—City surprises

hard - running halfback who scored two of Tech's touchdowns and turned in a good defensive game.

Savage, converted from guard to back by Coach Bob Lumsden, was a marked man and in an effort to offset the City strategy of hunting for "77," his usual number, he played the game as No. 22.

THE MOST EXCITING play of the game, which had more than its share of costly fumbles was turned in by City's 15-year-old soph back Thomas Duley.

With just 20 seconds remaining in the first half and Poly appearing to have come alive to take a 20-14 lead after being down 14-0, Duley grabbed a Poly kick on his own 15, burst through a muddle of would-be-tacklers and raced 85 yards to score.

The underdog Collegians drew first blood in the game during the first quarter when tackle Bob Cook pounced on a Poly fumble at Poly's 15.

Junius Wilson, a halfback went the last five yards on the third try from scrimmage. Wilson and Duley had spearheaded a drive deep into Poly territory that bogged down at the 9-yard-line just before the Poly fumble.

Halfback Roger Kampka put City further ahead on the second play of the second quarter when he intercepted a Poly pass and went 40 yards to score.

Bruce Barrett's conversion pass to Charlie Meadowcraft gave City two points and a 14-0 lead.

POLY STARTED to move at last. Ten plays after taking City's kick, Quarterback James Minderlein hit end John LaPointe in the end zone. He then hit fullback John Spangler for the two points.

Halfback Eugene Nerf started Poly on its next scoring march by recovering a fumble by Wilson at City's 39.

Savage made the trip to the goal line in two attempts, 34 on the first effort and 5 the second. The conversion failed by way of the fumble.

However, it was a City fumble at Poly's 17, covered by guard Tom Brogan, that allowed Poly to take the lead for the first time.

In a six-play effort with Savage carrying on the final four plays, Poly went out ahead 20-14 and that looked like it would be the halftime score as only 20 seconds remained.

This was where Duley took his kick and raced down the left sideline to score. Barrett passed to Meadorcraft and City led 22-20.

WITH BUT about three minutes left in the third quarter, disaster struck Poly again.

A high pass from center on a punt situation resulted in a fumble which was covered on Poly's 6 by City's Charley Miller.

Kampa went around right end for the score and fullback Roger Baldwin went in for the two points, giving City a 30-20 lead.

With three minutes left in the game, two long passes moved Poly from its own 47 to City's 6 and Dempsey tossed to Andrew Jackson for the score. The conversion failed and City's supporters started rushing toward the field to greet their heroes.

It was the first time since 1949 that a City team had tasted victory in the traditional Thanksgiving game.

St. Augustine defeats Shaw University, 20-6

RALEIGH, N.C. — The first in a series of Thanksgiving Day classics ended in a score of 20-to-6, with Saint Augustine's College the victor over the Shaw Bears.

In the first quarter St. Augustine went ahead when Robert Headen passed to Robert Felder for 64 yards. The conversion attempt failed.

In the second quarter Thomas Newbold of St. Augustine intercepted a pass in his end zone and raced 105 yards to reach pay dirt for the Falcons. The half time score ended 12-0 in favor of Saint Augustine.

DURING THE half-time the queen for St. Augustine, Miss Gloria Gardner, a senior of Orlando, Fla., was presented flowers by Harry Bunch, president of the student council.

Joseph Mann, vice president in a show of student body, then presented flowers to Miss Betty Ridly, "Miss Shaw University," a junior of Raleigh.

In the third quarter a sustained drive of 76 yards with Purnell Parker of Wilmington carrying the brunt of the attack ended in the only touchdown for Shaw University.

Saint Augustine's third TD came on Robert Headen's 36-yard run in the fourth quarter. The conversion was good on a pass from Leo Williams to Bennie Mack.

Statistics: Saint Augustine, eight first downs to Shaw's 12; St. Aug. five of 14 passes completed to Shaw's 4 of 11; St. Augustine 55 yards penalties to Shaw's 20. St. Augustine fumbled twice to Shaw's three.

North Carolina edges A&T College, 14-13

By JOHN A. HOLLEY

North Carolina College's footballers struck with vengeance to push over a second period touchdown to go ahead of A. and T. College 14-13, knocking the Aggies out of their bid for their third Successive CIAA football championship.

The are-point lead held by the Eagles on Reggie Pryor's conversion held up as the Eagles stopped the Aggies bid for a first down on a 4th and 1 situation late in the last quarter with the ball on NCC's 41 yard line.

A Thanksgiving Day crowd of more than 8,000 spectators witnessing the 30th annual renewal of the Carolina classic at the Durham County Memorial Stadium saw the Eagles utilize sheer power as they churned out 84 yards to score their winning marker.

Pryors second convesion sailed between the goal posts to give the Eagles a 1 point margin, 14-13.

HICKS (RICHIE) scored the winning TD when he crossed the goal line from the 1 yard line on a quarterback sneak after Ray Nobles, NCC's 195-pound fullback, lugged the pigskin down to the 1 in two successive plays, a 13 yard jaunt on the first play and a 37-yarder for the second gain.

NCC opened the scoring floodgates when Pryor capped a 98-yard drive by pitching a 12-yard scoring toss to Robert Currington, soph end, in the end zone. Pryor's conversion was good, giving the Eagles first blood ahd a 7-0 lead.

Bert Piggott's Aggies, gunning for their 4th successive win over the Eagles and their third CIAA grid title, struck back moments later on a 67-yard drive with Jimmy Mitchell, A. and T. quarterback, pitching a 6-yard aerial to Eugene Cambridge in the end zone. Cambridge's conversion kick was good.

The Aggies moved into the lead with a brilliant 66 -yard punt return by Taylor.

Tenn. State mauls Kentucky, 34 to 12

MEET THE CAPTAIN — Tony Jackson, was named captain of St. John's College five this week. The 6-4 jump-shot artist and rebounding star scored 1,052 points his first two seasons with Redmen, was MVP in Holiday Festival tournament in 1958, and MVP in NIT playoffs in 1959.

NASHVILLE — A pair of talented freshmen, quarterback Frank Wynn and fullback Leon Jones, sparked the Tennessee State Big Blues to their second straight Mid-Western grid crown by mauling Kentucky State 34-12 before 6,500 sun-sprinkled homecoming fans.

Coach Howard Gentry's first-year pile driver Jones cracked the 'Thorobreds' spirit in the second quarter that paved the way for a 20-point stanza. Jones picked up 68 yards in 13 tries for game honors.

Aerial artist Wynn threw for three TDs and engineered the season's longest scoring drive, sliding halfback Hank Arnold streaked to paydirt from the 4 for the game's initial score capping this 94 yard drive.

Gentry's vengeance-bent Big Blues chalked up their sixth victory against three defeats this season and posted a perfect, 3-0, conference score in a game which gave Coach Gentry a good look at his next season's crew.

KENTUCKY'S NEAR rout gave Tennessee State possession of the crack-lipped Brown Clay Jug for another year. Kentucky is Tennessee State's oldest rival and in the 13-year history of the Little Brown Jug, the Big Blues have won crockery for 12 consecutive seasons.

Next Saturday Gentry will close his season against Jackson College in Jackson, Miss.

Benedict defeats South Carolina State

ORANGEBURG, S. C. — Pumpkins Day was a field day at Bulldog Stadium here with Robert Johnson of Benedict leading the field with five touchdowns as Benedict College scored a 38-30 victory over South Carolina State.

Johnson scored a 45-yard run in the first quarter, 79 and 37-yard runs in the second, and 65-and 57 - yard runs in the fourth quarter.

Charles Benson went in from the three-yard line for the second TD and Henry Fields took Fennell's 30-yard pass in the fourth and went the needed five yards for the seventh TD.

ROBERT POOLE and Henry Fields each added two points, following Johnson's first two TD and Fennell kicked two for the points after the other TDs.

Thomas Adams and Wendell Tucker each scored two TD for South Carolina and William Houston added the fifth for the 30 points. All attempts for the extra points by Sate failed.

Tuskegee edges Ala. State, 12-8

By J. J. JOHNSON

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — The blood thirsty Tuskegee Golden Tigers spoiled homecoming for the Alabama State Hornets here last Saturday with a 12-8 victory over the Hornets in the 37th annual "Crampton Bowl Classic" here Thanksgiving Day.

The victory was Tuskegee's seventh of the season, with two defeats and reduced the Hornets to a 5-3 season mark.

Halfbacks Harrell Moore and Frank Jones scored for Tuskegee. Washington Craig, halfback scored the lone Alabama six pointer.

Central beats Blues in finale

WILBERFORCE, Ohio — Central State College closed out its season with a 12-6 victory over Bluefield State College at Bluefield, West Virginia. The undermanned "Big Blues" put up a gallant fight before finally submitting to the Marauders.

Central scored first in the opening quarter on a 7-yard run by halfback Washington Guyton. The score was set up by the recovery of a Bluefield fumble on the Blues' 30-yard line by Marauder end Ewart Graves.

Bluefield retaliated in the second quarter when fullback Watts went over from 2 yards out. It culminated a 65-yard drive that covered 12 plays.

Central scored the deciding TD early in the third quarter on a 6-yard run by halfback James Hoskins. Central moved the ball from their own 39 to paydirt in 10 plays.

Central finished the season with its finest record since 1951 when they also finished with a 7-2 tally.

BOSTON — The possibilities for a united Africa were discussed last Sunday by the head of the Ghana delegation to the United Nations, Alex Saikey, at Boston University's Sunday Evening Protestant Program.

THIS TIME Tom Duley is hailed down but on another play, the most exciting of the afternoon, he went 85 yards for a City TD. Coming up on left are City's Aldro Richardson (75), Andrew Jackson (80) of Poly, and Thomas Brogan (65) of Poly.

CITY COLLEGE players found gang tackling the surest way to bring down Roland Savage (22) as three of them do here. Savage, voted game's most valuable player, was presented trophy at end of play.

Collegians win, increase margin

WASHINGTON

The Collegians maintained their big lead in the D.C. Amateur Football Conference last Sunday by downing the Stonewalls A. C. 29 - 0 at Banneker. The rolling Collegians are undefeated in seven outs this season.

Saturday's play in the conference saw the Saints walloping the Pioneers, 33 - 0, at the same location. The Saints gained a game in the win column but are still behind in the loss bracket.

Tonight's (Friday) play will see the Stonewalls facing the second place Cavaliers at Banneker and in Sunday's action the Collegians will meet the Saints.

Lester-Carter tiff features Coliseum card

For the second time Boom Boom Lester, the Baltimore area's top heavyweight prospect, will try to get a campaign under way to move in on the upper ranks of the division.

Promoter Benny Trotta sends the Bel Air scrapper against Harold Carter of New Jersey in the headliner of the Sports A. C., Inc., fight show Monday night, Dec. 5, at the Coliseum.

Carter at the moment is not ranked himself among the top ten. But the Jersey slugger qualifies nicely as a springboard for Boom Boom's new trial.

Two years ago, Harold stood as high as fourth among world contenders for Floyd Patterson's championship.

MILITARY service set Carter back. He is now in the midst of an upward battle to reestablish himself among the country's leading heavies. In view of his past record and his excellent chances of soon being back among the top ten, Lesterfire is relied by many observers as the stiffest assignment Lester has yet been handed.

THE SHOW is being staged by Trotta in cooperation with Frontiers Club of America's Baltimore chapter, of which Dr. Bernard Harris is president.

A disease research clinic at Howard University is to benefit.

Wilt, Baylor in torrid NBA scoring duel

NEW YORK — Despite creating a new individual scoring record for one game with 71 points, and scoring 52 points in a second game during the week, Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles, yielded the league scoring race to Wilt Chamberlain of Philadelphia, who scored 100 points in five contests to 158 tallies for Baylor who appeared in three tilts.

Chamberlain leads Baylor 549-513, but Baylor with one game less to his credit, leads average-wise 36.64-36.60. Both of the leaders are scoring at the highest rate in the 15-year history of the league.

OSCAR ROBERTSON of Cincinnati continues in 3rd place with 483 tallies against teammate Jack Twyman's 430 points. Willie Nauils of New York is next in line with 336.

Boston back court part-timer Sam Jones has jumped into the lead in the field goal percentage race, vaulting ahead of teammate Bill Sharman, who led the pack last week.

IN THE REBOUNDING department, Chamberlain has bounded well to the front with 417 grabs in fifteen games for a 27.8 average.

Baylor continues in 2nd place in the recovery race with 298 retrieves, for a 21.3 average.

Bob Pettit of St. Louis and Bill Russell of Boston continue in 3rd and 4th positions with 272 and 256 respectively.

STILL THE assistant leader, Robertson has increased his margin over Philadelphia's Guy Rodgers to 31 (133-121) and increased his per game average over the Warrior feeder 8.4-8.1.

Gene Shue jumped from 5th place to 3rd in the race, moving ahead of Richie Guerin 102-91. Arlen Bockhorn of Cincinnati remains in the first five with 83 feeds.

FEARSOME FRISCANS — Two of the most feared members of the San Francisco 49ers are halfback-end R.C. Owens (27) and fullback Joe Perry. Baltimore Colts will have to watch Owens on the vamed "alley oop" pass play, which has won several games for the West Coast eleven that invades Memorial Stadium Sunday. They'll also be plagued by the running of Perry, one of the all-time great rushers of the National Football League.

straight sellout crowd to watch the clubs in Baltimore. The Hosses have captured four of their last six games with the 49ers, including a sweep last fall and the last three at home.

FIRST PLACE has been at stake in each of the Baltimore meetings since 1957.

That year quarterback John Unitas spearheaded a fourth quarter assault that netted the Colts a 27-21 triumph. Two weeks later, however, the 49ers gained revenge on the West Coast, 17-13 and tied Detroit for the conference lead, losing to the Lions in a playoff.

THE FOLLOWING fall the Steeds overcame a 27-7 halftime deficit in Memorial Stadium to win, 35-27, and clinch their initial conference crown.

Then last season the Colts threw even with the front-running 49ers by blasting them, 45-14 in Baltimore. A subsequent 34 - 14 Steed victory in San Francisco all but nailed down the Blue and White's second successive Western title.

Willie Jones set for pro debut Friday

Willie Jones, whose name has carried a magic aura in Washington and Baltimore cage circles the past three years, gets his first shot at professional basketball tonight (Friday) at the Baltimore Coliseum.

Jones has been named by Baltimore Bullets coach Buddy Jeanette to face the Hazleton Hawks in the 1960-61 opener of the Eastern League.

WILLIE, a product of Armstrong High School, Washington, became the first tan player to compete for American University in the nation's capital. And, although the smallest man on the AU squad, he went on to amass the highest scoring record in the history of the school.

He was twice picked for the All-Mason Dixon Conference team, and twice named on the all-tournament team at the NCAA playoffs.

THE BULLETS will open with four tan athletes on their roster. Along with Jones are three holdovers from last year, Sherman White, Leroy Gibson and Charley Robinson.

The visiting Hawks also have a tan quartet — Tom (Tarzan) Spencer, who owned the 1959 season with the local five; John Chancey of Bethune - Cookman, Vince Cohen of Syracuse, and Charlie Hoxie of Niagara.

Baltimore finished second, one game behind champion Easton, in the 1959 standings. Hazelton was seventh.
