Continental Society set for gay weekend

with Lula Jones Garrett

The Continental Society of Baltimore held its meeting, Thursday evening at the Me-De-So Club with Edith Davidson and Serena Holmes entertaining.

The Continentals are the young matrons who devote efforts toward aiding underprivileged children of this city.

High on the evening agenda was the annual conclave, when the Baltimore group will host sister chapters and guests from Washington, Philadelphia, Newport News, New York and Goldsboro, N.C.

The three - day conference, set for Mother's Day weekend, will be held at the Dunes Motel in Neptune, N.J. The weekend, filled to the brim with activity, features a Saturday afternoon business meeting and will be highlighted with a Saturday night banquet followed by a cocktail dance.

Dr. Furman L. Templeton, executive secretary of the Baltimore Urban League, will be guest speaker at the dinner meeting. Sue Miles, incumbent Continental president, will preside. Dynamic Serena Holmes is chairman of the conclave committee.

Newly elected officers for the 1961 - 62 club year are: Helen Quarles, president; Edith Davidson, vice president; Phyllis Thompson, recording secretary; Odessa Dyson, corresponding secretary; Sevilla Carroll, financial secretary; Helen Gattis, treasurer; and Doreva Stanley, parliamentarian.

Members include Delores Young, Doris Cole, Margaret Beaman, Mattie Mumby, Margaret Mason, Emily Peck, Frankie Hinchen, Frances Turner, Edith Howard, Lillie Branch, Serena Holmes, and Sue Miles.

SHARON NATALIE and Karen Stephanie, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Merriman Wilson, were christened in New Shiloh Baptist Church, Sunday.

The seventh - month - old twins wore identical dresses of dainty white nylon, among with christening shawls. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lawson were godparents. The Rev. J. Timothy Boddie officiated.

The babies' Mom is the former Delores Sanders, city schoolmarm. Their maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders.

THE MARYLAND Pharmaceutical Society met Thursday night at the home of President, Bernard White.

The agenda included the election of officers for the next term, 1961 - 1963.

Richard A. Butler was unanimously elected president. Other officers elected were:

Vice president, Mrs. Rebecca Davis; secretary, Mrs. Ramona Dorcas; treasurer, Bernard Ralph; parliamentarian, Anthony Allen; and sergeant at arms, Carroll Lee.

The society will continue in its aims to promote more colored - owned drugstores in Baltimore and to provide an atmosphere and speakers for continued education in the science of pharmacy.

Following the election of officers, Anthony Allen and architect, Calvin Felton presented plans for building and promoting a medical center. The impressive building will contain a modern drugstore on the lower level and medical suites above. The blueprints and designs were of special interest to the group because of their modern yet practical beauty.

It was announced that in addition to the membership that the society holds in the Howard University Pharmacy Alumni Century Club, a membership has been taken by the Ladies Auxiliary, an individual membership was taken by Mrs. Rebecca Davis. These $100.00 memberships will help finance the initial stages of a graduate school in the College of Pharmacy.

Members in attendance were William Ross, Bernard White, John Hagan, Wesley Shelton, Bernard Ralph, Carroll Lee, Ralph Quarries, George Lee, Fred West, William Harris, Richard Butler, Harold Holmes, and Anthony Allen and Mesdames Ramona Dorcas and Rebecca Davis.

ON THURSDAY, John and Gwendolyn de Cecilio were guests of the Charge d'Affairs of Sierra Leone and Mrs. W. H. Fitzjohn at a reception in celebration of the independence of Sierra Leone.

The gala affair was held in the Cotillion Room of the Sheraton Park Hotel in Washington.

The following Sunday the de Cecilios attended a bon voyage reception given by the American Friends of Ghana for Madam Kofi Owusu Darko, who is returning to Ghana with her husband after a year's stay in the States. The reception was in the Argyle Terrace home of the Chief Counsellor of Ghana, William Debra, and Mrs. Debra, in Washington.

FOLKS IN BALTIMORE are going to regret the leaving on Saturday of the very charming Mrs. Heshmat Youssefi of Iran, who has been seeing the town from the roof tree of Judge and Mrs. Josiah F. Henry.

Her stay has called forth such a flash of gay and intimate parties . . . most of them, like that of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adams on Sunday, on - the - spur of the moment affairs.

The Adamses had the honoree and a few guests for dinner at six, and additional guests for cocktails following.

Among those about were the Henrys, Dr. and Mrs. Virgil Clift, Mrs. G. James Fleming (he was at Hampton for the inauguration ceremonies), Dr. Madge Hibler, Dr. and Mrs. Mark Holander;

Also, Mrs. W. Leroy Berry, Dr. and Mrs. Nathan Pitts, Mrs. Mark Patterson, Mrs. Mattie Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Cardreon Perrin.

DR. AND MRS. Nathan Pitts entertained at cocktails for Mrs. Youssefi on Thursday evening, in their elegant home on Dorchester Rd.

Their guests were asked in at nine - ish, where they said hello to the honoree in the living room, and later went to the club room for the continuous rounds of hors d'oeuvres, snacks and drinks between dances . . . and were reluctant to leave even when morn arrived with steaming cups of coffee appearing in the one - for-the road role.

In this gay group were Dr. and Mrs. Lonnie Greene, Mr. and Mrs. William Stanford, Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Hill, Mrs. Mattie Conner, Mrs. Maurice Adams, Mrs. Mark Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker, and Judge and Mrs. Henry.

FEMME CONTINENTALS collected a pretty penny, (to say nothing of had a high ole time) for their pet charity at their cabaret dance on Friday evening.

They have at heart, at present, the blind and aged of Crownsville Hospital.
