Just look who's backing Nixon

CHARLESTON, S.C. —Two bitter - end segregationists, James. F. Byrnes of South Carolina and Allan Shivers of Texas, were heard on an 11-Southern state television hookup Monday night praising Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The telecast, which was estimated to have cost nearly $50,000 was paid for by the Republican National Committee, which said it had no money to appeal for the support of colored voters.

Mr. Shivers, who as governor of Texas, was the first executive to use troops to block school integration, said: "Nixon's way is the way true Southern Democrats have always believed government ought to be run."

Byrnes, embittered former governor of South Carolina, told his Southern listening audience, "I am disturbed because no man knows what Kennedy will do if he's elected."

It was thought Mr. Byrnes had reference to Kennedy's strong stand on the civil rights question.

MARYLAND LEGISLATOR BACKS KENNEDY—Mrs. Verda F. Welcome, Baltimore Civic Leader and member of the Maryland House of Delegates, says, "As a former teacher, I am voting for Senator John F. Kennedy for President because he can give America the vital liberal leadership we need for the '60s. Senator Kennedy calls education America's most valuable resource, and he pledges to fight for equal access for everyone, not only to the schoolroom, but to the voting booth, to jobs, to housing, and to all public facilities."
