9 and the baby is a boy who is 14 months old needs a winter coat, size 4.

CASE NO. 107 — If possible I would like to get help for my children have a Merry Christmas.

I have three children The girl, 4 years old, wears size 13 shoe. The boy, 8 years old, wears size 1 shoe size 10, shirt size 15 shoes The baby boy, 2½ years old, wears size 5 shoes, 5 pants.

The reason I am asking is because I work two days a week, sometimes 3 days, and I don't get any support from the father.

I would be thankful if you would include them in your list this year.

* * *

CASE NO. 108 — Last year I was one of the families to receive $25 a week for five weeks from Manning Shaw, Inc. which I was more than thankful to receive.

Things were beginning to improve very much when on day my husband had an accident. He is under the doctor's care and had one minor operation and expects another in December.

He is taking treatment for his eyes to try to keep from losing his sight. So there is any way you can make my 12 children happy, I will be happy indeed.

Just a few toys for the smaller ones and clothes for the others. I am not asking for anything for me or my husband, but just the children.

The girls are: 13, 6, 5, 4, 3, 1 and 4 months. Boys: 12 (very tall), 10, 8.

May God bless you and I hope your generosity will be rewarded this year.

* * *

CASE NO. 109 — My husband has been out of work for a year and my children don't have anything to wear to school and we don't have the right food to eat, sometimes, nothing to eat.

My children are 9 and 10 years old (girls). The one age 10 has one artificial eye.

She is a patient at Johns Hopkins Hospital now.

Please help me with food because I know and God knows, there isn't food to eat. With your help and God's help something will be done.

I want my children to have a happy Christmas. Right now, I don't have food.

Please help me Me and my husband are not together and my children are alone.

Bless you for what you might give me.

* * *

CASE NO. 110 — My family is in great need of things. We need money to buy a new stove. The one we have is old and broken up.

The children will have no Christmas because of lack of money.

My two girls 13 and 12, need clothes to wear to school. The smaller children need shoes to wear. There is no food in the house. We need more beds for the children. I am pregnant with my baby. We can have a happy Christmas.

The nine children's sizes are, 15, 12, 11, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2.

CASE NO. 111 see separate story

CASE NO. 112 (See separate story)

* * *

CASE NO. 113 — Please help me. I have 6 children and no one working for me and I don't see anything for Santa Claus already asking what they are getting for Christmas. It hurts my heart because I can't get anything.

Their really need everything. I'm thankful to God for anything you give me to help me.

* * *

CASE NO. 114 — At this time I am a convicted for a crime which I am innocent of.

I have an expecting wife and three small children. Christmas means very little to me. Christmas would be a miserable Christmas for my family if there is anything you can do, I will always be grateful.

Their ages are girl, 4; boy, 3; and girl, 2.

Thank you.

* * *

CASE NO. 115 — My husband is not able to work because he is blind in one fury and we have 11 children Nine boys and two girls.

Christmas means very little to me because I have two girls and three boys. They are bakers and need aprons and caps. Please send them boxes in a bright Christmas. They will be happy on Christmas day and I will thank you very much.

CASE NO. 117 — Mrs. Santa I am bonus girl laid off again. He's only half work for one month since April. I have three children; two boys, ages 8 and 6, and a girl, age 4.

My boy, age 8, had polio this summer and has just been released from Kernan Hospital last week.

He'll be visited twice a week by a physical therapist. She says that he should have a tricycle for therapeutic exercise.

Will someone please help me.

* * *

CASE NO. 119 — I am a 52 year old grandfather; who has not been long out of the hospital. I am not able to work yet. I live with my daughter and her 4 children, ages 9, 6, 4, and 3.

We have two other children, ages 11, and 13, which I have cared for since their births. My daughter works only two days a week. We can give the children little but love, food, and shelter. The children need shoes and clothing.

We do have a TV set, but our electricity has been turned off for nearly a year. I cannot help but cry when I hear them wishing for "light."

I would be so thankful to you and to God if you could help me and my daughter to make it a happy Christmas for the children. Please, I beg with tears in my eyes. Thank you.

* * *

CASE NO. 120 — I am writing you about getting help for me and my two sisters. I am an out-patient at the University Hospital with heart trouble.

My oldest sister is 76 years old and gets a check from the Welfare. After she pays her share of everything church's settles left, my other sister is not working, and as for myself, I don't have any way of help or have any income coming in.

What I would like most of all is some food. I will appreciate it very much if there is anything you can do to help me.

* * *

CASE NO. 121. — I am writing for help for my five children. My husband and I are separated and I have no income, which will be appreciated. Please help them to have a Merry Christmas.

* * *

INQUIRING REPORTER

Many expect merrier Christmas this year

A large number of Baltimoreans expect this Christmas to be better for their families than last year — at least that is the outlook voiced in a spot check made by the AFRO on a downtown corner.

This is the question put to shoppers and passersby this week as they went about their business by buying gifts or just window shopping:

"Do you think this is going to be a better Christmas for you and your family than the one you had last year?"

Many based their optimism on the election and their faith that a brighter future lies ahead. Here are the answers.

MRS. OLGA WAINWIGHT, 607 Hill View Rd. — Housewife: "Yes, everyone will be home this year. All the children will be there."

MRS. EVA GREGORY, 226 Riggs Ave. housewife — "Yes, things just look prosperous. I feel that a change is going to be good. I feel good way down deep inside. I feel good!"

MRS. ANNIE BALTZEGAR, 2317 Egerton Rd. waitress — "We've all been blessed. We all have jobs. Things look like they'll really open up."

MRS. VELMA WALKER, 2529 E. Chase St. waitress — "I think so. I just have a feeling inside. Maybe, all of us feel better because we have elected a new president who'll think of the poorer people."

MISS CHRISTINE BRYANT, 2223 W. North Ave. waitress — "I think so. Since the Democrats got in, we'll have a lot to look forward to."

MRS. ADA ALLEN, 1915 Fulton Ave. waitress, — "A good man has been elected, one who will look for jobs for the poor. If we keep that in mind, we'll all have a better Christmas."

ANDREW HILL, 109 N. Denison. News dealer, — Yes. I'm fortunate not to be one of the unemployed. My jobs pays enough so that I'll have a little left over to do a little Christmas shopping this year."

WINTFORD COVINGTON, 511 Calhoun St. shopping bag salesman, — "Well, last Christmas was a good Christmas. So far this one looks like its going to be a good one, too."

JULIUS WEEHS, 2900 Pretman St. butcher's helper — "Not particularly. A lot of people have been laid off. The cost of living is getting higher. It all depends on finances."

PAUL FAIRLEY, Morgan State College student — "I am very Christmas."
