Ashe Tops In 2 Net Classes

ORANGEBRG, S.C. — Arthur Ashe Jr., of Richmond, Va., is ranked as the No. 1 player in the men's singles.

This is a feat unprecedented in the annals of the American Tennis Association for a junior player to win the top spot in both events.

The top spot in the women's singles went to a newcomer, born of Polish parentage in Nicaragua, Mimi Kanarek of New York, N.Y.

These are among the features of the 1960 rankings of the American Tennis Association released this week by its president, Dr. Hubert Eaton of Wilmington, N.C.

FOLLOWING ASHE in the men's singles are two former champions, George Stewart of Washington, D.C. at No. 2, and Wilbur Davis of New York at No. 3 with Wilbur Jenkins of St. Louis, Mo., in the fourth spot.

Darnella Everson of Detroit garnered the second ranking in the women's singles. Arvelia Mitchell of New York and Gwen McEvans from Wilberforce are third and fourth respectively.

'Double-D' formation puts Eagles on NFL throne

By SAM LACY

PHILADELPHIA — The Philadelphia Eagles used a 'Double - D' formation to gain the championship of the National Football League here Monday afternoon.

The combination of a superb defense and brilliant running by Ted Dean, a rookie from nearby Radnor, Pa., were two of the leading factors in the Eagles' 17-13 victory over the Green Bay Packers on the snow-rimmed gridiron of Franklin Field.

GREEN BAY coach Vince Lombardi conceded after the game that Dean and the defense did the trick. And 67,252 witnesses agreed.

Reached at his hotel late Monday evening, Lombardi, who ranks with Baltimore's Webb Ewbank as one of pro football's more affable coaches, said:

"Dean actually broke our back. His kickoff return after we went ahead was the biggest thing that happened for them. It was undoubtedly the turning point of the game."

THE HESPECTACLED Packers tutor was referring to the fourth quarter run back by the former Wichita University halfback, in which he raced 58 yards to the Green Bay 39. It came on the ensuing kickoff after the Packers had scored on a pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee to go in front, 13-10.

Dean, running from fullback as replacement for the injured Clarence Peaks, pulled the ball in on his own 8-yard line. He charged up the middle to take advantage of the initial blocking by the big Philadelphia linemen, veered slightly to his left and kept running.

At midfield, he slowed momentarily to feint a would-be tackler out of position, and got an additional 11 yards before being nudged out of bounds by Willie Wood, a former Washington (D.C.) schoolboy star who played collegiate ball at Southern California.

"THAT RUNBACK by Dean picked them (the Eagles) up," said Lombardi. "If we had stopped him earlier, it would have been a different story.

"Our scoring late in the game like that, had them down. They needed the psychological lift his runback gave 'em."

LOMBARDI went on to admit that Norm Van Brocklin had much to do with the Philadelphia victory. His quarterbacking was of its usual superb quality, and without him the Eagles attack would have sputtered ineffectively.

"There were some surprises for us, though," said the Green Bay coach. "We hadn't expected them to show us the running strength, and we thought they'd have trouble defensing our running game."

"ALL OUR scouting reports prepared us for trouble in the air — going and coming. (The Eagles are notoriously strong in both passing offense and defense). But we weren't looking for them to be as stubborn on the ground.

"Dean and (Billy) Barnes do just enough running to keep you aware of the running threat. And those two, in the hands of the Dutchman (Van Brocklin), can do a lot of damage."

"Defensively, (Chuck) Bednarik and (Tom) Brookshier were the key men. I don't know how you could separate those fellows. The bad footing hurt us, but they hurt us more. We just couldn't get rid of them."

A REVIEW of the contest discloses that the 220 - pound freshman fullback was along with Van Brocklin — a key to the winning offense. For it was Dean who actually set up the first Philadelphia score, then set up and tallied the deciding TD.

Ted took a 22 - yard pass that gave the Eagles a first down on the Green Bay 19, and led to the field goal by Bobby Walston that made a 10-6 lead for his mates.

And it was his 58 - yard kickoff return that opened the final Philadelphia drive which culminated in his 5 - yard thrust for the touchdown.

DEAN, who was second to Detroit end Gail Cogdill in the Sporting News' "rookie of the year" balloting, handled the kickoff chores for the Eagles as well as sharing the running duties with Tim Brown. His first kickoff boomed into the snowbank beyond the goal post, bringing a crescendo of "Oohs" from the assemblage.

There is no disputing the fact it was a truly big afternoon for the 6 - foot - 2, 22-year-old Pennsylvanian.

Matson and Bass finish high in Rams' ratings

LOS ANGELES — (ANP) — Ollie Matson, the man for whom the Los Angeles Rams "traded a team", has proven himself to be an important factor in the upsurge of the team this past season.

Used both on offense and defense, Matson, a fullback with the elusiveness of a matador, and his rookie teammate, Dick Bass, have been among the leaders for the Rams in several departments this season.

ACCORDING to statistics sent to the Associated Negro Press by the Rams, Matson finished high in the following departments:

He was fourth in rushing, with a total of 170 yards with a 2.78 average and one touchdown; fifth in pass receptions with 15 for 98 yards and a 6.60-average and second in punt returns with nine for 216 yards and an average of 24.000.

BASS WAS first in punt returns with a total of 11 for 62 yards and an average of 5.63; third in kickoff returns with 11, good for 246 yards and an average of 22.36, and fifth in rushing with a total of 153 yards.

According to Coach Weeb Eubank, both Matson and Bass, who played his collegiate ball with College of Pacific, played major roles in helping to reverse an early season losing trend for the Rams.

1st interrace title match for Florida

NEW YORK — (ANP) — The first interracial heavyweight championship bout in the history of the State of Florida will be staged in Miami Beach Friday night, when Floyd Patterson, defends his title against Ingemar Johansson of Sweden in their long-awaited rematch.

The 15-round bout, the first heavyweight title match to be staged indoors since Nov. 30, 1956, when Patterson knocked out Archie Moore to become the world champion, will be promoted by Humbert (Jack) Fugazy, executive director of Feature Sports, Inc.

Fugazy, who wanted the fight to be staged at Madison Squire Garden in New York City, said Miami Beach won the bout when William Macdonald, wealthy sportsman and a former Chicagoan, outbidded all competitors.

MacDonald, who owns the Miami Marlins, a baseball team of the International League, acted on behalf of a group of local citizens in guaranteeing the promotion between $400,000 to $500,000 for the fight.

Thus, an ex-Yankee played the leading role in bringing the "mixed" bout to a "deep south" city.

DRAFTED BY COLTS — The Baltimore Colts, in search of a solid end to back up Jim Mutscheller and Raymond Berry, both injured, plucked E. A. Sims of New Mexico State College in the NFL draft of Philadelphia. Sims, 6-2 and 208 pounds, from Abilene, Texas. Good receiver, fine blocker and fast.

Most enjoyable was the Christmas program presented by the office practice class of Dr. Dunbar Evening High School, Henry W. Hofsey, principal.

The program was held last Tuesday. The class instructor is Miss Anna G. Bennett.

Presiding was Mrs. Inez Jackson, class representative, who did a grand job.

The evening's entertainment opened with a vocal selection sung by Augustus J. Holsey, followed by square and folk dancing by class members.

Highlight of the affair was the presentation made by class representatives Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Mattie L. Walker, to Mr. Hofsey. This was the project of Mesdames Jackson and Gloria Smith.

The second part of the program featured a solo by Mr. Holsey. Then followed the Christmas message delivered by the Rev. Edward C. Carroll, pastor of Shar St. Methodist Church.

Others responsible for making the program a huge success were Mrs. Annie Laurie Williams, former student of Bostom University School of Applied Art, who was the piano accompanist, and Miss Marzetta C. Bailey, assistant to the director of the Sharp St. Community House.

Members of the dancing group were: Portia Rawlings, Patricia Rawlings, Betty Bennett, Burnetta Johnson, Irma Taylor, Katherine Bennett, Travzanna Beverly and Juanita Wilkens.

All-Eastern track meet to add 800 more seats

BALTIMORE — Officials of the All-Eastern Invitational Indoor Games to be held in the 5th Regiment Armory on Saturday, January 7, announced today that 800 bleacher seats will be added for the 15th annual track meet.

Fred Leidig, co-director of the meet along with Bill Jimenson, said the additional seats are being acquired this year primarily because of the 1960 meet.

"The 14th All-Eastern became so attractive to fans that a last minute rush on the gate developed into a standroom-only crowd," Leidig explained.

"Last January we were astounded that nearly 1,000 people stood for almost three (3) hours to watch the meet," Leidig continued. "We hope the additional seats will permit some of these folks to be more comfortable."

The 800 bleacher seats will be on the main floor of the Armory, and Leidig said tickets for this location will sell for $2 apiece. All balcony chairs will again be priced at $1.

JOHN W. SAUNDERS

Dr. F. Saunders father dies on 90th birthday

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Perkins Square Baptist Church for John W. Saunders, 338 Aisquith St., who died Dec. 24, his birthday, at the age of 90 years.

Mr. Saunders was the father of Dr. Frank A. Saunders, physician, and Joseph W. Saunders, both of Baltimore.

He was born Dec. 24, 1870 at Fort Royal, Caroline Co., Va.

Mr. Saunders was reared by his grandmother, the late Mrs. Caroline Gray, and educated in the Fort Royal schools.

IN BALTIMORE, he was employed as a concessionaire on the Emma Giles steamer for many years.

His wife, Mrs. Hattie Scott Hill, died on Palm Sunday, March 20, 1932.

Mr. Saunders was a member of the Perkins Square Church 55 years and served as president of the Baptist Young People's Union, a member of the Senior Choir, and taught Sunday School various times.

He was a member of the Falcon Rod and Gun Club.

Surviving are his sons, Dr. Saunders and Mr. Joseph W. Saunders; daughters, Mrs. Edith Saunders and Mrs. Marguerite Saunders; four grandchildren, Mrs. Alfred Cornish, Mrs. Margaret Carroll, Mrs. Irene Bush and Orlando Saunders; five great grandchildren and two great, great grandchildren.

Mrs. C. Richardson

Funeral services will be held Sunday, Jan. 1 at Springfield Baptist Church, Zion, Va., for Mrs. Carrie Richardson, 74, 2221 Penrose Ave., who died Tuesday at City Hospitals.

Friends may call at the funeral home in the 1300 block Pressman St., from 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Richardson had been ill since July. She was a lifelong member of the church.

Surviving are two sons, Henry and William Richardson, two daughters, Mrs. Edith H. Banks, Miss Dorothy Richardson; a foster daughter, Mrs. Cornelia F. Burns; a niece, Mrs. Ida James; two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Elvera Richardson and Mrs. Ethel Richardson.

Mrs. H. Westbrook

Funeral services are being held today, (Friday,) at 1 p.m. at First Baptist Church, Fairfield, Md., for Mrs. Hattie Roland Westbrook, 82, who died at her home, 3209 Sun St., on Monday.

Mrs. Westbrook was a deaconess of the First Baptist Church and a member there since 1917.

She was born Sept. 1, 1878 in Atlanta, Ga. She and her husband, the late Julius O. Westbrook, were married 60 years. He died in 1936.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Irma James, (Mrs. L. Bradford James), Miss Ethel Westbrook, Mrs. Margaret Bracey, Mrs. Philbina Mrs. Louise Howard, Marley, Md.; Mrs. Willie Howard, Baltimore.

Also, two sons, James Westbrook and John Westbrook, Fairfield, Md.; eight grandchildren, two great, great grandchildren and nieces and nephews.

In Memoriams 1

JONES — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, CLYDE JONES who passed away January 4, 1960.
Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee.
Oh, how I miss you, CLYDE, dear.
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true.
For the longer you have passed,
And my heart still aches for you.
Wife, PEARL
and CHILDREN

SNOWDEN — In loving memory of my dear husband, HERMAN G. who passed away December 30, 1959.
Dear husband if I shed a secret tear,
And often breathe a sigh,
Forgive me for I miss you more
As another year goes by.
Loving Wife, VERIS

Mrs. Emily Hardie and family wish to express their gratitude to friends, neighbors and organizations for floral designs, cards, prayers and sympathy expressed in every way during their recent bereavement in the passing of their loved one, Mr. Lewis Lewis Challe. Special thanks to Morticians Charles B. Lewis and Aristocrat Funeral Home for their services and assistance.
THE CHALLE FAMILY.

WILLIAM PITTS — To those who expressed their sympathy in many beautiful and practical ways during our recent bereavement, we extend our heartfelt thanks.
THE PITTS FAMILY.

The family of the late AMELIA J. WHITE wishes to express its gratitude to the many friends, neighbors, the Rev. A. Scott and church organizations of Centennial Church during the recent illness and passing for their expressions of sympathy.
MRS. BESSIE A. HOLBROOK.

ANNA C. BROWN — To those who expressed their sympathy in so many beautiful and practical ways during our recent bereavement, we extend our heartfelt thanks.
MRS. ELEANOR J. CAIN and FAMILY.

Mrs. Marie L. Haywood wishes to thank her many friends for expressions of sympathy during her recent bereavement at the passing of her husband, LEROY McDONALD HAYWOOD. Special thanks to Rev. Isaac M. Gray for his visits and lovely sermon. "We loved him, yes we loved him But Angels loved him more. And they have quietly called him To yonder shining shore."
Loving Wife, MARIE HAYWOOD
Brother, CARROLL EDWARD HAYWOOD

BENJAMIN HENDERSON — Thank you our relatives, friends, neighbors and Mortician Elliott for expressions of sympathy and assistance during our recent bereavement in the passing of our beloved one.
"We cannot, Lord, Thy purpose see,
But all is well that's done by Thee."
Wife, MRS. LILLIAN HENDERSON and FAMILY.

LUCY BRISCOE HANKS — We wish to express our thanks to our friends and neighbors for their every act of sympathy and tender care during the illness and death of our beloved mother, Mrs. Lucy Hanks, and our use of cars.
THE FAMILY.
