$1,700 in 2 golf meets for Sifford

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. — (ANP) — After sharing leadership in the first round play in his second golf tournament in two weeks, Charlie Sifford, the only colored playing on the professional tour, Sunday, finished among the prize money winners behind Billy Maxwell in the $50,000 Palm Springs Open here.

The stockily-built, cigar-smoking Sifford had fired a red hot 65 over the first 18 holes to tie Ken Venturi, Bob Rosburg and Cary Middlecoff for the tournament's first round leadership.

IT WAS the second consecutive week in which Sifford had fired 65 and held the leadership in a major tournament.

The previous week his 65, six-under-par tied him with George Bayer for the first round leadership in the San Francisco International tournament won by Gary Player of South Africa.

SIFFORD Sunday finished 10 strokes off the pace, after having a rough time particularly with the wind, in the middle rounds. His scores by rounds were 65-71-74-72-73.

Sifford's tournament total was 355, as compared to 245 for Maxwell. First prize money was $8,000 which Sifford pocketed, $526. The $526 brought Sifford's total golf earnings in two weeks to $1,701.

IT'S UP TO THEM — These are the five youngsters who must save the year for Dunbar, if the Bards are to win their third straight MSA basketball crown. Named by coach Bill (Sugar) Cain to fill the gap left by graduation of four regulars are Eddie Beauford (42), James Richmond (34), Reggie Lewis (14) and Earl Divers (40). George Renwick (52) was the lone starter left of Dunbar five which ran up six straight wins in first half of season.

POINTS FOR THE POETS — Earl Divers (40) cages an outside one-hander for Dunbar Patterson's Wayne Gloriosan (35) looks on helplessly as ball sails overhead. Poets could not score as often or as many as Pats, however, dropped first game of MSA season, 81-66.

Smith avenges loss to Saints

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Sophomore Leonard Johnson, 6-foot-8 center, grabbed 35 rebounds and racked 24 points to spark Johnson C. Smith University to an easy 94-76 CIAA victory over the scrappy Tigers of St. Paul's College here Wednesday night.

The Golden Bulls thus avenged an early loss to the lowly Tigers as they wrapped up their seventh conference triumph of the season as compared to six CIAA defeats. St. Paul's is 3 - 10 in the loop and 3 - 11 in all games. Smith is 7 - 10 overall.

NEITHER TEAM exhibited good shooting form. The Bulls, who led by a 40 - 36 margin at halftime, poured only 37 field goals through with 100 attempts from the floor for a rather poor 37.0 percentage. The Tigers, with 32 baskets in 79 shots, were only slightly better at 40.5.

The taller J. C. Smith team played as if they owned the boards as they pulled down 67 rebounds while giving up 46 to the losers. In addition to Johnson's record grab, Clarence Barnes contributed 12 recoveries to the total.

Alfred Moore led the losers with 21 points.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — The conferences to make arrangements for the Southeastern Regional Convention of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity at Florida A. and M. University from March 31 to April was held on campus last weekend.

4 pro grid offers

TUSKEGEE, Ala. — After being honored by Atlanta's 400 Per Cent Wrong Club as the top SIAC conference quarterback, Tuskegee's W. Willie Williams began receiving four professional football inquiries, and announced his willingness to play pro.

A senior scheduled to graduate this spring, Williams named the Los Angeles Chargers, Detroit Lions, Dallas Cowboys, and Winnipeg of the Candian League, as the four teams interested in his services.

'Fighter of month' nod to Fernandez

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — (ANP) — Because he stepped out of his division and into the middleweight class in scoring an impressive eight-round knockout over rugged Rory Calhoun in a nationally televised 10-rounder from Madison Square Garden recently, Cuban fighter Florentino Fernandez has been named "fighter of the month" for January.

The Cuban left hook artist was voted the honor by the rating committee of the National Boxing Association, which also switched his official ring rating from sixth among the top contending welterweights (147-pound) to ninth among the middles (160-pounders).

Fernandez's victory over Calhoun was only his first fight as a full-fledged middleweight. It was his 23rd knockout among 29 victories in his 31 fights.

Wittenberg deals 11th loss of year

XENIA, Ohio — Central State suffered its eleventh defeat of the season by bowing to Wittenberg University, 86-54.

The Tigers, ranked 6th nationally among small colleges, jumped out to a 8-0 lead, and led at halftime 35-23. The Marauders were hampered by making only 7 out of 21 foul shots in the first half.

Bert Price let Wittenberg with 20 points, while Turner Russell, with an equal amount, led Central's scoring.

Archie on Floyd-Ingo: 'Can lick both of them'

NEW YORK (ANP) — Archie Moore, never a man to concede defeat in advance, feels that he can beat both champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Ingemar Johansson, despite Archie's previous knockout loss to Floyd four years ago.

The reason: Archie feels he has analyzed both to the point where he knows all their weaknesses.

Asked to explain his loss to Patterson when the two fought for the vacated heavyweight title in 1956, Moore said: "I was overtained. I overworked myself trying to reach a condition I had never attained before."

AS FOR Ingermar, Moore said, "Right now I can knock out Johansson somewhere in 10 rounds."

He doesn't give the Swede much chance for upsetting Patterson again, either. Floyd lost to Johansson the first time because he became over anxious, got careless and got tagged, the veteran light heavyweight champion opined. But it won't happen again, he added.

FLOYD, MOORE thinks, will be ready for Johansson, and Ingermar won't forget how Patterson flattened him the last time.

He gave his views in an interview with a New York reporter.

Personally, Moore said he is anxious to meet Germany's Eric Schoeppner in defense of the light heavyweight title, so he can concentrate on probable heavyweight title match.

ATLANTA — Dr. William A. Banner, professor of philosophy at Howard University, addressed the annual Atlanta University Center convocation in Sisters Chapel on the Spelman College campus last Sunday afternoon.

David Ryans earns Gloves semi try

David Lee Ryans, a 19-year - old rough and tumble battler from Chicago, again lived up to his advance billing as this year's Golden Gloves biggest threat. Monday the youthful boxer hammered out a decision victory over Hal Jackson, the contender in the 147 - pound Senior Division from Police Boys Club No. 2.

Ryans' sure balance and powerful punches combined to give him his 20th victory in the ring in 21 starts. He meets Leroy 'Hurricane' Roberts in the Gloves semi-finals at 37. Roberts promises to be Ryans' toughest encounter of the Gloves to date. Golden Gloves semi - finals take place at Uline Arena.

Baylor-'Big O' cage duel rewards overflow crowd

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — The Los Angeles Lakers scored a 110 - 101 victory over the Cincinnati Royals here Monday night in a National Basketball Association contest. But the real story is one that doesn't show on the scoreboard.

The bigger news, perhaps, is that the University of Maryland's Cole Field House was packed to the rafters and some 300 - odd other would - be spectators were turned away at the door.

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON area is made up of a clannish sports clientele. Whenever it turns out in great number for an athletic contest, it is virtually certain that the fans are responding to a desire to see the Colts or the Orioles or the Washington Senators.

Since neither Los Angeles nor Cincinnati is such, it meant much to the Monday night spectators, it had to be that those persons who braved the bad weather for the affair were there because they felt a strong tie to one player or another.

A throng of 12,500 jammed into the arena, a vast majority of whom were obviously present to see Washington's Elgin Baylor perform. Almost as many were there to watch Oscar Robertson.

BAYLOR, A graduate of Spingarn High School in D.C., is regarded the finest all-around player in the NBA, a consideration that must give him strong recommendation as the finest in the world.

Although plagued by an ankle that was painful to the touch and swollen to twice its normal size, Elgin played. He told coach Fred Schaus he wouldn't think of "disappointing all these people."

Robertson, a two - time All-American from the University of Cincinnati and the most prolific pointmaker in the history of college basketball, is often referred to as a surefire choice as 1961 rookie of the year in the pro loop.

THUS IT was that Monday's game was looked upon by local enthusiasts as a head - on clash between two of the greatest athletes in basketball. For the most part, it was just that.

Baylor, despite the ankle handicap, scrambled for 26 points in the first half to pace the Lakers to a 17 - point halftime lead. He would up the evening with 35 points.

Robertson, held in check by the double - teaming of Jerry West and Frank Selvy in the first half, led a strong but futile second - half surge by the Royals. The "Big O" finished out the evening with 37 markers.

FOR THE spectators, it was a thrilling experience. When they weren't marvelling at the double - action shooting skill and rebounding of Baylor, they were gasping at the spectacular ball handling and under - the - basket touch of Robertson.

Halftime ceremonies paid tribute to Elgin as "the hometown boy who made good."

He was acclaimed at midcourt where he was met by his mother and Secretary of Interior Udall, in whose office Mrs. Baylor is employed. She had made the trip to and from the game as the guest of the Secretary.

Southeast House drops first game

WASHINGTON.

The Southeast House won its seventh game last Thursday, beating Jefferson Recreation Center 21-17, and on Saturday was the least team dropped its first game of the season to the Anacostia Ramblers in the No. 2 Police Boys Club 14 and under league 36-25.

Walter Herald scored 12 points in the non-league contest against Jefferson and eight in the first half Saturday before Coach Bill Northington had playmaster Ernie Hooks playing deep to stop Southeast's fast break attack.

The Ramblers trailed by five points at the end of the first period and maintained the five-point until the half. The Ramblers' lead was trimmed to one early in the final quarter, taking all the rebounds under the losers basket as Southeast House missed seven attempts from the floor.

Southeast House travels to Laurel, Md., Wednesday to play Maple Glenn. Monday the Southeast team will play host to Fide's House at Randall at 6:30 p.m. in a non-league game. Heading the Southeast House will be 14-year-old Ron Blackwell, of Shaw Junior High, who a week ago scored 43 points against Bakers Dozen.

Johnson wins light-heavy title but no satisfaction

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., — For what it is worth, Harold Johnson is the new light-heavyweight champion in the eyes of the National Boxing Association.

The 32-year-old Philadelphia scored a ninth round technical knockout of Jesse Bowdry of St. Louis, here Tuesday night to win that portion of the 175-pound title the NBA took from Archie Moore.

JOHNSON, however, admitted it was a hollow achievement since there are few outside of the inner sanctum of the NBA who will accept anyone but Ole Archie as champion. The new title holder indicated as much in his first post-fight statement.

"I don't feel like I'm the champ yet," he said in a canny manner. "I did moment in his dressing room. "I'm afraid I really won't get that feeling until I beat the old man (Moore)."

JOHNSON has fought Archie four times previously losing all the bouts. One of these was a successful title defense by Moore. He says he is anxious to fight him again.

Archie was deposed by the NBA for failing to defend the crown within a prescribed period. The Johnson-
