MYSTERIOUS FIRE — This boat storage barge, anchored off Old South Rd. in Dundalk, and surrounded by ice, was destroyed by fire Thursday night. Cpl. Joseph McCarthy, Dundalk policeman, said cause of the fire is unknown. No estimate of damage was available.

On The Town

WITH THE PUB CRAWLERS

During the swings around town, Crawlers run across odd, unusual and even intriguing happenings.

But the one found the seven really floored them.

Now we've heard of seen fire sales of all description, running the gamut from safety pins to bulldozers.

But in all our moonlits and brights, never have we heard of, let alone seen, a Whiskey Fire Sale."

That is, until this week. Sagacious readers understand if the Crawlers boast that they've seen everything—and that's no stage joke.

Providing this bit of madness with a method was Ben Myers of the recently burned Avenue Musical bar.

While landlords of the house completed negotiations for rebuilding, Ben was faced with the problem of what to do with a bath of scorched juice.

"I could have easily returned it to the distributors and got credit for it," Ben said. "But I saw a chance to put on an unusual gimmick and give the patrons a break at the same time."

What a gimmick this bit of masterminding turned out to be!

The small, newly painted room, once the package section, was jammed to the walls as "tasters", seeking "the hottest drinks in town," beat a steady path to the temporary auction block.

All along the Main Stem, bargain seekers chuckled over the rush for "smoked smoke," "singed gin," "scorched scotch," "burned squeeze," and countless other catchy tags for the fire - damaged liquids.

The idea went over so big that the temporary quarters will be the permanent package goods section until repairs are finished.

AROUND OTHER houses on the circuit, the presence of that kill-joy Snowman is much in evidence. Needless to say, operators are making like "Bessie Smith" while gazing at doors that swing open to funseekers at a snail's pace.

For the brave souls who are undaunted by the ugly gray and white blanket of dirty snow, there's still lots of happenings about. F'rinstance:

NORTH END — Floyd Bartz, Irvin Sutton and Jimmy Carroll are still offering the swinging combination of Herman Hawkins and Gary Bartz, singer and jazzman, respectively. You can also get in on the "Blue Monday" kick here, too.

DOTSON'S —Frank Reddish's Mid-Winter extravaganza of "Swinging Affairs of 61," featuring Five G-u-y-s and a real Doll, Carole Riley. Sammy Jay is the man at the mike.

JONES COCKTAIL LOUNGE —Thee, Jitterbug Lazy Lil and the Dapt Dukie help you to forget your cares as you relax in the warm confines of the cozy spot.

KNOTTY PINE — Nate Polski assures you the finest club prices in town while you dance to the tunes of Earl Omaro and his swinging trio.

LUCKY NUMBER — Warts and Cornell Muldrow are the attractions here. The former for his warm and friendly greetings and the latter for his organ magic.

The whaling Monday night jam sessions add liveliness to an otherwise quiet first of the week period.

VILMA — Good food, tasty drinks and relaxed chit-chats are all to be had here. Making sure you get it is bossman Wendell Wilson.

SPHINX — Polses are racing and wardrobes are being ruffled as the gang makes ready to raid the City of Brotherly Love for the O U. timers' annual hardwood fiasco.

Although most of the "old men" will have a date with the rubbing alcohol bottle when they return, they are set to live it up while making like youngsters for a day.

WHEN MAGISTRATE Cal-[illegible] case asked how Little Willie, the [illegible] and a half inches tall, and weighs 120 pounds, could strike Mr. McRae, who stands six feet, three inches tall and weighs 200 pounds, the lawyer explained:

"I was standing on a flight of steps when he walked up steps up above me, so that we were just about even."

Little Willie's defense to the charge was an admission that he might have "bumped" Mr. McRae, but that he certainly didn't hit him.

"I brushed by him to get on the stage," said Little Willie, from behind a pair of dark glasses.

"I was late. I told everybody to look out, I was coming, and I bumped him."

The singer's lawyer, George Russell, then posed this question:

"Did you intend to brush him?"

"No."

"Your sole act was to get on the stage."

"On pay day, sure."

AND AS FAR as the bar bill was concerned, this is how the teen-age idol expressed himself on that point:

"Mr. Sutton and I had already come to a completion of the deal. I told him I would pay the bill but why should he send a lawyer to collect a $68 bill when I had $3,800 in my pocket?"

"You had $3,800 in your pocket," asked Magistrate Douglass?

"Yeah," said Little Willie "I gave it to one of my boys to keep for me while I was on stage."

"You got it back," said the magistrate?

"Sure," said Little Willie.

Mr. Little Willie John also added that he would see that the club bill was paid.

AFTER HEARING this, Magistrate Douglass divested himself of this opinion.

"Since he is a performer there is no need of him coming to Baltimore to get a record. We'll dismiss the case and I advise you Little Willie, not to rush the next time."

Smiling, Mr. John made his way out of the courtroom, followed by several friends. Mr. John was natilly dressed in a fur trimed fingertip coat, a pair of Ivy League pants trousers, a colorful sport-shirt, a pair of Italian style shoes and a gray Cadillac.

Mr. McRae said he sustained no bruises.

LOUNGE —Al Brown and the Tune Toppers are the magnets here. Brave souls are still battling the drifts to get there, and it's worth the trouble.

PHIL'S — The Jazz Trio is staging both week - end shows and special Sunday sessions at this quiet and easy - going house.

CHICK'S — Exotic dancing swinging sounds and a stomp-down good show are by-products at this Baltimore and Greene house, where Flink Johnson still holds sway.

HERB'S MELODY BAR — The spot where the old cliche, "a good time was had by all," definitely applies.

—R and R star arrested

night of Little Willie's show at a Pennsylvania Ave. theatre, Mr. McRae said that he and Irvin Sutton, one of the club's co-owners paid the rock and roller a visit backstage in an effort to collect the bill.

After some conversation, during which Little Willie suggested that they check with his own lawyer, who was seated in the audience, Mr. McRae said he left the dressing room.

"Mr. John and several people accosted me on the stairway. They demanded that I use the phone backstage to call Mr. Bartz (another one of the club's owners).

"When I didn't, Mr. John struck me," testified Mr. McRae.

The lawyer said he then left the theatre and found a policeman, who placed the dapper singer under arrest after he sang his last song for the night.

Kinfolk Moore, Poitier in flick

HOLLYWOOD — (ANP) — The money will stay in the family for light heavyweight champion Archie Moore and actor Sidney Poitier, who have been assigned starring roles in the upcoming fight picture, "The Iron Man," for Columbia Pictures.

Archie is brother - in - law to Poitier by virtue of his marriage to the latter's sister, Joan Hardy.

Sphinx Speaks

The wrecking crew from Sphinx invaded D.C. Thursday-night for Evelya's third anniversary. They were singing, "boogie for Evelyn, she's got lots of class."

Then 'to the Hollywood. From there to another place called by a number only. It was 2 p.m. the following day before the last one got home.

FACES — Tony Gray — for four days in a row. What's the attraction? John Tinker now personal mail clerk for J. K. was in with a party of fellow Washingtonians. They included Bobby Boyd, Al Taylor, Freddie Nelson, Bernard Simms, and Cliff Brooks.

Brand new member: Al (For Real) Stein. He's from over Mt. Royal Hotel way. Welcome aboard!!!

Vincent Delaney, currently at the Wagon Wheel Steinway, couldn't make it home to Cherry Hill because of the bad weather.

Dalores Coleman, now appearing at the Casino, stopped in with her manager, Brother James, and Willie Lewis, ex cee who finished a stint at the Royal this week. We dug his show.

Charlie (The Greatest) Kelson is running a wall-to-wall check after a bit of luck. Turk Scott has moved to a new station, Garrison AMOCO Service, Garrison Blvd. and Windsor Mill Rd.

Charles Massey, cool and quiet, Joe Cross and Satterfield, from Little Caesar's, stopped by. So did Floyd Adams and sidekick Blue Top Wynn, of the Red Rooster.

NNLBA members and other club operators got together at the Uptown Club, Sunday, Feb. 5, and made plans for the Blue Monday Club and other forthcoming club nights. It seems to be natural.

Eugene (Jelly) Henry conferred with Judge, this week. The judge's opinion stood.

Elbert Perkins is operating an official Sphinx Club car. Raymond Morton, of Morton's Transfer; Reggie Mills, and Vivian Dunstan, old friends Club Mansion day, are in the hospital despite the weather. Sunday night.

Louise Frisby, Eastside playboy, Al Stein, and Joe Chapman being serenaded by sweet songs by the one and only Vernon Hutchins.

In Memoriams

BOYD — In loving memory of our dear husband, father, Philip Lee, who passed away February 15, 1960:

We loved together, you and I.
In sorrow and in joy.
We shared our joys and our pains.
Our glad reunion in the sky—
Lonely Wife, Ann.

LOVING WIFE AND SONS.

CAMPION — In loving memory of our dear mother, MARY E. Who passed away February 12, 1949:

You are not forgotten, Mother dear,
Nor ever shall you be.
As long as life and memory last,
We shall remember thee.

Devoted Daughters,
ALICE GROSS
ANNA MAY CAMPION.

CARTER — In loving memory of our father, WILLIAM R. CARTER who departed this life February 11, 1955:

GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.
Your SON, ALBERT

COGER — In loving memory of my dear husband, JOHN W. COGER, Jr., who passed away February 9, 1960:

My days cannot tell how I miss him,
My nights cannot tell how I pray,
God alone knows how I miss him
In a home that is empty today.

Loving Wife,
HILDA

HALLOMS — In loving memory of my dear mother, TEXANNA, who passed five years ago, February 12, 1956:

Gone, dear Mother, gone forever,
How I miss your loving face;
But left me to remember
Your love on earth can take your place.

Loving Daughter,
THERESA HAWKINS.

JEFFERSON — In loving memory of my dear husband, ROBERT, who passed away February 9, 1960:

God saw the road was getting rough,
The climbs were steep and hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered "Peace be thine."
The weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
Beneath his worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

Devoted Wife,
DOROTHY JEFFERSON
DAUGHTER-IN-LAW.

JENSON — In loving memory of our dear son, and brother, DOUGLAS N. who passed away February 13, 1960:

You are always in our thoughts,
No matter where we go,
Always our loving dear son,
Because you were so.

THE JENSON FAMILY

MILLER — In loving memory of my dear husband, DAISY, who passed away February 12, 1957:

We do not forget
Dear one, dear one,
And we know we never will.
For you lived your
Life for others,
That thought lingers
Dear one, dear one.
And this day more than ever
We'll feel your presence
And your memory,
Dear one.
We'll cherish thy
Dear memory.

Daughters,
CLARA and EDITH.

MOORE — In loving memory of our dear son, and brother, who departed this life February 12, 1952:

You're not forgotten, father dear,
Nor ever shall you be.
As long as life and memory last,
We shall remember thee.

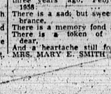
THE FAMILY.

NORRIS — In loving memory of our dear sister, GRACE ALLEN, who passed away February 11, 1949:

Two years have gone by and the best
That Nature loves and gives,
Angels visit our home and whispered
Sweet
She lies and laughs and lives.

Sisters, EUNICE NOLAN
HAZEL RUSSELL
HALLIE RUSSELL
Brother, JAMES O. ALLEN.

HADGETT — In loving memory of DAN PADGETT, who departed this life February 12, 1960:



One year has passed since you died
When the one we loved was called away
God saw the road was getting rough
So God took him home to rest.
Though God has taken you away
You rest with us everyday.

Loving WIFE,
DAUGHTER,
SISTERS and BROTHER.

SHEEN — In loving memory of our dear husband, WALTER W. SHEEN, who passed February 8, 1958:

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered "Peace be thine."
The weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
Beneath his worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

DEVOTED WIFE,
DAUGHTER-IN-LAW.

SMITH — In loving memory of our husband and father, HOLLIS SMITH, who departed this life three years ago, February 12, 1958:

There is a sad, but sweet remembrance
There is a memory fond and true;
There is a token of affection,
dear,
And a heartache still for you.

MRS. MARY E. SMITH and SON.

Card of Thanks

I would like to thank the Rev. Marion Bagley and the ladies and members of Douglas Memorial Church and my many friends for their prayers and many acts of kindness shown me during my illness. May God bless all of you.

MRS. LULA DAWES
