Md. State edges Morgan in tuneup for CIAA track

Maryland State College day afternoon, nipping the first serious bid for a Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association track and field championship here Wednesday laid the groundwork for her perennial titleholder, Morgan State College, in a dual meet at Hughes Stadium.

The Eastern Shore thinclads, capitalizing on the versatility of Russell Rogers, edged the Golden Bears, 75-74.

Both teams were using the meet as an important tune-up for the CIAA championships, scheduled next Friday and Saturday at Virginia State College, Petersburg.

Rogers, whose 9-race performance in two days last weekend won the outstanding athlete award at the Penn Relays, captured three titles for the Hawks here Wednesday. Aside from the high and low hurdles events, the 22-year-old senior took first place in the javelin throw.

Actually, Rogers had considerable help in the conquest of the home forces. He and four teammates— Jim Phipps, Ed Bush, Bill Sollers and Al Santio— accounted for 11 first places.

Phipps took the 220-yard dash in 22.1 seconds, and the 440 in 48.7. Bush, a native Baltimorean, won the broad jump with a leap of 22 feet, and the hop-step and jump title with an effort that carried 49 feet, 9 inches.

Sollers was the winner in the mile run, which he covered in 4:48, and the 2 mile event in 11:25.9. And Santio copped the shotput and discuss competitions. He won the former with a heave of 47 feet, 8¼ inches, and the latter with a throw of 159 feet, 2½ inches.

Morgan remained in the battle, however, right up to the final event on the strength of five first places and a heavy collection of seconds and thirds.

Paul Winder whipped the Penn Relays runner-up, Danny Miller, in the 100-yard dash, breaking the tape in 9.6 seconds. Miller was second. Penn State's Bob Brown in the feature sprint in Philadelphia last Saturday.

Also scoring firsts for the Bears were Bob Ridley in the 880, Lawson Smart in the 440-yard hurdles, Russell Binion in the pole vault, and Wilmore Davis, who led Morgan sweep of the high jump.

In the day's closing event, the quartet of Lee Smith, Ridley, Tom Anderson and Smart gave the Bears the mile relay title in the credited time of 3:21. But these five points thus acquired were not sufficient to overtake the leading Hawks.

The summaries:

BOLD-GOLD BARS issued through the courtesy of a U.S. Treasury Department gold licensee.

Answer: The whiskey on the right is insured because it is Calvert's one million dollar "Standard of Excellence" — the lightest, finest, best-tasting whiskey we believe ever created.

The Calvert Reserve on the left — and every bottle you buy — must match this "Standard of Excellence" for lighter taste, finer taste, better taste. Taste that never varies. Always "good as gold." Shouldn't you enjoy it tonight?

'Switch pitcher' set for Clowns' mound

The name of Ulysses S. Grant strikes a note in history as the top strategist for the Union in the Civil War.

The name of Ulysses S. Grant Greene is not so familiar to the history books, but opposing baseball players will tell you the Indianapolis Clowns pitcher has his own special kind of strategy.

Greene is expected to be on the mound for some part of the Clowns' two area appearances against the New York Royals baseball team.

Baseball's funnymen will offer their 3-ring show to Baltimore fans tonight (Friday) at Westport Stadium and to Washington entertainment seekers at Griffith Stadium Sunday afternoon.

The two games mark the 1961 visit of a series that currently is in its 32nd year on the road.

BECAUSE OF his unique ability to "switch pitch" against opposing batsmen, Greene is in demand to play for a part of every game the Clowns play in major cities Baltimore and Washington fit into this category.

His strategy is simple. By throwing with either hand, Greene thwarts the opponents when they try to play percentage baseball against him. They can't set up lefthanded pinch hitters for righthanded batters, because Ulysses S. just turns around, too.

GREENE IS one of an assortment of oddities carried by the Clowns to complete a well-rounded program of good baseball and hilarious fun. Others are Tiny Kim, the Great Yogi and Naturboy Williams.

Even the top men of the outfit are old hands in the entertainment business. Business manager Ed Hamman and general manager Syd Pollock represent more than three — quarters of a century in baseball.

HAMMAN, in the game 36 years, was for many years regarded as the greatest promoting clown in sports history. He is the originator of many stunts, props and gags used by the fabulous Harlem Globetrotters of basketball fame.

Pollock has had an equally interesting career. He's been promoting touring baseball teams more than 40 years going back to Bloomer Girls early in the century.

Abe Saperstein, Globetrotters mentor, who parlayed a basketball idea into a fortune, once worked for Pollock.

3 final preps for hopeful Bear netmen

Swinging into its final week, the Morgan State College tennis team will play three matches before the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association Championships to be played at Hampton Institute beginning next Thursday, May 1.

Morgan will entertain the Hampton team today (Friday) and hopes to reverse the previous meeting when the Bears were defeated at Hampton.

• • •

TOMORROW, Morgan will journey to Lincoln University for the first of two matches scheduled with them. The return engagement will be played on the local courts on Tuesday.

To date Morgan is sporting an all even record with six wins and six losses.

• • •

COACH HOWARD "Brutus" Wilson is pinning his hopes on Caesar Williams, a senior, to elevate the team's standing in the closing week of play. Williams has a record of 10 wins and two losses so far this year.

Morgan has beaten Winston - Salem twice, Norfolk State twice and Union College, North Carolina College twice, Hampton once and Johnson C. Smith University once.

Seats increased for rich Preakness

Pimlico will offer the greatest number of seats and other public accommodations in its history for the eighty-fifth running of the $150,000 Preakness, middle jewel in the Triple Crown, on Saturday, May 20.

It will be the richest race in the world for three-year-old title contenders.

Since last Preakness Day, when Turflands Bally Ariel galloped off with $122,600 first money, a new $1,500,000 clubhouse has been erected at Marylands pioneer race track.

This will mean an additional 2,500 choice reserved seats for Preakness Day fans.

In Memoriams 1

HARDY — In loving memory of our dear father and husband, AGELA MARGARET HARDY, who passed away three years ago, May 7, 1958.
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days,
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
Husband, ISAAC HARDY
Son, ELMER N. HARDY.

HILL — In loving memory of my wife and our mother, FRANCES, who passed away May 2, 1957.
She leaned on the Saviour's arm
And has passed in his words,
And some, day Mother dear,
We'll see you again
In that wonderful and beautiful world.
LOVING HUSBAND, DAUGHTER, SONS and GRANDCHILDREN.

JOHNSON — In memory of my dear husband, RUSSELL C. JOHNSON, who passed away on Mother's Day, May 8, 1955:
Gone but not forgotten,
Wife, RUTH DAVIS JOHNSON

LEE — In loving memory of my dear husband, "MAN", LOUIS LEE, who passed away May 4, 1957:
"You are gone but not forgotten."
MISS EDITH JENKINS AND FAMILY.

MADDEN — In loving memory of our dear sister, EVELYN MADDEN, who passed away May 5, 1959:
Sad and sudden was the call
One so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And weak of how you died.
To think you could not say goodbye
Before you died.
For all of us you did your best.
Oh, God, grant her eternal rest.
Loving Sister, ORDIE JACKSON and FAMILY.
