Fellowship House moving today, in dire need of help

Fellowship House, 21 W. Preston St., is moving into its new home, 3200 Hilton St., today (Friday).

To aid the organization in getting located in its new home, Miss Ruth Fegley, executive director, has sent out an S.O.S. call.

A moving firm has volunteered to move Fellowship's belongings to the new location, but help is needed to complete the job.

"We need help in loading and unloading — only small pieces and cartons — this means leg work, but not strength. A mover will handle the heavy furniture.

"If you have a car, we could use it for cartons.

"All day Saturday, we'll need help at Hilton St.

"Will you remember us when you do your marketing?

"We would appreciate donations of cleanser, soap, rags, etc.

"One item from many people would certainly be a wonderful help".

Despite moving activity, the regular "Get Acquainted Gathering" will go on as usual.

REV. W. J. WINSTON

In memory of REV. WILLIS J. WINSTON, who departed this life November 20, 1949. He was the first pastor of Wayland coming to us when our congregation was less than a year old. For 31 years our kindly shepherd gave us light and leading. He was a fearless and peerless preacher of the gospel. His memory will ever be precious to us.
