Zoning prohibits 3-family locations

Requests to allow the housing of three families at 1017 N. Arlington Ave., and at 1207 N. Broadway were rejected Tuesday by the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals.

Postponed until Jan. 10 was a hearing on a negative appeal to prohibit a basement public launderette at 2401 Arunah Ave.

Next scheduled hearings are Jan. 3, when among the cases is one asking permission to allow a first floor rear beauty shop at 1400 N. Mount St.

DUG GET THAT BREAK IN "BUTTERFIELD 8"?

Two aspiring young actresses won that long-awaited "break" in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Butterfield 8," now playing at the Harlem, film version of the John O'Hara novel, which was filmed entirely in New York City and nearby areas.

Joan Benedict, stand-in for Elizabeth Taylor, was selected by Director Daniel Mann for the role of a receptionist in a psychiatrists' office.

Margaret Findlay, whose normal job on a movie set is as an attending registered nurse, was given the role of a waitress in a diner.

Together with Elizabeth Taylor, the cast of "Butterfield 8" stars Laurence Harvey, Eddie Fisher and Dina Merrill.

DASSIN-MERCOURI IN SECOND FILM

"Never On Sunday," a sparkling comedy of modern Greece, stars the sensational international star Melina Mercouri with Jules Dassin, who also directed and produced the film, but this is not the first time the two have appeared together in a picture. "Never On Sunday," a Lopert Pictures Presentation, opens Christmas Day at the Met Theatre.

"Never On Sunday" is a lusty comedy about a girl named Illia, who is the delight of the port city of Piraeus.

She is completely a happy woman until the day an American, played by Dassin, arrives in the city. He tries to teach her the "better" things in life — and the results are hilarious.

The ancient land of Thebes in Greece, which has provided the world with many legendary heroes — Hercules, Jason who found the Golden Fleece ·Theseus who slew the Minotaur, brings forth a new and fascinating figure — Emilius the Mighty — known to his followers as Goliath.

GIRL OF NIGHT PLAY AT MET

A provocative social psychoanalytical study of a contemporary problem forms the basis for "Girl of the Night" now on an adults only bill at the Royal — Second attraction is "The Crowded Sky".

Anne Francis stars in "Girl of the Night" with Lloyd Nolar portraying the analyst who attempts to guide her back to a more normal way of life. Kay Medford and John Keer are also starred as a worldly woman and the young man who lives off of Miss Francis and her earnings.

"Girl of the Night" was based on the Ph.D. thesis prepared by Dr. Harold Greenwald at Columbia University and subsequently published as "Call The Girl," immediately becoming a non-fiction best seller.

be aired over Radio Station WEBB between 10:15 a.m. and 11:45 a.m.

CHILDREN WHO will attend the gala show have been selected from the needy families that have appealed to the AFRO's Mrs. Santa for help at Christmas.

Featured in the spectacular production will be some of the best talent in town, led by the popular and suave disc jockey from WEBB, dynamic Sammy Jay.

Young Sammy could no doubt turn in a show of his own, but he will be joined by a number of other outstanding artists who will do their utmost to make this Christmas party one the children will remember for a long, long time.

THE LIST of entertainers who have donated their services reads like a Who's Who in Baltimore Show Business.

There will be not one, but two groups to provide the rocking and rolling music. One group is the Bim Bam Boo Trio, headed by the terrific Cornell Muldrow, and the other is the Jolly Jax Trio, with romping Herman Hill as the man at the wheel.

Music is the speciality of these groups, and music of a jumping kind is what they will be providing for the youngsters.

The vocal type of music won't be neglected, and indeed how could it be, when a group such as the Surgeons are at hand.

These young fellows, who have created quite a storm of excitement on the strength of their recent performances, have promised to unveil some new vocal delights for the audience.

ON A different note will be the traditional Christmas Carols to be sung by the Youth Choir from New Bethel Christian Community Church.

The kids have been hard at rehearsal all week long, and come Saturday they'll be ready to go.

Still on the music kick will be the saxophone solos of a young man, Benjamin Barksdale, who will be blowing up a storm.

There will also be two outstanding variety acts on the bill.

One of them is a tumbling team from the YMCA and the second will be young George Peck Jr., a magician of real promise.

And if that isn't enough, the AFRO's Mrs. Santa will be on hand to say a few words to the youngsters.

Then, to really put the icing on the cake, the Manning Shaw Realty Co. will see to it that each and every youngster receives a box of candy as a Christmas gift.

THE SHOW is being made possible through the generosity of the performers, who have donated their services, and the Regent Theatre management, which every year opens its doors to the party and provides a film.

Transportation to and from the theatre will offer no problem, because the Baltimore Transit Co. has provided free bus tickets for every child.

Mrs. Santa wishes that everyone could be present at the show, but knowing this is impossible, she invites those of you who won't be there to dial Station WEBB tomorrow (Saturday) between 10:15 and 11:45 a.m. for portions of the show.
