Gadabouting....

did quite a job.

From Mrs. G. James Fleming (of the soft and sweetest voice) who simply listed her husband's position, to dynamic Mrs. David M. Blum who turned a cute phrase. She told of the Congressional Candidate's tendency to "worry" . . . and added that if the people wanted a representative who would worry about their welfare they should elect her husband!

From Mrs. Delaney Foster, who really needed to do nothing more than stand behind the mike looking as she did, like a model for Vogue, to Mrs. Samuel Daniels, who confident I find time on that program to list all of the community interests of her husband, to diffident Mrs. J. Gilbert Prendergast, who put in a bid for re-election of her husband to a judgeship on the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City.

The luncheon drew a number of representatives from the Metropolitan Democratic Women's organization (Washington) including the president, Mrs. Ethel Payne; Mesdames Marietta Jackson, Aileen Ewell, Arabella Denniston, Ernestine Callahan and Ruth Nesbit.

There was also charming Mrs. W. Beverly Carter, who came from Philadelphia with her husband, a speaker, and lent an evetal in a green print on white background frock.

MR. AND MRS. Wesley Stubbs had their daughter, Weslie, christened in the Walbrook Presbyterian Church, Sunday.

The Rev. Thomas Fraser, minister of the church, and a cousin of Mrs. Stubbs, officiated.

Three - year - old Weslie, as well as her mother, wore brocade frocks, the former in white. Mrs. Stubbs, also

Mrs. Blanche Beckham and Mrs. Dorothy Johnson were godmothers and Cecil Johnson, godfather. Reception followed the ceremony.

Here for the affairs were Mrs. Stubbs' mother, Mrs. Thomasina Amminolti of Philadelphia; her brother and sister-in law, Mr. and Mrs. George Amminolti, and Dr. George Herriot of Washington; and Mrs. Stubbs' cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Smith and daughters Sandra and Mrs. Charles Price, also of the capital.

ON SATURDAY past, the members of "The Organization" took on the Mid-Day Congressional from Pennsylvania Station for Philadelphia.

Some of the girls had really done some shopping as evidenced by the striking costumes and hats selected for the trip.

Upon reaching Philadelphia they went immediately to the home of their hostess, Mrs. Kathryn C. Taylor. After changing to lounge frocks, the group relaxed, lunched, and played cards.

At 5 o'clock some of Kathryn's Philadelphia friends joined the group for dinner and more fun. So fascinated were the Philadelphians with the Baltimore organization that immediate plans were made for the formulation of a Philadelphia Chapter of The Organization.

Tentative plans were made for the Baltimore Chapter to entertain the Philadelphians in the very near future. Having had a fully relaxing and exciting Mini, the members returned left for home not only to keep it in their memory books as a day not to be forgotten.

Those who made the trip were Marian Amprey, Mary Bacote, Alice Dandridge, Verona Greene, Aurelia Lonesome, Alphia Williams, Lillian T. Wilson and Stella Wise.

The members of the Philadelphia Chapter are: Eloise Capel, Gertrude Covington, Thelma Palmer, Eloise Smith, Kathryn C. Taylor, and Jean Williams.

The next scheduled meeting of "The Organization" is Saturday Nov. 5, Auxiliary Day, some will be hostess at that time.

WE WIVES met on Tuesday evening at the home of Margaret Armstrong, refined plans for the year's activities.

Before getting down to business, the girls had a look at beautiful furs from Kent's, the new Campanella Building at the hospital.

This is a fund raising project sponsored by The Auxiliary to raise money to carry on the fine work it is doing for the patients at Crownsville.

This show is under direction of Mrs. Nikki Randolph who is working with volunteers.

This promises to be a night of unsurpassed fun and enjoyment. The show is filled with roaring, comedy starring Robert Diggs and Clifton Gattis in side-splitting humor and antics. Mrs. Randolph will also feature a male chorus, line, along with ten of the city's lady dies.

There will be a special dance number projected by a group of teenagers under the leadership of Miss Jacki Finney, whose mother is a member of the Auxiliary.

The musical arrangements and accompanist for the show is directed by Meredith Birchett. The cast will be well supported musically by Mr. Birchett's talented group of young men called the Cabanoes.

A special treat for the evening will be a series of novelty arts presented by the Arena Players and under the leadership of Sam Wilson.

This has all the earmarks of being the top show of the year and tickets are now on sale by Mrs. Janet Woodruffe.

POTPOURRI: Mrs. J. Ingrap Jenkins has recently returned home after a trip to New York City, where she joined her cousin, Dr. Madeline McCraw of Boston.

Mrs. Jenkins was accompanied by Mrs. Susan Lightston of this city. They attended Unitarian sessions and were entertained at a dinner party by Mrs. Jenkins' nephew and Mrs. Jenkins' and Mrs. William Chavis.

Mrs. Maxene Franklin of N.

TRYING OUT reducing apparatus in W. Lanvale St salon recently reopened by Mrs. Lillian M. Lawrence, left, is Miss Ruth Stark. Ceremonies marking re-opening were held at the salon.

Ellamont St. and Mrs. Lillian Jones of Winston Ave. were hosts at a baby shower for Mrs. Leroy Benjamin of Park Heights Avenue on Saturday.

After spending three years in Kansas City, Kansas, where she has been with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Davis Lewis, Mrs. Monroe Davis is returning here to live. She will be at home with her sister, Mrs. Mattie Coasey.

ROMANIA — The social club met with Mrs. Edith Jones of 2305 Garrison Blvd., this week.

Plans were completed for a Variety supper on Nov. 11.

Prizes at cards went to Mrs. Mary Brown, first; Mrs. Sarah Mahen, second; and Mrs. Mary Johnson, booby.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Brown at 2421 Edgar Place.

Adamses host house party

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Adams of 2411 Springhill Ave. had a "house warming" on Saturday evening.

The Adamses moved into their new home in August.

THE SUNFLOWER Charity club met in its regular monthly meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Blanche White.

Plans were made for some charitable efforts.

Officers elected were: Mrs. Margaret Johnson, president; Miss Isabell Taylor, vice president; Mrs. Helen Jenerson, recording secretary; Mrs. Blanche White, financial secretary; Mrs. Mamie Allen, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Boone, chaplain; Mrs. Myrtle Cockwell, business manager; Mrs. Ella Williams, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Mary Cooke, reporter.

Members are Mrs. Lila Mae Jenerson and Mrs. Dorothy Quick.

THEIR GUESTS on Saturday were: Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Jones, Mrs. Dorotha Biggers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. Cora Tate, and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Mitt, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Carter, Mr. Obie Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Dorch Wynn and Miss Vashti Jackson.

Women who love their families set a Tip-Top Table

Love comes to the table in many ways. Often as a loaf of bread. For your family, will just any bread do? Of course not. You search out the freshest. The most nutritious. How satisfying to find new Tip-Top White Bread! You smell the goodness right on the shelf. You squeeze the freshness right through the wrapper! Triumphantly, you bundle it home. Each slice to be a token of affection from you to your family. Ever think so much love could come in a loaf? It does in TIP-TOP WHITE BREAD.
