BALTIMORE AFTER DARK

On The Town

WITH THE PUB CRAWLERS

Greetings, all you gorgeous gals and gallant guys, the Crawlers are beaming your way on another set of serene sevens, bringing you happenings in our town.

Without further ado, let's swing into the grove of the late watch and dig some of the many carryings on.

Down Glen Burnie way, Herman Hill and his Jolly Jacks are blowing the house down, at Dotson's.

As you no doubt know by now, this is the winging set which took the local scene by storm before making it to the Big Town many moons ago.

Now they're back and you haven't lived until you've caught them.

• • •

WHEN GETTING back to the burg after a glimpse at Dotson's offerings, stop off at Chick's Musical Bar.

Here's why! You'll see Elsie Von, "the girl with a gimmick;" Mari Jay, "Turkish Twister," and Ameda, "Chi Whirlwind," a more formidable collection of squirmers you've never seen.

They are backed by Flink Johnson on stage and the whaling Mickey Fields orchestra. And ain't that something to see?

Gliding over to the sunrise of the Big B, Crawlers find that Floyd Bartz and partners Irvin Sutton and Jimmy Carroll are out doing themselves.

This trio of guys with ideas are presenting for your enjoyment the sensational Jazz Singers.

Serving as backdrop will be the silken voiced Herman Hawkins and the modern sounds of Gary Bartz and his jazzmen.

While on the Eastside, stop in at the new and gay spot just bursting on the scene, Billie's show Bar, 714 S. Broadway.

• • •

STARTING NEXT week is the Gala Harlem Revnue, featuring Mae Williams and her chorus charmers.

A short distance away, 403 N. Gay St., the Hi-Ball Cafe, is throwing a fabulous shinding.

And, if you'll take the ad of today's AFRO, Sis, the barmaid, will lay a gift on you.

• • •

GETTING BACK to the sundown side of the monuments, you will find that Ruby Glover, Red Foy, is still much too much. With the equally way out Count Lantz and his Koooool Men, thrown in, well, what more can you ask?

Popular Grove St. is swingingly lively these darks and brights, and no wonder.

First there's the Carnival Lounge and its atmosphere for pleasure. The house is currently under the spell of the Mell-O-Jacks, and no wonder there's a whole lot of pleasure.

Down the street away, Lucky Number, Watty and Richard Dixon have combined efforts to make you glad you came.

While Watty, Shirley, Mae take care in quencing your thirst, Dick tickles your palate with delicacies.

In his 24 years as a navy Chief Steward Dick has cornered the secrets on fine fixings around the world. It's your turn to try them now.

Claude Grant and his organ trio are currently holding forth at the Avenue Bar. Beginning next week, Sonny Til brings in his musical revue.

• • •

THE CRAWLERS welcome a nice, new bunch of gaylifers to the late stroll. You'll find them at the Little Bar, 708 S. Fremont Ave., where the Jaguars are currently furnishing the entertainment.

There's still a whole lot of stomping at Knotty Pine. Earl O'maro and his trio make sure it stays that way.

Cupid also stuck his head among the brigade of barmaids there.

The former foursome of Rheta, Susie, Betty and Lula is now a trio.

Lula having been "hooked" with the happy paws of matrimony.

Wendell Wilson and his Vilma are doing their share of relaxing Baltimore after dark.

This is where both oldtimers and youngbloods meet and greet and have one whale of a time while doing it.

Jitterbug and Thee Jones, Jones Cocktail Lounge, Lanvale and Fulton, await, your visit. The place is cozy and quiet, but fun abounds everywhere.

Incidentally, while wheeling over the Viaduct, drop off at the Rally Club, just up Gay St. from Orleans.

You'll enjoy the swinging music of Dave Sanders and his combo. And too, Deloris, Loretta and Jane will take good care of you, and that's no joke.

That's it . . . we'll be looking for you.

Dear friends in the brotherhood of God through the love of Jesus Christ and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. We ask the aid and cooperation of all friends in encouraging their children to attend Sunday Sunday school of their choice. We feel this early training in the teaching of Christ is an investment that will contribute greatly to the future happiness of both parent and child. It is up to us, the people of God, to begin such a movement NOW. May the inspiration of the Holy Spirit bless the people of all races and go with us, in this our chosen endeavor.

Arthur Ashe Takes Junior Net Title

17-year-old ATA protege national indoor champion

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Arthur Ashe Jr., 17 - year - old protege of Dr. R. W. (Whirlwind) Johnson and the American Tennis Association's Youth Development Program, is the new national indoor tennis champion.

The young Richmond, Va., phenom, now a senior at Sumner High School here, won the title Sunday in a four - out - of - a-half-hour final match with top - seeded Frank Froehling of San Antonio, Texas.

• • •

A CAPACITY crowd at 138th Infantry Armory saw Ashe defeat Froehling, 6 - 4, 16 - 14, 9 - 11, 3 - 6, 6 - 1, t obecome the first colored junior title-holder in the history of the Association.

Froehling is a freshman at Trinity University and considered one of the brightest young players in the country.

Last summer, Arthur, despite his youth, captured both the juniors' and men's singles crowns in the ATA national tournament at Hampton, Va.

He also took junior honors in the USLTA's Middle Atlantic section.

• • •

AFTER ASHE'S gruelling, four-and-a-half-hour match, you almost would have thought it was Froehling who had won and not the 17-year-old youth who came here from Richmond, Va., only about three months ago.

Ashe appeared almost forlorn as he huddled in a chair, munching a sandwich, in the empty, temporary sleeping room at the armory. Meanwhile, in the nearby lobby, Froehling was surrounded by spectators.

• • •

BUT WHILE Froehling may have drawn some sympathetic fans, Ashe, sitting alone in the sleeping room for out - of - town participants, had drawn new prestige by beating the young man who may be rated the No. 2 junior in this year's U.S.L.T.A. rankings.

Probably Ashe was off by himself because of the fans' respect for his dedicated concentration, verging almost on aloofness.

• • •

ASHE NO W will take about three weeks off before returning to tournament tennis, in the juniors' division at the Orange Bowl event Dec. 24 - 31 in Miami, Fla.

New coach at helm as Morgan 5 bows

Morgan State College, on the verge of her second sports season under a new head coach, opens the 1960 - 61 basketball campaign tonight (Friday) at 8 o'clock at the E. P. Hurt gym.

Howard K. (Brutus) Wilson, himself a former cage star at the Hillen Road institution, leads the Bears into competition with St. Paul.

• • •

WILSON IS beginning his first term as head coach of the Bruins, having succeeded Talmadge (Marse) Hill, who gave up the post at the conclusion of the 1959 - 60 season last February.

The football team operated under a new coach during the post fall. Earl Banks having replaced Eddie Hurt at the helm of the gridiron Bears.

• • •

ST. PAUL also arrives under a new coach, Robert (Spook) Smith, another former great at Morgan, took over the athletic reins at the Lawrenceville, Va., college last September.

Wilson has been serving as assistant to Hill the past three years. He previously coached at Shaw University, Raleigh, N.C.

Smith gained considerable prestige during a ten - year career as all - sports coach at Burley High School, Charlottesville, Va.

• • •

FORTIFIED WITH seven players from last year's squad, Wilson has seven others who show up as potential good ballplayers to round out a well-balanced team.

Harry Johnson, who scored a total of 468 points last year in 23 games is back and looking better than ever. Last year Johnson racked up 46 points in one game.

Cecil Bond will captain the team this year as he did last season. Coach Wilson earmarked Nathan Murphy, also of last year's team, the most improved player on the club.

Others from last year's team are James Hill, Robert Jackson, Ira Ray and Barry Simms.

• • •

NEWCOMERS ARE Charles Carlies; who made the Army All - Service Team in Germany, Elmer Holliday, an outstanding fast shot, and Charles Leach.

The latter, a freshman from Dunbar High School who in Coach Wilson's opinion is the best all - around basketball player to come out of Baltimore High Schools in the past five years.

BRUTUS WILSON

Ingo steps up training for Floyd

GOTEBORG, Sweden (ANP) —Former heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson is reported in heavy training for his third championship match with Floyd Patterson shortly.

While no definite date has yet been set, the match, tentatively slated for New York City, is expected to take place late in March. If it does, it will be the first time but was himself knocked out in the rematch by Floyd, who became the first man ever to regain the heavyweight title.

Seeks foe for Gilden on Lester-Carter card

A new opponent is needed for Johnny Gilden and match maker Sylvan Bass is looking around carefully.

The popular East Baltimore scrapper was to have fought Sweetcakes Brownlee of Harrisburg in the semi-windup of the Sports A.C.'s fight card Monday night at the Coliseum, but the Brownlee was injured in a bout last week.

Gilden, winner of 14 of 15 pro outings, is on the verge of attaining main event ranking here and might have earned it with a repeat over Brownlee. Johnny whipped the veteran of 200 battles in a fine showing several weeks ago at the Coliseum.

• • •

THE MAIN event remains intact, however, as a heavyweight match pitting Boom Boom Lester of Bel Air, Baltimore's chief ring prospect of the moment, and Harold Carter of Linden, N.J.

Carter had reached eminence as high as fourth place in the top ten rankings before being tapped for two years' military service.

Now returned to regular action, the Jerseyite is deemed by his stable as well on his way back into the upper strata. He looks tougher than anything Lester has yet seen.

Promoter Benny Trotta is staging the show as a benefit in cooperation with the Frontiers Club of America.
