—Rev. King

Walker commended Atlanta police for their "exemplary" actions during the demonstrations.

In groups of six or more the demonstrators remained seated at lunch counters in stores where no arrests were made. Some read books. They stayed in three of the seven stores until closing time.

The stores at which no arrests occurred are: the Davison - Paxon department store, an affiliate of Macy's Inc., New York, and branches of the Newberry, H. L. Green, F. W. Woolworth, W. T. Grant, Kress and McCrory chains.

None of these had experienced demonstrations before. Rich's had been the target of a concentrated campaign of sidesitting most of the year at its four all - white eating places.

The arrests at Rich's occurred sporadically, mostly in the store's largest dining room. They came after Frank H. Nealy, chairman of the store's board, and other officials applied affirmatively when asked by city detectives if they desired that the demonstrators leave.

Dr. King and nine others went to a sandwich bar, which closed when they appeared. They sat there about an hour and a half, and then went to the large dining room where they were arrested.

BE SURE to VOTE Tuesday, Nov. 8. Polls open 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. A good citizen knows it is not enough to register, he must also VOTE. Plan NOW to VOTE on Nov. 8.

Interview of the week

While conducting an election survey, a reporter was floored by this interview with a woman voter.

This was the question:

"Madam, if the election was held tomorrow, who would you vote for and why?"

Without hestitation, the lady answered: "Truman!"

Informed that Mr. Truman was out of the running in the upcoming election, the voter answered:

"Eisenhower!"

Told that the present contest is between Senator John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the lady finally said: "I would vote for Kennedy."

Asked why, she proudly declared:

"I've always been a Republican!"

The reporter decided to quit while he was ahead.

Dead woman identified after AFRO story

WASHINGTON

An article and picture appearing in the Tuesday edition of the Washington AFRO - AMERICAN Newspaper has resulted in the identification of a 21-year-old woman who leaped from the Sousa Bridge to her death on Oct. 3.

Capt. Lawrence Hartnett, head of the homicide squad, said the drowning victim was Mary Elizabeth Hayes, 21, who resided in the 300 block 36th St., NE.

THE PICTURE of Miss Hayes and the accompanying article were seen by a neighbor, Mrs. Carrie Gibson, on Wednesday. Captain Hartnett reported.

Mrs. Gibson informed the victim's mother, Mrs. Janie C. Hayes, 41, also of the 36th St. address. Mrs. Hayes told police she had last seen her daughter on the Oct. 3 date.

The mother, accompanied by two of her daughter's friends, Lillie Wilson, 5900 block Second St., NE and Dorothy Scott, a neighbor, went to the morgue where the two friends identified the body.

• • •

MISS HAYES had worked as a dentists' assistant and recently was employed as a typist at the Woodward and Lothrop Department Stores.

Police said she had been upset over a romantic involvement.

Miss Hayes' body was recovered from the Anacostia River about 150 yards downstream from the Sousa Bridge. Police had been unable to find any clues to her identity until the AFRO story and her photo were published.

Urges mandatory military classes

The District School Board Wednesday heard a request by Attorney Roland Clerk to make a study of the possibility of making it mandatory for the District pupils to attend cadet classes. This includes the classes known as military science.

The attorney made the request because of the decrease in the number of children attending the classes for nonvalid reasons given by parents of these pupils, he said.

• • •

THE BOARD also appointed three new principals. They were Fred Aranah, appointed principal of Randall Junior High; Mrs. Helen Gray, principal at Langley Junior High and Mrs. Elizabeth Jamieson, principal at Jefferson Junior High.

Mrs. Clarice Bright was appointed assistant principal at Margaret Murry Washington Vocational School.

Father Divine is reported 'in very best of health'

Not only is Father Divine "in the very best of health," but is again traveling to cities where various Peace Centers are located.

This report was given, Monday, by Austin Norris, attorney, who is the legal adviser of Father Divine.

In giving the statement, Norris denied a report that the Peace Mission leader was again ill. He said the Rev. M. J. Divine was out of Philadelphia the past weekend.

As a patrolman, Mr. McCray (He was in the Department three years) said that he had tried to "organize" some of the colored officers but most seemed to "be afraid."

• • •

A NUMBER OF OFFICERS have expressed the opinion that there is no future in the department for a colored officer — even a college graduate.

They cite in addition, low pay as another reason for having the Police Department.

Eighty-nine officers have resigned from the Police Department since January.

Some have obtained higher paying jobs with the Metropolitan Police Dept. in Washington.

In D.C. and other areas along the Eastern Seaboard, the police departments are integrated.

THERE ARE five colored sergeants in the Baltimore Police Department.

Only two sergeants are eligible for promotion to lieutenant.

One, whom a former Commissioner called "one of the best on the force," ranks 38th on the promotion list.

The other sergeant ranks 115th.

• • •

UNDER CITY SERVICE rules, the Police Commissioner is allowed to select an officer for promotion from the first 20 men on the list.

Police Commissioner James M. Hepbron has said: "I have always appointed colored officers when they reached the top.

"It is my policy to take the top man on the list in the particular field (or division) where a vacancy exists."

Under the Baltimore system, some officers have been on the promotion list for as long as three years.

Should a sergeant or a lieutenant not receive a promotion, he may take the written examination over each year.

An officer seeking promotion must also receive a "good" efficiency report from his commanding officer.

After passing the examination he must appear before a board for an interview.

In preparation for the examination an officer is required to study six text books which he must buy himself.

Should an officer desire to transfer to another division, he must apply through channels.

• • •

THERE ARE NO colored officers assigned to any of the district radio cars.

Recently, a fair skinned patrolman was placed in a radio car by mistake.

He was removed from the car within 30 minutes after officials learned that he was colored.
