Jury Throws Out Suit Against Ray

NEW YORK (ANP) — "An Gene Fullmer, who dethroned him.

ROBINSON later regained the title by knocking out Fullmer but lost it again when the National Boxing Association withdrew its recognition, charging Ray with inactivity.

Obviously, also, Robinson had made no agreement to the Philadelphia title match bout, as the judge indicated, but merely agreed to signing for it later.

greement to agree at some uture date is no agreement t all."

That was the sum and substance of Judge Lloyd F. MacMahon's 40 - minute charge to a jury of 10 men and two women empaneled to hear a $75,000 breach of contract against former middleweight champion, Sugar Ray Robinson in federal court here last week.

THE STATEMENT by Judge MacMahon was also obviously the basis on which the jury denied the suit against Robinson by Nicholas G. Trollo, a Philadelphia promoter and toy manufacturer.

Trollo contended in the suit that in September, 1956, Robinson agreed to defend his middleweight title in Philadelphia, but instead defended it in Madison Square Garden the following January against lucky if we win a game.

"That's why i was anxious to get as many as we possibly could this first half."

CAIN'S CLOSING statement had reference to Dunbar's playing of two hard games in two days. On Monday, the day before they met Carver, the Poets took on Calvert Hall at Dunbar. They defeated the Cardinals, 86-55, in a match which had been postponed from the previous Friday by a heavy snowstorm.

Dunbar leaped into an early lead on Calvert Hall and never relinquished it. After a 16-10 first - quarter advantage, the Dunmen had increased the bulge to 34-22 by halftime.

AGAINST CARVER, the Poets raced to a 12-point lead and appeared ready to sail in, what with the Cubs having trouble breaking through the tight Dunbar zone defense.

But Sodie White's scrappy youngsters refused to give up. They closed the gap and actually went ahead in the opening minutes of the final period, 54 - 51. Thereafter, Kenon began hitting in the clutch, as his coach says he was wont to do. And the rally was on. —SAM LACY.

DRIVE FOR DUNBAR— George Renwick (34), who proved one of Dunbar's most dependable playmakers, starts a drive around Carver High School's Charley Wilson (20), during action in thrilling Poet - Cub basketball game at Carver Tuesday afternoon. Dunbar won, 61-60, to take over sole possession of first place in MSA Division 1 race.

Big O may be pace setter in Royals-Lakers contest

Oscar Robertson will be stealing a chapter from the success book belonging to Elgin Baylor, Feb. 6, when the "Big O" leads the Cincinnati Royals into Cole Field House to 'O'ppose the Los Angeles Lakers in the third M - Club - sponsored NBA game of the season.

Robertson, the scoring sensation of the Royals, will hold the same distinction enjoyed by Baylor just a few years ago when the Lakers drafted him No. 1 from Seattle University where he twice was honored as an All - American player.

BAYLOR, in his first season, was voted the Rookie of the Year; broke almost every Laker scoring record held by George Mikan; became the fourth Laker to score over 2000 points in one season, and shared the Most Valuable Player honor in the NBA All-Star game.

Now Robertson is threatening to do just what Baylor did.

The 'Big O' already is everybody's choice as Rookie of the Year. He's among the top five in the NBA scoring race and is threatening the mate Jack Twyman.

WHILE BAYLOR holds an inch advantage over Robertson— 6-foot-6 to 6-foot-5— Robertson holds the All - America edge on the Lakers' 'Rabbit'. Robertson was All-American for the three years at Cincinnati before being drafted as the Royals first choice last April.

Both lads are three-way performers, standing out as scorers, ball handlers and rebounders When the two stars last opposed earlier this month in Los Angeles, they fought to a 45 - point deadlock for scoring honors in a nationally—televised game.

Both have been tremendous drawing cards for their respective teams.

BAYLOR, who currently holds the NBA scoring record of 71 points, spearheaded his former cellar-dwelling team to the championship finals in his first year.

Now Robertson is doing the same thing for the once lowly Royals.

Both the 'Big O' and the 'Big E' will be supported by such top names as Twyman, Wayne Embry, Wat Wilfong and Bob Boozer for the Royals; while aiding Baylor will be Rudy LaRusso, Tom Hawkins, Jerry West and 'Hot Rod' Hundley, the latter two All - Americans from West Virginia, to name a few.

A PRELIMINARY contest featuring Baylor's old high school, Spingarn opposing St. John's, will highlight a special Welcome Home Program prepared by some 300 Singarn students who will be on hand to root their hero against Robertson.

George W. Knepley, promotion managing director has arranged for ticket - seekers to make purchases at five locations in the Metropolitan Washington area.

Ticket Director Eddie Bean reveals a special ticket-buying feature for the game whose proceeds will go toward the M - Club Scholarship fund.

2 tan players to bid for jobs with Orioles

BALTIMORE

Two colored players will be bidding for jobs with the Baltimore Orioles when the Birds report to manager Paul Richards at Miami, Fla., next month.

Earl Robinson purchased from the Los Angeles Dodgers in December, and Artie Kay, called up from Rochester of the International League, are slated to enter spring training with a good chance of sticking with the club.

Robinson is an outfielder. Kay is a pitcher.

LOCAL FANS were speculating at midweek as to whether there will be any colored players on the team at Memorial Stadium this summer.

Last year, the Birds made a run for the American League pennant with only one tan athlete, first baseman Bob Boyd. Boyd played on rare occasions and then appeared only as a pinch hitter.

Known to be expendable, Bob was traded to Kansas City along with four other players — Al Pilarcik, Jim Archer, Wayne Causey and Clint Courtney — for Wilco Herzog and Russ Snyder and a third player to be named later.

"WE HAVE high hopes for both these boys," an Oriole spokesman declared Wednesday. Robinson could become our right-fielder — he has the speed and the arm for it. And Kay appears to be a pretty good pitcher...

"We were happy to get Earl from Los Angeles. He is going to get a good look at Miami this spring. And the same is true of Artie. His 8-6 record with the Marlins (Miami) and Redwings (Rochester) last season may not be an accurate assessment of his ability."

Boyd's arrival in Kansas City brings a 3-year draught of tan players there. Not since the Athletics traded Hecto Lopez to the Yankees has KC included a colored member.

Kirkland loses paternity suit

SAN FRANCISCO (ANP)—A local court has ruled against baseball star Willie Kirkland in a paternity case involving a 31 year-old divocee, who claimed he is the father of her unborn child.

Superior Judge Joseph Karesh ruled last week that the former San Francisco Giants star was the father on the basis of a "preponderance of evidence." The jury trial court was to decide the issue of positive paternity.

The divorcee in question is Mrs. Margaret Edwards, who expects the child in May.

Kirkland, 26, has denied that he is the father.

A popular star with local fans when he was with the Giants, Kirkland, a hard-hitting outfielder was traded at the end of last season to the Cleveland Indians of the American League.

NBA quints in city Saturday

One of the hottest teams in pro basketball circles will be seen in action here Saturday night (Feb. 4) when the Detroit Pistons meet the Syracuse Nats in a National Basketball Association contest.

The Pistons, currently on a win streak that has vaulted them into second place in the Western Division of the NBA, feature ex-Maryland University star Gene Shue.

ADDING TO their local appeal is an area-born coach, Earl Lloyd. The first colored tutor in the pro league, Lloyd is a product of Washington, D. C., and makes his home here with his wife, a native Baltimorean.

Earl served as assistant to head coach Dick McGuire. He is credited with the rapid development of the largest assortment of rookies on any team in the NBA.

Six colored players will be seen in action at the Coliseum. Detroit will floor Wally Dukes, Shellie McMillon and Willie Jones. Syracuse plays Dick Barnett, Hal Greer and rookie Joe Roberts.
