Would provide tennis lessons

Citywide appeal was made this week by the Netmen-Coed Tennis Club for help in its sponsorship of two teenage tennis players toward what promises to be a bright future on the courts.

Mrs. Nellie Briscoe, member of the executive board of the club, forwarded a plea to the AFRO to present the cases of Frank Young and Herbert Rogers. The two youngsters are 14 years of age and bent on becoming topline tennis players.

"WE ARE anxious to see these boys develop to their full potential," Mrs. Briscoe told the AFRO. "For that reason, the club has financed a one-year program of lessons under an established professional.

Both youngsters have bright futures. Some day, they may represent Baltimore at Forest Hills and at Wimbledon. In any case, we feel they deserve the opportunity."

With club funds for such an enterprise getting low, Mrs. Briscoe explained, it has become necessary to seek contributions elsewhere. She said she will be happy to offer any information desired by interested persons, if she is called at WU. 7-2482.

Wilma accepts bid to 'Freedom' rally

NEW YORK, — Olympic sprinting ace Wilma Rudolph will be among guests of honor attending the fourth annual NAACP Freedom Fund dinner here November 27.

Miss Rudolph confirmed her acceptance of the NAACP's invitation in a wire this week to Roy Wilkins, executive secretary.

This year's $100 per - couple affair will be held in the grand ballroom of the fashionable Statler - Hilton Hotel. Honored will be Lena Horne, star of stage and screen, and Librettist Oscar Hammerstein, posthumously.

* * *

THE ATTRACTIVE Miss Rudolph won three gold medals in the international games last September in Rome, Italy. Considered the fastest woman alive, she won the 100, 200 and shared in the U.S. 400-meter relay victory.

Twenty - year - old Miss Rudolph is a student at Tennessee A. and I. where she is majoring in elementary education.

* * *

MR. WILKINS said the NAACP is happy to have Miss Rudolph as a guest "at a time when young people are playing such a prominent role in Negro America's march on dignity."

She is one of 19 children and her father is a retired railroad porter. The family resides in Clarksville, Tenn., where Wilma was raised.

* * *

BUT WILMA was not always old, she was stricken with double pneumonia and scarlet fever and lost the use of one leg.

So once a week, for two years, Mrs. Rudolph took the child by bus to a clinic in Nashville, some fifty miles away. With aid of specially constructed shoes, the child could hop about on one foot by the time she was six.

* * *

A BROTHER set up a basket ball hoop in the yard when Wilma was eleven. That proved to be her start.

The Association's Freedom Fund Dinner is climax of its major yearly fund raising effort. This overall national drive is under co - chairmanship of Jackie Robinson and Mrs. Marzurite Belafonte.

Prep gridder shot after Ark. game

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (ANP) — Roy Bils, a defensive star for the Langston High school football team, was shot in the chest and hospitalized following a game between his team and another in the stadium of a white high school here last week.

Bils, whose team tied the Little Rock Mann High team, 7-7, was shot as he walked to a bus after the game. The boy was preparing to take the Langston team back to dressing rooms at the school.

Bils was taken to a hospital for surgery. It was not known who fired the shot that injured him.

BIG DADDY LIKES KENNEDY — "Kennedy's got courage," says Gene "Big Daddy" Lipscomb, star lineman for the Baltimore Colts. "He takes a stand and he speaks out for sit-in demonstrations — school integration — FEPC and voting rights, some pretty touchy issues in many parts of the country. Kennedy's like FDR —a real leader — not afraid to tackle tough problems. And that's why I'm voting for Senator John Kennedy for President on a straight Democratic ticket. You should, too."

Halfback, 15, kicks 75 yards in the air

BEAVER BROOK, Pa. — Charles Bell, 15 - year - old halfback of the Beaver Junior High School eleven, was credited with a 75 - yard punt here last week as the Bobcats whipped New Brighton High, 25-13.

According to reports, the youngster's kick traveled from his own 25 - yard line into the end zone, in the air.

TO ENTERTAIN COLTS FANS — These are a few of the talented majorettes who figure to step their way into the hearts of football fans at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium Sunday. They lead the 132-piece Tennessee State University "Aristocrat of Bands," that will provide the halftime entainment for the showdown battle between the Baltimore Colts and Green Bay Packers. The band show as well as the football game will be nationally televised, except in the Washington - Baltimore area.

Tennessee State band to provide halftime show for Colts-Packers

The classy Tennessee State University Marching Band will share the spotlight with the Baltimore Colts and Green Bay Packers in the crucial National Football League afternoon at Memorial Stadium on Sunday.

Baltimore, seeking an unprecedented third straight pro title, entertains league-leading Green Bay in a game that is to be nationally televised, except in the Baltimore area.

AFRO calculations figure the Colts to win by 15 points.

* * *

The 132-PIECE Tennessee State unit, under director Frank T. Greer, will be making its third appearance on NFL national television. It produced the halftime entertainment for the 1955 Bears-Rams game at Chicago, and for-the 1956 Browns-Giants game at Cleveland.

This year's program includes a "Mr. Touchdown" number that will be dedicated to Buddy Young, former college and professional star and one-time All-Pro performer with the Colts. Young, currently in the public relations department of the Baltimore club, scouted the band. It was on his recommendation that it was obtained for the Sunday exposure.

* * *

AS FOR THE game, which has been completely sold out for two weeks, the Colts rule a slight favorite over their rivals from Wisconsin. This despite the fact the Packers turned back the Hosses, 35-21, in their previous meeting, October 9.

The home fans were cheered by the manner in which the champions handled the Dallas Cowboys, 45-7, last week in Texas.

* * *

WHILE RAYMOND BERRY continued to set a blistering pace for NFL receivers by nabbing four John Unitas passes for 195 yards and touchdowns of 68, 52 and 70 yards, the Colts also received encouraging performances from several reserves in the conquest of the Cowboys.

Fullback Billy Pricer hammered out 55 yards in 14 carries to lead a Baltimore ground attack that chewed up 217 yards. Jimmy Welch, the number two rookie left halfback, also impressed, hauling the ball three times for 18 yards.

GREEN BAY played the opportunity's role when the Colts were defeated four weeks ago. The Packers swiped four Baltimore passes and nailed two enemy fumbles on that occasion.

In beating Pittsburgh, 19-13, last week for their fourth straight victory, the Packers continued to burglarize the opposition, cashing it on five Steeler fumbles.

To stymie the Packers the Colts will have to be at their ball-handling best.

IT IS SIGNIFICANT that the Packers should come up with one of the loop's finest aerial defenses. Emlen Tunnell, who was the key man in the great "umbrella protection" boasted by the 1956-58 New York Giants, is occupying a similar role with Green Bay.

The former Iowa University star is in his 13th season in the NFL, and for eight straight years was named to the Pro Bowl game, the all-star post-season classic of play-for-pay football.

* * *

TUNNELL HAS three tan teammates in the Packer line-up with him. They are Willie Davis, a 240-pound end from Grambling University; Paul Winslow, a fleet halfback from North Carolina College, and Willie Wood, a scatback from Washington, D.C., by way of the University of Southern California.

Davis is in his third year in the pro league. Winslow and Wood are promising rookies.

THE COLTS, of course, will take the field with their six veterans, all of whom were members of the two world championship Baltimore teams.

Lenny Moore, at halfback, and Jim Parker, at tackle, will be in the starting offensive unit. Big Daddy Lipscomb, tackle, and defensive backs John Sample and Milt Davis will hold down their customary roles in the defense. Tackle Sherman Plunkett will handle his usual utility chores—SAM LACY.

GALIMORE GOES FOR KENNEDY—"What I want to see in the White House," says Willie Galimore of the Chicago Bears, "is a man who can score for our side. For my money, Kennedy's that man. He's not afraid to take a stand on fair employment and integration and poll taxes. Senator John Kennedy will do great things for our country and our people. He's getting my vote for President.
