BACK TO CHURCH

SHARP STREET METHODIST Church's successful first annual Women's Week had Mrs. Vivian Carter Mason, third from left, of Norfolk, Va. as speaker Sunday. With Mrs. Mason here are, from left: Mrs. Edward G. Carroll, wife of Sharp Street's minister; Mrs. Edna Rawlings and right, Mrs. Dolly Bennett, the latter two members of the Committee of One Hundred which sponsored the week-long observance.

SUNDAY MORNING scene outside St. Luke PE Church in Washington, shows Mrs. Elizabeth M. Philips, left, of Baltimore, assistant to president of AFRO, who was the woman's day speaker. She is chatting here with Mrs. Juanita Demby Jackson, center, chairman of the woman's day program; and Mrs. Gertrude L. Demby, president of the women's group. Mrs. Phillip's son, Benjamin, is at extreme left.

800 witness New Shiloh's dedication of sanctuary

More than 800 members, guests and friends were present Sunday night at New Shiloh Baptist Church for the dedication of the new interior, redecorated at the cost of $25,000.

The Rev. J. Timothy Boddie, pastor of the church, presided. Guest speaker was the Rev. Robert Newbold, pastor of Grace Presbyterian Church.

A 90-voice chorus, consisting of the combined Shiloh choirs, sang as the majestic interior was dedicated to "help for the poor, relief for the needy, defense of all righteousness, unceasing war against wickedness, consolation of the troubled, promotion of the brotherhood of man, fellowship, righteousness and the unity of all God's people."

In his talk, the Rev. Mr. Newbold congratulated the 1,500-member congregation for "taking pride in your church home, for building this magnificent sanctuary."

Continuing, he said: "you can not honor God so well when seats are falling down, plaster and paint are peeling.

"When you get all these things straight, nothing can stand between you and the highest honor to God.

"What you have done here tells us somebody cares. It is a tribute to your leader and to those of you who are good followers."

• • •

THE DEDICATION of the innovations marked a highpoint in the progress of the New Shiloh church which moved into the building October 3, 1926.

The stone church was erected in 1870 by a former congregation.

Present at the Sunday ceremonies was Mrs. Ruby Hawkins, 1817 Brunt St., a 50-year member, who joined the church in 1910.

Also present was the noted artist and church decorator, Robert J. Wellemann, Austria, whose family has supervised church decoration for 178 years and through five generations.

Also present were Chrispin Renner, Sierre Leone, West Africa, a Howard University sociology student; Dr. George Gunther, Gospel Temple Baptist church, minister, teacher and lecturer.

Also witnessing the dedication were many civic, church and community leaders.

• • •

MAIN AUDITORIUM additions include a new pulpit designed in red oak with a hand-carved gothic motif of the grape and the wine, matching offering table and communion table.

The altar furnisings are hand made in red oak and upholstered in gold nylon silk.

The chancel, 32 feet wide, is paneled in red oak. Above it is the oil painting of the River of Life which extends 26 feet high and 32 feet wide.

The gothic interior is hand painted in oil with peacock blue, desert sand, sandlewood and pearl gray as color scheme.

Carpeting is of matching desert sand and peacock blue. The ceiling is also hand painted in oil and done in an over - all stencil pattern of peacock blue, sandlewood, gold, gray and desert sand, to appear mosaic.

• • •

THE DAISY, symbolic of the innocent Christ child, is also used as the motif in a frieze which tops the red oak paneling around the entire auditorium.

Woodwork of the high vaulted ceiling is painted gray, sandlewood and gold.

Suspended from it are eight sacred pendant lanterns which may be gradually dimmed at in a theatre for dramatic effect. A large cross suspended over the pulpit, and 12 ceiling post lights also lend dramatic effect.

There are 10 side wall lights also done in ecclesiastical design.

The Beautitudes are hand painted gold, and blue in gothic script around the walls. At the rear of the church are a passage from the Old Testament and a passage from the New Testament. Hymnals are matching peacock blue.

The church which seats 1,200 persons was airconditioned in 1958.

Count your blessings

So many of us are so busy resenting little stings and worrying about trifles, that we do not take the time to count our blessings.

This Thanksgiving season is the time for us to pause and give thanks for —health, life, ability to sleep, for lodging, no matter how humble, for children, for work and for the joys of nature.

Give us grateful hearts, O Father, for THY mercies, and make us mindful of the needs of others, and let us remember to count our blessings, not our troubles.

Thanksgiving prayer

Lord, Thou hast indeed been bountiful. As we look back over the years, how gracious Thou hast been how tender Thy mercy, how warm and constant Thy love.

Create within us, our Father, that true gratitude That shall make this day of Thanksgiving one of rededication, when ye shall think not of how much we can eat but of how thankful we ought to be.

So may we all across this land today—act as recipients of God's richest mercy and bountiful blessing as we share with others.

May we, in gratitude, get on with the job of creating not only a nation, but a world in which all men—shall have the right to seek happiness.

Help us to make that dream come true in our homes day by day, in street and office and school, and so to live that Thou shalt be able to bless us and bless the nation for which we pray.

In His name, who created us a nation, we pray. Amen.

Pupils at the Venable Junior High School have been singing praises of their school since September.

And they have good reason . . . they've just moved into a new building of which any young pupil would be proud.

The new Venable School which accommodates 260 pupils is located at 34th and Frisby Sts. and is an eye catcher to all passersby.

It is a two-story brick building. Its beauty is offset by pastel blue panels below the windows.

It has 19 rooms, including the offices, health suite, music room, phisical education room and auditorium.

Constructed at a cost of $441,600, the school was opened in September.

• • •

THIS BEAUTIFUL new building replaces three old frame buildings which were located on 32nd St.

It was then called original Old School, a girls opportunity school.

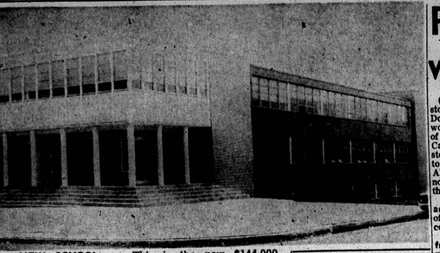
Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.



NEW SCHOOL — This is the new $144,000 Venable Junior High School, located at 36th and Frisby Sts. This modern structure replaces old frame huts and will accommodate 260 pupils.

Although they have changed buildings, the program hasn't been changed.

Says Mrs. Katherine Crabbs, principal at Venable.

"There is a contrast entirely in buildings, but our program was just as fine in the old building.

"We were inadequately housed there, but the philosophy and spirit is the same in either building."

• • •

FEATURES OF the new school include a training kitchen, where pupils get actual on the job training in cooking and kitchen management.

A home economics center with all the latest equipment includes sewing machines, weaving machines and many other modern appliances.

There is also a junior business training room with such equipment as adding machines, cash registers, and telephones.

In this room, the teacher combines business and arithmetic to show how they both work together.

Furniture in the school is the latest . . . pastel colored desks.

Chief engineer at the school is Paul Briscoe of 3412 Bateman Ave.

New math classes at Cherry Hill

Visitors to two mathematics classes at the Cherry Hill Junior High School will be quite astonished to note two entirely new methods of teaching mathematics in operation.

Class 7-209 under the able tutelage of Miss Jarrelle Foster is engaged in a University mental program in mathematics which consists of a non - decimal system of numeration, factoring, and primes.

In this non - decimal system of numeration the pupils learn to count on a basis other than ten which was originally used and continued because man had ten fingers.

Recently man has discovered that two and two need not equal four, but perhaps eleven on a base of two.

A visitor can note also that class 9-208 is receiving instruction in a new mathematical system called sets and set notations. This method of teaching numbers in sets is a way of showing boys and girls that numbers in sets is a clearly defined group of elements as is a set of dishes, or a set of books. We speak of these numbers as a set of all natural numbers.

The purpose of these experimental programs is to provide a new way of helping children better understand our number system and broaden their concept of the system.

Miss Foster has noted that her pupils do understand, and enjoy working with the new systems.

Cherry Hill Junior High School is one of the new school in the city involved in trying this new experimental program. James R. Hite is principal.

Commemorative plates help scholarship fund

One of the most successful fund-raising features of Morgan State College Faculty-Trustee Wives Club has been the recent sale of commemorative plates.

The first of a series of these plates featuring Morgan College scenes is now on display in the Student Union Lounge.

These fine 8 - inch plates have been used as focal points in the decorative scheme of some of Baltimore's leading hostesses.

Much of the artistry of the plate is due to the combined efforts of James E. Lewis, head of the Art Department at Morgan and Mrs. Dwynal Pettingill, active member of the Morgan Faculty - Trustee Wives Club.

The first of the series of Morgan's commemorative plates shows the Soper Library. Holmes Hall promenade walk, probably the most travelled spot on the campus.

The proceeds from the sale of these plates to go to the D. O. W. Holmes Scholarship Fund. Each year the Faculty Trustee Wives Club presents a worthy student with a scholarship.

The award this year was presented to Miss Nancy Burke by Mrs. Roger Williams, president of the club.

Pupils from 164 visit AFRO plant

(ED. Note — The following story was written by Mrs. Doris Carberry, a clerical worker in the City Department of the AFRO. This was Mrs. Carberry's first attempt at a story and also her first time to take a group through the AFRO building. We leave it now, to Mrs. Carberry, to tell the story.)

Last Friday, I found myself acting as a guide to a group of students, ten in number, accompanied by their teacher.

They were sixth graders from School No. 164 and my mission was to try and explain some important facts on what makes a newspaper tick.

They were such a group of wide - eyed interested students. At first I was afraid that I could not cope with the assignment, but we started off well enough.

The first stop was the editorial department. After being introduced to our assistant managing editor, who was all smiles, they were told that this is the beginning of the newspaper.

They were told how important stories were called in and later became good reading for the general public.

NEXT CAME the composing room. It was explained that in this live atmosphere, the linotype machines play an active part.

The news, after being written is set up in type on the linotypes and is soon on its way to be placed in the forms (pages) in the composing room.

After the composing room, I told the students we would visit the morgue. One of the students expressed surprise, but after explaining that this was a place where background material was kept, and not dead bodies, they all entered.

Our last place to visit was the press room where the paper is actually printed.

ALL IN ALL it was a very successful assignment, and the pupils and teachers seemed to be greatly impressed with their knowledge of what it takes to put out a newspaper.

I hope that I have the opportunity to take other classes through the plant.

The pupils were Elmer Taylor, Margaret Parker, Victoria Brown, Evelyn Hawkins, Charles Nelson, Barbara Price, Vivian Mack, Joseph Hawkins, Sherry Merritt and Lenora Kelly.

Student Day at Southern

By JAMES DAVIS

Southern High School's annual Student Day was held Wednesday, again under auspices of the School Student Association.

Elected student teachers handled but one subject.

Carolyn Novak, president of the Student Association, acted as principal for one day.

James Smith, vice president and Colleen Chaney, assumed the duties of vice principals. The positions of counselors, librarian, assistant Librarian, went to Chief Judge Michael Flynn and Associate Judges Annette Kalshi, Peggy Brown, Phillip Konradi, John Jones, Melvia Paul and Marion Weber.

Student teachers enjoyed no special privileges and went directly to his next period class after the bell rang marking the end of his period.
