In Memoriams 1

BARNES — In loving memory of my dear husband and my devoted father, ROBERT WELLINGTON, who departed this life, November 24, 1958:

We walked together, you and I. In sorrow and in joy.
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy.
And death shall never end our love
For thru the mist I see
Our dear home in the sky—
For all eternity!

Wife, MAMIE
Daughter, BARBARA

BELL — In loving memory of my dear husband, JOSEPH E. who passed away ten years ago, November 25, 1950:

Devoted Wife, MAE BELL.

BENNET — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, HARRY E., who passed away November 25, 1953:

The memory of some one dear is like a thing of gold,
That never dulls or tarnishes or grows the worse for hold
It's a ray of sunshine that fills your life with joy
And is like a flower fair that never will cloy.
It offers consolation in the face of strife or stress
And adds a certain beauty to each day we address
The memory of someone dear, wherever you start,
Is like a soothing melody that lingers in the heart.
It is a perfect picture of a rainbow in the sky
It is a portrait of a past that cannot die.

Devoted Wife, ANNIE and HARRY, JR.

CARPENTER — In loving memory of HARRY A., who passed away three years ago, November 25, 1957:

I'll remember you, dear, while life is my theme
And the' God in His wisdom has torn us apart,

To the love and esteem that was only for you,
And I pray that when life for me is at end,
I will meet you in Heaven, my own dearest friend.
My friend and my sweetheart, my one dearest love,
God keep you and guard you in Heaven above.
