ONLY KENNEDY CAN MEET THE CHALLENGE!

On Human Rights and RACE RELATIONS

KENNEDY HONORED—Mrs. Erma George Dixon, Baltimore Mary land, a member of the Maryland House of Delegates presents Sena tor John F. Kennedy with a plaque for his outstanding contribution to the National Achievement Club, Inc. 1960. The award is to be conferred by the National Achievement Club, Inc.

PRESIDENTIAL LEADERSHIP

"The fact that the Supreme Court in this country, in one area after another, is upholding the constitutional right of all Americans to equal treatment and is requiring far-reaching changes is also a sign of national vitality.

"What remains is for the other parts of our government—particularly the Executive Branch—to do everything in their power to implement the law of the land as interpreted by the Supreme Court—the higher law of equal justice—is to be faithfully executed, then the high office of the Presidency must be used, to provide strong, creative, persuasive leadership."

HOUSING AID

"Let us remember that a great part of the solution to these problems depends upon Presidential leadership. There are a number of vital steps which could be taken now—which should have been taken during the last seven and a half years—by Presidential action.

"Let me give one example of an important immediate contribution that could and should be made by the stroke of a Presidential pen: the Civil Rights Commission unanimously proposed that the President issue an executive order on equal opportunity in housing. The President has not acted during all this time. He could and should act now. BY SUCH EXECUTIVE ACTION HE WOULD TOLL THE END OF RACIAL DISCRIMINATION IN ALL FEDERAL HOUSING PROGRAMS, INCLUDING FEDERALLY ASSISTED

"I have supported this proposal since it was made last September. The Democratic platform endorses it. A new Democratic administration will carry it out. But there is no need to wait another six months. I urge the President to act now."

SENATOR KENNEDY and other officials of the Veterans Administration, Washington, D. C., inspect the new Veterans Office Building subway on route to an appointment. Mrs. Bartle (at the first of her race to be employed on the staff of a member of Congress) is Veterans Administrator.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

"So long as equal opportunity is not everywhere accorded to all Americans, so long as some are not free to live good all the guarantees of the Constitution, there needs to be an agency of the Federal Government studying and working on this problem in all its aspects. Therefore, he linked by Civil Rights Law 1960 the Commission not only on a long-term basis, and the President must give his full support to its recommendations.

"BEING—IS A LIVING SOUL. GOD LIKE OUR CONSTITUTION IS COLOR BLIND. What we must do is live up to this common ment of our civilization is to end the condition of inequality which holds back or destroys the potentialities of many Americans. Equal opportunity achieved, the difference among men will be measured as they should be: on their basis of merit and not of race, color, religion or national origin."

SIT-IN DEMONSTRATIONS

from the beginning I have considered these peaceful demonstrations as a healthy sign of the unrest in America today which has its antecedents in many early periods in our history. It is significant that they are young people who use this means to express their unwillingness to accept the status quo in their own lives. I agree with Governor Collins that it is wrong to serve a customer in one section of a store open to the public and deny him service in another. The winds of change are blowing, on the African continent, in Asia, in Cuba, in Latin America, in the Union of South Africa and not only in Africa but here. We must keep pace with the change—and fulfill the promise of the Constitution.

I SHALL ALWAYS UPHOLD THE RIGHT OF EVERY AMERICAN TO STAND UP FOR HIS RIGHTS AND, WHEN NECESSARY TO SIT DOWN FOR THEM.

"I give my assurance that in whatever position I hold in public office I will support and take every step necessary to protect the full constitutional right of every American."

SENATOR KENNEDY and his aide, Mr. Kenneth O'Donnell, discuss the Senator's trip to Africa from the Honorable K. A. Gbedemah (Minister of Finance of Ghana).

RIGHT TO VOTE

Over the years I have given my full support to strong civil rights legislation. I voted to override the Eastland filibuster. General power to bring civil rights suits in order other than voting rights.

"Now the task for the next administration is to use all its power under both the 1957 and 1960 Acts to end all continuing denials of the right to vote by reason of race. The Executive Branch of the Federal Government—the Department of Justice—and also all citizens must use the Constitution and laws to protect the right to vote and protect those who do so. NO DEMOCRACY CAN TRULY REPRESENT ITS CITIZENS UNLESS ALL OF THEM ARE GUARANTEED THE RIGHT TO VOTE WITHOUT FEAR OF REPRISALS OR THREATS and I might add that this problem, one of the greatest in the country, is not being given the attention and priority which his administration has given to inflation and the budget."

FOREIGN RELATIONS

"I became chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Africa because I am convinced of the great importance of this continent so long 'behind God's back' and so little noticed in the past. Africa must be a major point of a new American policy for Africa. This policy must include substantial economic aid and technical assistance, strong and imaginative support for the peace-keeping requirements, and large people-to-people exchange programs.

"To meet the challenge of the new Africa—to turn our common dream of freedom and equality into a reality—we have work to do here at home. Our commitment to a problem of a community of interest and equality in the problem of integration—the problem of integrating many different races and nationalities in a world community in which the great majority of people are colored. I believe that what we do here will be the SOLUTION OF THE PROBLEMS IN THE REST OF THE WORLD, JUST AS THE RISE OF AFRICA IS HELPING TO QUICKEN THE CHANGE OF PACE HERE."

HARRY BELAFONTE TALKING—with Senator John F. Kennedy when they met for a "rap" during the National Conference on Constitutional Rights and Civil Rights. Belafonte said: "I believe that Senator Kennedy is the man best qualified to be the next President of the United States. I am voting for him and I am urging every American citizen to vote for him also."

SCHOOL INTEGRATION

"I have said repeatedly that the Supreme Court decision of 1954 is the law of the land and must be obeyed as such. I firmly believe that the executive Branch of the government should use its moral leadership in the course of equality."

In October, 1957, when Southern tempers ran high, Kennedy refused to duck a long-standing commitment to address a Young Democratic Rally in Jackson, Miss., and he refused to duck when challenged by the pro-segregation Republican chairman to state his views on the Issue. Court's decision as the "law of the land" and asked his audience to support law and order, not mob violence, in every part of the country, whether the Court's decision was popular or not. The Boston Chronicle editorially commended Kennedy's "courageous denunciation of school segregation before the statewide rally of Mississippi young Democrats."

FAIR EMPLOYMENT

"On the floor of Congress and in committee, I have voted 11 separate times for a strong Federal Fair Employment Practices Bill.

"Equal opportunity in employment is essential for a country founded on equality.

"The deficiency in employment commissions on fair employment practices have shown the way to make progress on this problem—by using methods of mediation, conciliation and persuasion, backed by the law's clear standards. Further progress in all parts of the country is urgently required. WE MUST UTILIZE ALL OF OUR HUMAN RESOURCES. EQUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR EVERY HUMAN BEING THIS MEANS THAT THE OPPORTUNITY FOR EACH PERSON TO DEVELOP TO HIS FULL CAPACITY MUST BE AVAILABLE."

Hungry Cowboys to host irked Colts in Dallas

DALLAS, Texas — The Baltimore Colts "return home" Sunday when they move into the Cotton Bowl for a game with the newly-formed Cowboys.

The Colts, before moving to Baltimore for the 1953 season, called the Texas metropolis home during the 1952 season. Since then, they have come a long way winning the world championship the last two years.

SUNDAY'S GAME will be televised or special regional networks of the CBS Television Network. It will be telecast on the Dallas network at 1:30 p.m. (CST) and on the Baltimore network at 2:30 p.m. (EST.)

The task at hand for the Cowboys is not an enviable one. Seeking their first National Football League victory, Dallas has its work cut out for it facing Baltimore. The Colts, tough enough by under normal circumstances, will be doubly so following a 30-17 defeat at the hands of the Detroit Lions last week.

THE LIONS' 30-17 win over Baltimore proved the NFL adage of "any club can beat any other one on any given week." This holds true for this Sunday's Cowboys-Colt clash at the C n Bowl.

Coach Tom Landy, master defensive strategist, is certain to devise special defenses for Lenny Moore, who has come into his own this year as a runner and for Johnny Unitas the Colts' great quarterback who has thrown TD passes in 42 straight games.

The Cowboys come within a whisker of winning their first game last Sunday only to lose out 12-10, in the final seconds as the Cardinals' Gerry Perry booted an 18-yard field goal to win for St. Louis.

PARTNERS AT POLY — In a sense, Bob Merryman (left) and Roland Savage parted company this year. Running mates at guard in 1959, they separated when Savage was shifted to left halfback by Poly coach Bob Lumsden. They'll be working as a team again today (Friday) however, when Merryman will be blocking for Savage against a rugged Patterson Park foe at Kirk Field.

Applesauce in School No. 111

As an outgrowth of their Social Studies Unit, "The Family," the first graders at School No. 111, took over one of Mother's tasks by making applesauce recently.

The pupils lunched together having sandwiches, milk and applesauce on the next day. The learning experience was enjoyed by the pupils and teacher, Mrs. Essie F. Dorsey.

CAB'S FOR KENNEDY—"Over the years," says Cab Calloway, "the Democrats have shown they care more about people getting a fair chance in life. They believe in moving ahead, and Kennedy is the man that can do it. I'm asking everybody to vote for Senator John Kennedy for President on the Democratic ticket. He'll really fight for our rights."
