Gadabouting—In Baltimore

Schmidt Co. party pleases 900 guests

with Lula Jones Garrett

Goodwill towards all men.

And party - wise there was no better example of this Christmas wish than the company party given by the Schmidt Baking Company on Saturday night.

Close to 900 employees and members of employees' families gathered in the Carey St plant for the fun - fest eve.

A huge Christmas tree banked with gifts held the interest of not only the youngsters but the elders as well. For there were gifts for all.

Caterers kept the food and drink flowing, and the Rivets Chambers orchestra provided the music.

The teenagers turned to the jitterbug with a new sort of jerk . . . the Madison dred a line or two, but when some put on a special exhibition of the shimmy with the twist . . . that was for standing and looking.

The more mature parents were content with keeping herd on the little guests, who charged around with arms filled with dolls, trucks, trains, horns, admired and hugged each other indiscriminately with all the innocence and zest of childhood.

And one of the littlest guests was six - week - old Dwayne Gibson, new son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gibson, of Vineyard Lane, who was making his first public appearance.

Of course there were "old hands" at the party including Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Henson, who came, fetching 10 of their 11 children, the youngest of whom was three year - old Michelle. The oldest son, Irvin Jr., 26, is serving in the Air Force.

Mr. Henson, incidentally, has been with the Schmidt Company for 27 years. Oldest employee, in point of service, was Huey Lynn, who has a 41-year record. He's a machinist in the wrapping division.

Adored by all of the kiddies is petit Mrs. Carl P. Schmidt, wife of the president, who laughs, plays, kids and dances with all of the children, or at least as many as she can get around to. And it's Mr. Schmidt who they think is Santa, himself . . . although there is always a uniformed Santa Claus.

And I think he's a pretty good Santa Claus, too, when it comes to putting a solid peg in the course of humanity. He just handed a word down, without any quibbling, and there became one Schmidt Christmas party.

Official host and man behind the high project is Joseph Walong of the staff.

The Baltimore chapter of Moles gathered in the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. Edward McDaniels on Saturday evening.

Initiation of a trio of the town's most popular femmes was the business of the evening . . . this to be followed by a Christmas party at which the "Moles" (husbands of Moles) and friends were guests.

The decor, of course, took on the Christmas motif . . . . . with a hugh tree lending its twinkling interest throughout the evening.

The initiation was conducted by chapter president, Florence Bailey. The national president, Bernie Hill of Richmond sent congratulations to the newest members, and, the ceremony over, Moles toasted their new sisters in Champagne.

Helen Queen took on the role of Mrs. Santa Claus to expedite the exchange of gifts . . . and the girls filled in the time until the fellows arrived with Yuletide music and popular ballads.

Inducted were Helena Hall, Beatrice Wright and Mary Pitts.

The party was an eye - filling affair. Mrs. Bailey chose a green and white satin mudpe jeweled. Carolyn Stubbs was stunning in shocking pink, and Blanche Beckham elegant in a champagne sheath draped at the side and studded with jewels.

Bea Wright was smart in one of her own designs, a white lace highlighted with a high turquoise velvet rose and matching shoes and jewelry.

Mary McPherson wore blue chiffon and lace with multicolored shoes, and Jackie Spencer selected a bare-topped white silk sheath with a hemline pouf. Jo Rogers was sophisticated in black lace, while Mary Pitts chose mink - trimmed white wool.

Husbands and guests about included Robert Bailey, Paul Beckham, Glenford Dudley, Dr. A. U. Forte, Dr. Edward McDaniels, Randolph Dorsey, Donavan Queen, Cal Sandifer, David Wright, Dr. Nathan Pitts, Roland Williams, Irving Lockerman and Wesley Stubbs.

CHRISTMAS PRESENT on Dec. 25, 1958, was Vonda Johnson, 4006 Wabash Ave., who celebrates her second birthday on Sunday, Christmas Day. A surprise to her parents two years ago, she was expected in January. William T. Johnson, IBM Corp employee, is her father. Mother is Mrs. Mary Johnson, a clerk. Vonda has a brother, Broderick, age 4, who was born Dec. 12, 1956.

THOSE SWEET young things . . . this year's crop of Me - De - So debutantes, and their parents were entertained by the club at one of the prettiest of Christmas parties held on the local scene.

They were guests at the Me-De-So Club, Sunday evening, where a beautiful tree and exceptional decorations lent the proper air for such a party.

And they were so-o-o pretty: lovely Sylvia Julian, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Julian, demure in a black and white silk frock and a little feather hat; June Lottier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lottier, a picture in red velvet; Joy Edemy in a pert ensemble of black velvet skirt 'neath a white top.

Sheila Mallory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Mallory, wore pale gold wool and little Dale Covington, daughter of the Charles Covingtons, in pink faille suit.

And this could go on for the entire 22, who will make their bows this spring.

Missing on Sunday was Lillian Tureman, who was still at Talladega College. But her parents, Dr. and Mrs. James Tureman of Washington were present. Also absent was Stephanie LaForest, daughter of Mrs. Esther LaForest and Dr. Albert LaForest, who is in Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

The debutantes were welcomed by Me-De-So Club president, Dr. Gilbert Banfield and the president of the Me-De-So Wives, Mrs. Charles Campbell. Dr. LaForest, who is cotillion chairman, spoke to the group as did the directress, Miss Gwendolyn Biddle. Each debutante received a wrist corsage which had her name on it.

And then from a table, gay in red apron and filled with hors oeuvres, candies, nuts, and ices, the latter bearing tiny red candles, the guests were served.

Later in the evening the Me - De - Sos and their wives had their annual closed party, and if you should wonder, those stacks of gifts under the tree were not decorations but presents exchanged by club members.

THE WE WIVES met with Mae Dyson Tuesday night, for their Christmas Party and exchange of gifts.

Previously, they had arranged to spend their time wrapping gifts for Mental Health as they have done in previous years, but the snow cancelled the project.

Josephine Brown, vice-president, presided. Verniece Reynolds, president, being in Washington for a family wedding.

Mae's decorations were in the Christmas theme from the tree in the club room to her table which she had spread with a colorful green cloth topped with a holly centerpiece.

Ruby Reid stopped in for a minute on her way to visit Leonard, ill at University Hospital. The group heard from Anita Hawkins, now making her home in New York.

About were:

Marjorie Prout, Ada Weaver, Iris Mapp, Ida Smith, Agnes Reaves, Bettye Phillips, Lillian Ross, Adelle Foreman and Margaret Ilyte.

IT TOOK more than a mere snowstorm to deter the V.A. Hospital Committee of Pi Beta Sigma sorority from their appointed task. During the past four years this group has been visiting patients at the Loch Raven V.A. Hospital and sponsoring special projects.

This month's project was a Christmas Party for the patients on Ward 3-B. The girls took out snow chains and boots and entertained the fellows with coffee, sandwiches, small games and chatter.

Members of this committee are: Marter Carter Smith, chairman, Marie Berry, Nancy Berry, Ruth Fauntleroy, Joyce Blanchard and Joan Simmons. Also attending was a neophyte, Esther Harcum.

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results—here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability "to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids—without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research foundation. This substance is now obtainable in rectal suppository form under the name of Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H® Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H® Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

Parks struts its STUFF(ing!)

...with a recipe to make you strut your stuff every time you "talk turkey"!

When your youngsters join in the kiddie chorus, "More Parks Sausages, Mom!" . . . they'll love 'em in a wonderful, new way in Parks Savory Stuffing. Everybody'll love the tantalizin' flavor of Parks Hot 'n Sagey Sausage in this "talk of the table" recipe.

PARKS SAVORY STUFFING

(For 12 pound bird)

2 qts. fine bread crumbs (1 soft white— 1 corn bread)
1 lb. Parks Hot 'n Sagey Sausage
1 cup onion, chopped
1 cup celery, chopped
½ cup green pepper, chopped
2 tbsp. salt (about)
2 eggs, well-beaten
Liquid from giblets or warm water to moisten

1. Crumble sausage in large skillet and brown lightly, pouring off drippings as it collects, but leaving about 4 tablespoons. 2. Add vegetables and saute slowly until they are clear, but not brown. 3. Toss bread with salt and eggs and mixture of sausage and vegetables. 4. Toss lightly—sprinkle with liquid and mix. You want the stuffing just moist enough to hold a loose ball when you form it with your hand.

NOTE — The same recipe, using Parks Famous-Flavor Sausage, will provide a mild-seasoned dressing.

More Parks Sausages, Mom!
