Misses Hughes, Wilson engaged

with Lula Jones Garrett

W. A. C. Hughes, attorney, and Mrs. Hughes made double engagement announcements this week . . . that of their daughter, Miriam Carroll, to Arnold J. Hayes, and of their foster daughter, Emma Lilian Wilson, to Clarence Byrd.

Miss Wilson and Mr. Byrd will be married in June. Miss Hughes and Mr. Hayes plan an early fall wedding.

Miss Hughes is also the granddaughter of the late, Bishop W. A. C. Hughes of the Methodist Church, and Mrs. Mary Butler Hughes of Bluefield, W. Va. On her maternal side, she is granddaughter of the late, Dr. M. W. Dogan, long time president of Wiley College, Marshall, Texas and Mrs. Fannie Faulkner Hughes.

A graduate of Morgan State College, from which she holds a bachelor of arts degree, she also holds a bachelor of science degree in elementary education from Coppin State Teachers College, and is on the faculty of Public School No. 142.

She made her debut at the Tri-De-So Cotillion in 1954 and was Deb of the Year in 1955. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, the Philomathians, the Bon Tons and an alumni of Jack and Jill of America.

Mr. Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Hayes of Trenton, N.J. attended Tilton Prep School in New Hampshire and won a bachelor of science degree in economics at Morgan State College.

He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army and attended the U.S. Army Finance School at Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indiana. He was assigned to Fort Meade's 16th Finance Corps, during which time he was promoted to first lieutenant. He has been out of the service as of January 9th. He's a Kappa Alpha Psi man.

Miss Wilson is a native of Kingsberry, Va. and a student in the Douglass Evening High School. Her finance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Byrd of this city, received his education in the public schools, here, and saw active service with the U.S. Marines in Korea. He held the rank of corporal.

At present, he is employed in the Post Office, here, and studying to become a mortician.

IOTA CHAPTER of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority gave their husbands and escorts a peek at their abilities as hostesses last Saturday at Chesapeake Club, where the sorors held forth in their post annual holiday party.

Festive is the word for the celebration, so akin to the ways that Iota entertains. Everyone present proved themselves young in heart as they participated in the lively games under directions of Sorors Jean Julius and Betty Shelton. Music to rival that heard in fashionable roof gardens provided an atmosphere for listening and dancing.

Gaily wrapped gifts were exchanged and the beautifully decorated Buffet table was revealed. Christmas you will agree is not a date but a state of mind, because January 7th, was Christmas to the Sorors of Iota Chapter. Susie B. Myles is basileus.

Sorors present were E. Louise Anderson, Gladys C. Baird, Olivia Bates, Lucy J. Bond, Eunice Brooks, Valerie Brown, Ethel C. Covington, Helen DeLeaver, Overta M. Dorsey, Imogene Douglas.

Sorors Fannie Ewell, Patti Holloway, Pearl W. Jackson, Naomi D. Johnson, Mary L. Johnson, Geneva Jones, Myrtle Jones, Priscilla Mason, Eleanor Moore, Esther Morris, Mary H. Owens, Theodosia P. Owens;

Sorors Alma F. Redden, Arabella P. Ross, Bertha Semblyr, Iona Smith, Eulalia Stevenson, and Doris Brown Adams.

Guests were Mesdames Beatrice Brown, Ruth Clayton, Louise Henson and Reggie Ray;

James Adams, Albert Baird, Leon Bates, William Butler, Eugene Hall, Madora J. Henson, Lester Hornich, Edward Smith, George H. Jones, Leo Jones, William P. Mason.

Charles Morris, Maurice Owens, Stuart Owens, Andrew Robinson, Wilfred Shelton, Edward Smith, Norman Smith, and Thomas Tisdale.

ON SUNDAY, the Pollards (Bob and Thelma) of 3209 Arunah Avenue held forth at a New Year's Day Party.

Those joining in the fun and merriment were Mrs. Mary L. Johnson, Bubbie Matthews, Mrs. Lillian Neal, John Price, Miss Ellen I. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Wade, Mrs. Helen Butts, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Albert Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pollard, Mrs. Charlotte Ferrell, Mrs. Goldie Phillips, Mrs. Nellie L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thornton, Miss Carrie Marshall, Buster Thornton, Mrs. Flora Lee, Mrs. Marguerite Smith, Mr. Ames, Selby Thornton, Miss Shirley Watkins;

Miss Louise S. Pollard, Wilbur Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lathaniel Kelley, Mrs. Elizabeth Haris, Robert L. Thornton, Miss Anne Brown, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Pollard, Miss Mamie Smith and Dionne Smith.

PETIT CATHY MAIDEN was the center of attraction on Saturday, when her godmother, Flozella Clarke gave a surprise birthday party for her. Cathy was seven on Sunday.

Gay decorations of balloons, etc., set the mood for the party. Guests donned party hats, played games, saw movies and reveled in the usual party refreshments.

Youngsters who came bearing the loveliest of gifts for the honoree were:

Barbara Harris, Kerhah Reeves, Beth Woodson, Robert Cassell, Douglas Walker, Patricia Garner, Carla Nichols, Howard Nicholson, Thomas Payne, Linda Cummings, Jacquelyn Watts, Harolyn Clarke, Lisa Randolph and Amy Woolridge.

About to assist with the entertaining was Cathy's dad, Clarence Maiden.

THOSE TEEN-AGERS of the Northwest Child Study Group did a fine thing, this week. They took some $20 odd out of their treasury to buy food for a needy family.

On the 28th they will meet with Dr. Madge Hipler of Morgan College for a session on their speech habits. They will tour the college campus and have lunch.

In the group are Cecelia Chatman, who is president, Elizabeth Chatman, Yvette and Tama Myers, Jacquelyn Finney, Robert and Patricia Payne, Jill Collins, Veronica Jackson, Camille Young and Hilda Thomas.

IN BETWEEN eating and dancing guests had an opportunity to socialize, and to admire attractive outfits—and there were many of them.

Mrs. Camille Young, who is now a teacher, but is truly Mrs. Camille Lee Young, the dentist, was a picture in black.

She's a Howard grad, and wife of Virgil Young, former Morgan instructor now on military duty overseas.

Remember her late parents were Dr. Roscoe Lee, also a dentist, and Mrs. Eloise Rucker Lee, who died last year.

ATTRACTIVE IN brown was Mrs. Mildred Perkins, whose long hair was pretty in a bun. She's a schoolmarm too.

Mr. Perkins (Frank) is a Banaker High teacher and a Baltimorean, son of Mrs. Rebecca Young, 1740 Druid Hill Ave. Remember his brother, Bernard Young, the beloved musician, died last year?

Blue was the color of the very becoming outfit selected by Mrs. Marie Lewis Wilson. Her hat, a cone - shaped number, was just right.

More attractive outfits — the black velvet worn by Bettie Davis; the eerie suit Mrs. Anne Madden wore, and the mauve - colored dressmaker suit with short jacket.

Mrs. Finlayson, was a perfect hostess. Her blue dress had multicolored front panel skirt. Same colored were repeated in the collar, sneaker on Mrs. Whilhelmina Bulstock Thomas, the school principal. Her corsage bud was of crushed satin.

FORMER N.C. RESIDENT who was in attendance was Mrs. Minnie Freeman, who hails from Raleigh, N.C.

She's residing in D.C. now with her mother, Mrs. Electa Hockaday, at 8 Longfellow St., NW.

Also met: Mrs. Ethel Larry. Her husband is Lawrence Larry, the Patterson High teacher, who went to Howard University with the AFRO's Howard Murphy.

Another guest listed above Mrs. Gladys Greene, is one of the capital's sacky ladies—she's readying for the inaugural activities, and, for a vacation trip to the Caribbean with her husband who is Dr. Stud Greene.

Her inaugural gown by the way — will be ankle length — emerald green. More details later. B.M.F.

D.C. and Baltimore guests at Alice Finlayson party

A Sixteenth St. clubhouse was the scene of a pretty card party Tuesday given by Alice Finlayson, former D.C. school principal now on the Morgan State College faculty.

She invited 44 of her Washington and Baltimore friends to enjoy a sumptuous buffet which featured lobster thermidor.

The affair did not get into high gear until after 3, what with the hostess and many of the guests tied up in the classroom until then.

Marylanders about were: Mesdames Nollie Murchison, Arundel-on-the Bay; Lillian Berry, Lydia Mussenden, Yvette Murphy, Bettye Phillips, Pearlie Pennington, Katherine Adams, and Frances Hill.

Washingtonians present were: Mesdames Constance Lautier, Evalyn Greene, Ethel Larry, Helen Nash, Marietta Gray, Edith DeBruhl, Bessie Cornelius, Pearl Hughes, Bettie Davis, Wilhelmina Thomas, Vivian Thompson, DeWitt Plummer, Constance Green, Genevieve Flagg, Pearl Curtis;

Also, Mesdames Anna Scott, Juanita Madden, Rose Gardner, Bessie Johnson, Lillian Malone, Mildred Perkins, Leona Dodson, Frances Elam, Minerva Cupid, Thelma Bryant, Minnie Freeman, Eva Honesty, Ruby Duffy, Gladys Greene, Marian Robinson, Marie Wilson, Bernice Trigg, Margaret Stewart, Joanne and Maria Clarke, Roland Williams and Charlene Cephas.

Mesdames Jimmy LaForest and Florella Clarke are advisors to the group.

SIGMA WIVES met at Juanita Hill's to plan their card party being held Feb. 10th, to enjoy correspondence from one of their members, Virginia Stewart, who is now with her husband and family in Monrovia, Liberia and to hear echoes from the Sigma Conclave in New York City.

Those present were Reva Lewis, president, Violetta Lee, Catherine Greene, Marguerite Wilkins, Thelma Moore, Geneva Wood, Katherine Johnson, Naomi Camper and Betty Cox.

Sigma Wives who accompanied husbands to New York during holidays for Phi Beta Sigma conclave; Reva Lewis (Mrs. Lemuel), Juanita Hill (Mrs. Robert), Violetta Lee (Mrs. Ernest), Virginia Stewart (Mrs. Douglas), Naomi Camper (Mrs. Evans), Catherine Greene, (Mrs. Vernon), Geneva Wood (Mrs. Leo), Thelma Moore (Mrs. Parlett) and Cora Gibson (Mrs. Leroy).

The Sigma Wives of Brooklyn, Manhattan and Long Island joined to lay out the red carpet for visiting wives. On Wednesday, there was a "Get-Acquainted" luncheon at the Park Ave. Brass Rail Restaurant.

Thursday afternoon, the Corinthian Room of the headquarters hotel, the Park Sheraton was transformed into a veritable Hawaiian Island with music by the orchestra from the Hawaiian Room and dancers to provide the mood for fashion for a Hawaiian holiday shown by models. Card games, cocktails, fancy hors d'oeuvres and lovely prizes followed.

Two buses were chartered for Friday afternoon to tour the island and transport the ladies to Westchester and the Glen Island Casino for cocktails, conversation and more cordiality.

Nights the ladies joined the men for their fraternity social affairs.

TAU GAMMA DELTAS entertained their husbands and friends at a party at which they, too exchanged gifts.

The members (of Pi chapter) gathered in the club room of Soror Lucille Anderson. The past Sunday, the group met with Nannie Wimple where memorial services for one of the founders, the late Soror Cellius Morgan of Detroit, Mich., were held.

Plans were also made for the Eastern Regional Conference which is to be held here in April.

THE POSTAL WIVES (mates included) recently held their annual holiday party at the home of their president, Doris Street of Moreland Ave.

It was a gala affair which turned into a night full of surprises. As each member received her gift from her secret pal, she in turn presented her husband with a small gift.

Seen when gifts where opened were beautiful night gowns, bulky knit sweaters and umbrellas to shirts, leather carryalls and cuff links for the men.

There were plenty of refreshments — and Elsie (Big Train") Street, host, mixed cocktails for John and Shirley Allen, Bradley and Barbara Byrd, Huey and Modestine Cox, Walter and Barbara Dennis, James and Audrey Dorsey, Albert and Edith Dowdell, Danny and Mae Harris, Paul and Audrey Highsmith, William and Yolanda Proctor and John and Bernice Walker.

ADELLE FORDMAN was hostess to the We Wives Tuesday night. Adelle's pretty house, her gold silver with matching plates, and her delectable menu, made for a delightful evening.

Verniece Reynolds, president, and her committee completed plans for the February 18th dance to be held at the Cherry Hill Armory. At o'clock were Bettye Phillips Margaret Hythe, Margaret Armstrong, Lillian Ross, Mae Dyson, Gwen Tarter, Marjorie Pratt, Verniece Reynolds, Iris Mapp, Agnes Reaves, Ivy Grinnage and Ruby Reed.

MARGARET GASSAWAY and her mother, Lelia Cooper, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gray and their daughters during the holidays . . . and by Mr. and Mrs. George Ford of this city.

Their (Mesdames Gassaway and Cooper) entertaining included open house at their Fulton Avenue place, when they had as guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Ethel Beaman, Mrs. Ethel Davis, Mrs. Ellen Perkins, Miss Catherine Beard, Walter Brown, Milburn Taylor, Newton Curtis, John Garrett, Percy Banks.

POT-POURRI: Cutest note from the Herman Lee Thomps Sons of Joan Shepherd, formerly of this town) telling of the arrival of their first. Marshall Dean, born on the third in Temple Hospital in Los Angeles. Joan, you remember, was so active in the Urban League Guild, especially with the Beaux Arts Ball.

At the Sheraton-Baltimore Inn, Monday evening, Robert (Vashti) Matthews celebrating dual events. 'Twas both's birthdays and their 18th wedding anniversary.

Also celebrating an 18th wedding anniversary on Monday were the Theodore R. Johnsons (Charlotte Williams).

Lena King Lee, attorney, who has been jaunting about the Country (Pittsburg, Cleveland, Detroit, New Brunswick) on a "relaxation program, was in town this week for a meeting of the Housing Committee. Left again, Sunday . . . will be back for inaugural doings next week.

A number of townsgals dashed to Washington, last weekend, to be in on the fun and business of inducting a chapter of Pi Beta Sigma in the Capital City. They included Mary Smith, Edna Johnson, Geraldine Griner, Joyce Blanchard, Eugenia Taylor, Joan Stevenson and Dorothy Clayborne.

Members of the new chapter are Frederika Patterson, Shirley Smith, Alva Pretillo, Mary Alexander, Margaret Roddy and Louise Brown.

Dr. George Phillips, clinical director of psychiatry at Crownsville State Hospital, and Mrs. Playon Cornish of Washington, national president of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Medical Association were speakers at the Thursday meeting of the local auxiliary. Dr. Phillips commented on problems in marriages. Mrs. Simon Carter arranged the program.

The Youth Singing groups of Macedonia Baptist Church have scheduled a testimonial dinner on the 28th honoring Mesdames Orangie Epps, organist; and Cornelia Ringold, choir directress. The dinner will be held in the church at 7:30 p.m.

This Saturday evening, Femmes Continentals will be hostesses at their annual champagne ball, holding forth in the Winchester Armory.

NCNW, Daggett & Ramsdell open Bethune Memorial drive

The Mary McLeod Bethune Memorial project got off to a start, here, this week, as Mrs. Lockhart of New York set in motion the fund - raising program to be conducted jointly by the National Council of Negro Women and the Daggett and Ransdell Cosmetic Company.

The project, which includes the sale of Daggett and Ramsdell products by NCNW members is hoped to not only provide funds to aid in the establishment of the Bethune Memorial and Educational Center, but to provide opportunities for women who wish to develop employment for themselves in the cosmetic sales field.

THE PLAN was created by Arthur A. J. Weglein Sr., president of Daggett and Ramsdell and Miss Dorothy I. Height, president of NCNW and her executive board. Mrs. Lockhart is coordinator for the Council and the cosmetic company.

It is estimated that 10,000 jobs will be created across the nation by this drive. In Baltimore contact offices have been established with Mrs. Emma Dudley of 2411 Shirley Ave., president of the Baltimore chapter of the Council; and Miss Dorothy Bonds of 719 W. Mosher St.

BY ACT OF CONGRESS last year a station of Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune is to be erected in Lincoln Park On East Capitol Street, where the dramatic figure of President Lincoln, known as the Emancipation Group, also stands.

The memorial to Dr. Bethune, expected to be completed in 1963, will also commemorate the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation.

DAGGETT AND RAMSDELL, through their fragrance, has created a special line of fragrances for the Council drive. This fragrance is Debutante International.

The line which bears this fragrance included pur fum, perfumed mist, spray cologne, dusting powder, cream sachet, bubble bath, cream perfume, and perfumed transparent soap.

A minimum of $250,000 in the next 2 years will benefit the Mary McLeod BETHUNE EDUCATIONAL CENTER AND MONUMENT In The Nation's Capital
In Addition the happy united effort of the National Council of Negro Women and Daggett and Ramsdell, the oldest and most respected firm in the cosmetic industry will insure job openings for over 18,000 people.
