Absentee vote law; vote canvass changes sought

ANNAPOLIS — Bills affecting absentee voting and canvassing of registered voters in Baltimore were placed before the House of Delegates here Monday evening.

House Bill 53 set the deadline for making application for absentee ballots at ten days rather than the present 20 prior to election.

And allow five days prior to election, rather than the now ten days, to return the required certificate of fitness to vote, in the cases of ill persons unable to get to the polls.

HOUSE BILL 40 would set the third Monday in Jan. 1965 as the next house to house canvas by judges of Baltimore's Supervisors of Elections in a check of registered voters.

Then provide that this check be made every four years thereafter.

The bill would allow further that the name of any person sent a notice to confirm his address, who failed to comply within one month, be stricken from the registration records.
