

did own it. Can you tell me what, let's start with the year 1930. Can you tell me what you have done with the property since then, you and your family, in the way of using it. First of all, did you consider the property to be your own during this period?

A. Yes. Yes.

Mr. Elliot: What did you do in furtherance of that?

A. Well, we made a road up to the woods, and we got fire wood in the winter, we hunted on it, picknicked.

Mr. Elliot: Did you gather any fruits or anything like that?

A. Only walnuts and hickory nuts for the squirrels.

Mr. Elliot: Alright and did you do that continuously from 1930 on?

A. Yes sir.

Mr. Elliot: Did you do it openly?

A. Yes sir.

Mr. Elliot: You didn't do it secretly or try to hide it from anyone did you?

A. No, wide open.

Mr. Elliot: Did you do it with the understanding that you were doing it as owners of the property?

A. Yes sir.

Mr. Elliot: Did anyone else ever challenge your right to do that or did anyone else ever interrupt your use and enjoyment of this property?

A. No sir.

Mr. Elliot: Okay, thank you. The property that we're talking about is the same property that is described in these Deeds? Is that correct?

A. Yes sir.

Mr. Elliot: Okay. I have no further questions.

Mr. Stillrich: I have no questions.
