ATTRACTIVE FAMILY GROUP is the one of the Rev. Reginald J. Daniels, of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, who was honored with a banquet Sunday celebrating his 16th year as pastor. He succeeded the late Rev. William W. Walker. With the Rev. Mr Daniels and his wife, Mrs. Margurite Daniels, are Reginald Jr., 15; Freda, 5, and Judith, 11.

Rev. Daniels feted on 16th anniversary

Sunday was "D-Day" at Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, 2104 Madison Ave.

That's when the 400-member congregation held its all-day celebration in honor of the pastor, the Rev. Reginald J. Daniels.

The occasion marked the pastor's 16th anniversary at the church. He was honored for outstanding leadership since June, 1944.

"D-Day" ceremonies, which began with morning services, were climaxed by a banquet at Carver High School.

During the day-long celebration, speaker after speaker heaped lavish praise upon the honoree.

THE MINISTER also received a solid gold engraved plaque and a cash gift from members.

His wife, Mrs. Marguerite Daniels, was presented a brocaded handbag, as a gift from the congregation.

Guest speaker at worship services was Dr. William Fitzjohn, Sierra Leone, Freetown, West Africa.

Dr. Fitzjohn, who represents his country in Washington, was a Lincoln University classmate of the Rev. Mr. Daniels. (Sierra Leone is scheduled to gets its independence next year, so it does not have an embassy as of now.)

While Dr. Fitzjohn lauded the warm friendliness and Christian principles of the minister, the congregation participated in a special program during the service.

AT THE banquet, where Raymond T. Carpenter Jr. was toastmaster, the Rev. Robert T. Newbold, Grace Presbyterian Church, was guest speaker.

In his address, the Rev. Mr. Newbold told his audience that the affair was the beginning of a moment of greatness for both the pastor and members of Madison Avenue.

The speaker, also a Lincoln classmate, recalled fond memories from their school days.

Recalling the guest of honor's fondness for sacred music in school, the speaker says this love has been carried over to his church.

He added:

"In a day when it's difficult to distinguish between secular and sacred music, and the trend of churches giving choirs over to rock and rollers, we appreciate a man who demands the highest type of music for his church."

The honoree was praised for making his worship service "God centered, rather than people-centered."

BRINGING GREETINGS on behalf of the Baltimore Presbytery was the Rev. A. Brown Caldwell, stated clerk. He substituted for the moderator, the Rev. Donald C. Kerr, who had to leave the banquet temporarily. He later returned to give the benediction.

The Rev. Arthur J. Payne, pastor, Zion Baptist Church and president, Maryland Council of Churches, represented the council.

He praised the Rev. Mr. Daniels as a fine young minister, who recognizes the perils facing a clergyman.

Among the long list of organizations in which the Rev. Mr. Daniels holds memberships is the Family and Children's Society.

He is chairman of the advisory committee on child adoptions. Representing that agency was Clark L. Mock, executive secretary.

Mr. Mock praised the minister for his untiring efforts in helping to find homes for homeless children.

OTHERS BRINGING greetings were:

The Rev. J. Arthur Younger, minister, Saints Memorial Baptist Church, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

The Rev. Mr. Younger is father-in-law of the honoree.

THE REV. JOSHUA O. WILLIAMS, former pastor, Sharp Street Memorial Methodist Church, now pastoring in New York, also attended.

A longtime friend of the honoree, the Rev. Mr. Williams said "we have the wrong idea about funerals.

"Nice things should be said when they can be heard and appreciated.

The minister got a roar from the estimated 300 persons in attendance when he said he stayed in New York for morning service. To get to the banquet, even a little late, he had to "drive like a layman."

Miss Sara P. Johnson represented the congregation in offering congratulations and thanks to the minister.

"We are wonderfully blessed to have as our pastor a man who is so sincere, witty, friendly, earnest and affectionate," she said.

IN HIS remarks, the Rev. Mr. Daniels had his audience in stitches as he accepted the honors.

"The only difference is a banquet and funeral," he said, "is that the corps stands up and says thanks."

He provoked further laughter while telling how he stumbled upon the well-kept secret of the banquet plans.

The first clue came, he said, when a male voice called his home late at night and asked for his wife.

"After telling her to pick up the phone he checked the extension before hanging up, to make sure she was there.

"First thing I heard was, 'Is the extension closed?' "

SEEKING AN explanation, he said he found it difficult to believe that "It's one of your best friends and you will be happy for it."

The other clue came when one of his members, bemoaning the high cost of living, said:

"I just paid this and that bill and had to leave $5 for you . ."

When the minister wanted to know why leave money for him, the member became speechless as he realized he'd let the proverbial cat out of the bag.

After reading of telegrams and introduction of members of the honoree's family, Mr. Carpenter closed the celebration by reciting Rudyard Kipling's "If."

Dear friends in the brotherhood of God through the love of Jesus Christ and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. We ask the aid and cooperation of all mothers in encouraging their children to attend regularly the Sunday school of their choice. We feel this early training in the teaching of Christ will be a blessing to them and a tribute greater to the future happiness of both parent and child. It is up to us, the people of God, to begin such a movement NOW. May the inspiration of the Holy Spirit bless the people of all races and go with us, in this, our chosen endeavor.

Y Fellowship Week to take on foreign air

by Lula Jones Garrett

The news, of course, is in the future . . . this week and lavish with top drawer affairs: Alpha Kappa Alpha's "Freedom Ball" this (Friday) evening.

The Girl Friends hosting the major Saturday night fete (a dinner dance) and Sunday's main event being Woman-power's annual luncheon.

And then, a bit farther ahead the YWCA's plans for World Fellowship Week, Nov. 13 to 19.

The Madison Avenue Branch will have a smorgasbord supper on the 20th, with foreign students attending . . . colleges throughout Maryland . . . and with a program of folk dancing and the affair international flavor.

The affair will be open to the public (there will be a modest stipend for tickets) with the YWCA's World Fellowship Fund to benefit. This fund helps carry out association work in under-developed countries and the project is participated in by 70 countries around the world.

AKA'S FREEDOM BALL will draw any number of national officers, and of course is being augmented by a lossy flock of individual parties.

And ditto, the Girl Friends, who will begin with cocktails at seven and end with breakfasts at seven next day, I understand.

THE MARYLAND LEAGUE of Women's Clubs will be holding forth in Cambridge, Md. on the 29th. Their session will be held in the Bethel A.M.E. Church. Mrs Virginia L. Brown of 1708 Westwood Avenue is arranging the details.

The BALSAC'S (Baltimore Society of African Culture) continues in pursuit of knowledge of that continent.

During the past month the members have traveled to Philly to see the exhibition of commercial Mission and more recently met at the home of Gloria Basfield for an authentic African dish . . . chicken cooked in peanut butter.

At their next meeting they will have as guests students from various regions of Africa.

Mary Carter Smith is president of the chapter. Other members present were, Ora Mitchell, Marie Wise, Sedonia Merritt Powers, Johnnie Mae Stevenson, Joan Stevenson, Dorothy Jackson and Eloise Brown.

GLORIA STOKES, (Chapter president) was hostess to the Easterwood Chapter of the Child Study Association at the last session.

Beginning with the 29th when they will have a Halloween party for their children (the Chips and Turps) the program planned will include a number of interesting affairs.

They will take the children to Friendship Airport in November and Julia Richardson and Fannie Poulson are planning the special December meeting.

The October meeting will be hosted by Orienne Greene and Thelma Green and the November hostesses will be Jacqueline Lewis and Vonella Murray.

Other members at the meeting were Lorraine Eason, Geraldine Jenkins, Frances Jackson, Fannie Poulson, Willa Bouldin, Olyen Free, Lil Boston, Doris Morgan and Frances Ward.

NEWLY-ELECTED president Mary T. Quinn entertained the Caperettes' executive committee at that session last week. They concocted plans for a benefit to aid Sit-downers and to add to their scholarship fund.

Theola White will host the first regular club meeting to-night, when they will offer congratulations to three of their members, Mrs. White, who took a degree from Bowie State Teachers College; Leusonia Jefferson, who won a master of arts degree from the School of Social Work of the University of Pennsylvania; and Audrey Williams, who had a master of arts degree conferred upon her from Howard University . . . and who has also received a promotion to supervisor in the Baltimore Department of Public Welfare.

Caperette officers, other than Mrs. Quinn, include Barbara Patterson, vice president; Elizabeth Gerald, recording secretary; Barbara Council, financial secretary; Phillis Wallace, corresponding secretary; Irene Schmoke, treasurer.

Members also include Shirley Chambers, Willa Bouldin, Bennie Keene, Thelma Millard, Frances Rideout, Leah Hasty, Virginia Clarke, Ruth Harrison and Rhoda Bowman.

THE JAG's luncheon and fashion show on Saturday was a special spot to be in. There was a smart line of togs from Pauline Brooks and hats to match them from Nell Sherman.

There was also a batch of lovelies, the Delisa Debs, a teen-age group, to add eye appeal to the hostessing duties. Mrs. Cortlindt Brown is head of the JAG's.

THE RINKY DINKS held their second meeting of this season in the gay club room of the elegant Chelsea Terrace home of Ruby Jenkins on Monday evening.

Business included plans for a Thanksgiving Eve Cocktail party and then the group settled down to some cocktails and games for the nonce.

They have elected Carol Weldon president for this year . . . and in her "cabinet" are Ada Smith, vice president; Angelina Chambers, secretary; Ruby Jenkins, treasurer; Ayesha Fowlkes, recording secretary; Doretha Foster, business manager.

Members include Bettie Pullen, Ruth Paysour, Peggy Williams, Gloria Warner, Doretha Robinson, Minerva Welling and Agnes Walker.

Newlywed Bettye Lindsay of New York is their new member.

CHIC PARTY of a week back was that given by Swags Widows," Mesdames Gertrude Urquhart, Olga Chambers, Maude Woodland and Elizabeth Stewart, at the Chambers farm in Woodlawn, Md.

They carried out a Mexican motif concocted by James Daugherty, fetched in the Chambers musicians for entertainment.

The affair was a "thank you" from the wives of the late Swags for all favors that club members had bestowed Swags and wives present were:

Drs. and Mesdames Ted Phillips, Van Thompson of Frederick, Dr. and Mrs. James Johnson of Elkton, and Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Clayton of Pennsylvania.

POT POURRI: The Charles (Pearl Cole) Brackett's new address is 2004 Calloway. And the William (Box) Harrises and Dr. and Mrs. Emwood Odum (Helen Glover) will be next door neighbors when they move into their new domiciles. Also in the offing a new address for Dr. and Mrs. Albert LaPorea.

The For-Win-Ash Garden Club glowed with pride Monday night as they viewed the beautiful engraved silver cigarette box, first prize in the city wide contest which went to Dr. H. Bradshaw Higgins. Lawn was adjuged practically perfect. Ruth Forster was hostess to the club . . . which also glowed over the prizes (including a first by Naomi Camper) which members garnered at the Co-operative Women's Civic League Flower show.

Attractive couple about town are T. Flippen and Mercedes Douglass. He's tall, tan, and she's Oh la la. Incidentally, when the Pierians had a theatre party, seeing "Raisin in the Sun" they journeyed to the Douglass Tioga Parkway manse for after-show cocktails and supper where they had

EDUCATOR ENTHUSIASTIC FOR KENNEDY — Dr. Rosa L. Gragg of Detroit, distinguished educator and president of the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, Inc., says, "Because education is our most valuable resource for the future, I am voting for Senator John Kennedy for president. He and the Democratic Party pledge an end to segregated schools by 1963. Even further, they believe in Federal aid to education, our only hope for ending the nation's shortage of classrooms and teachers. I sincerely believe that Senator John Kennedy will uphold these pledges."
