CHURCHES PREACH BROTHERHOOD AND PRACTICE INTOLERANCE

Bishop James A. Pike indicts—in Look Magazine—the Christian Church for not practicing what it preaches. Pike charges that "Many 'righteous pillars' of the church fear the 'lily-white' composition of the congregation may be disturbed." What does Pike say about integration of Roman Catholic schools in New Orleans? And how has the fear of integration helped the growth of Protestant day schools? Bishop Pike, in his outspoken LOOK article, CHRISTIANITY IS IN RETREAT, strikes at the decline of Christian ethics, talks about "white-collar" theft and graft, and hits out at lack of courage in the clergy. It's in the issue of LOOK at your newsstands now.

END OF LANDMARK — An early morning fire on Tuesday destroyed Stern's Variety Store, 1111 to 1119 Laurens St. This was the scene at the height of the blaze, a five alarmer. Thirty - nine pieces of equipment were called to the scene between 12:10 a.m., when the first alarm was sounded, and 12:48 a.m. Firemen battled the blaze for more than six hours to bring the fire under control. They fought the fire from surrounding rooftops and from the street and alley. No one was injured. Photo by Reid Abney.

THE MORNING AFTER — This is how the store looked after the blaze had been extinguished. The store was a landmark in the area and was known as "Ida's." The top two floors of the three-story building were used for storing appliances and other stocks.

Restaurant to welcome all Jan, 1

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — the Terminal Restaurant, in the A. and B. Terminal Building, here, will drop its color bar effective Jan. 1.

The agreement was reached following negotiations between Mike Kokinos, restaurant operator, and a group of interested citizens, Dec. 1.

In announcing the agreement, Dr. Theodore H. Johnson, president, Annapolis Branch NAACP, said it would not be affected by a recent U.S. Supreme Court ruling.

On Dec. 5, the nation's highest tribunal ruled that restaurants similar to Terminal catering to interstate passengers are forbidden to segregate on basis of color.

• • •

FIVE ANNAPOLIS leaders were arrested at the restaurant Nov. 25, while staging a sit - in demonstration.

At a hearing in Trial Magistrate Court, Nov. 28, the citizens were granted jury trials and freed on bail.

Dr. Johnson said Mr. Kokinos reuested the four weeks to allow him time to drop charges against the adult sitdowners and secure releases, exempting him from further legal action resulting from the arrests.

Those awaiting court action when the agreement was reached were:

Miss Marita Carroll, 422 Chester Ave., and Mrs. Ethel Thompson, 807 Bayridge Ave., both teachers at the Parole Elementary School;

Also Dr. Samuel P. Callahan, 20 Dean St., dentist; William H. Johnson, 809 Carroll Ave., and Lacey McKinney, 102 W. Washington St., both businessmen.

Mr. Kikinos withheld comment on the agreement, this week.

• • •

DR. JOHNSON said Annapolis citizens are now concentrating their efforts on other restaurants still practicing segregation.

Several other restaurants, the physician reported, have no color bars.

Among them are The Little Tavern, who changed its policy voluntarily last week.

Other Bay area restaurants serving all were listed as:

The Treadway, Main St., near the Circle; Carver Hall, across the street from Naval Academy, and the Captain's Table, Baybridge Rd.

Ex-Philadelphian given Akron post

AKRON, Ohio — William J Davis, attorney and long-time resident of Philadelphia, was appointed assistant city law director here Thursday, by Mayor Leo Berg.

Davis, a well - known trial lawyer, has been assigned to the police prosecutor's office. Davis holds a B.A. Magna Cum Laude and an M.A. in Public Administration from Howard University.

He received his law degree in 1949 from the University of Pennsylvania. Since 1952, he has practiced in Northern Ohio.
