that Glenn showed none of the signs of heat prostration.

Glenn was listed as an offensive guard and weighed 234 pounds.

music.

To accommodate other activities held in the rink there is a portable stage which can be folded and stored when not in use. Dark green curtains complete the decorations.

Directing the skating program will be Thomas G. Williams, a volunteer worker. He will be assisted by four monitors, who will be named this week.

Clemente tops as prophet and player

By SAM LACY

NEW YORK — Roberto Clemente not only is a good ball player, he appears to be tops as a prophet.

The fleet Puerto Rican right-fielder of the Pittsburgh Pirates all but predicted the score of the fifth contest of the World Series in a pre-game conversation with the AFRO.

"We should get a good jump on (Art) Ditmar and (Harvey) Haddix and Roy (Face) should hold 'em for us," said Roberto when asked how he thought the "lead" game might go.

"I theenk, now that we tie it so sure Yankee Manager Casey Stengel would name Ditmar to start, rather than Bill Stafford, Clemente said.

"We don't theenk Casey ever intended starting Stafford. He have to go weeth his best man because he's tied and playing his last game at home.

"We theenk we have sometheengs for Deetmar, too."

The Pirates did. They took the "quieck" lead and they turned over the job of "holding 'em" to Roy. They won it, 5-2, and returned to their home lot in front 3-2 in games, and demanding that the Yanks go with their best thereafter, ready or
