ANNAPOLIS DOINGS

BY ELOISE RICHARDSON

Hyman Cohen, sports writer, was the recipient of the individual award at Bates High School on Tuesday evening when its PTA held its annual award dinner.

The award was presented to him by Douglas S. King, supervisor of secondary education, for his "outstanding contributions to the youth of the school in recreation, and his work in the community with the city recreation program."

In presenting the award, Mr. King stated:

"He has quietly, unobtrusively and with great wisdom, conducted a Basket Ball League program here in the school, which has embraced members of all races and creeds.

"He has brought about a better understanding through providing an opportunity for the development of mutual respect for the ability of people regardless of race, creed, or color or family background.

"In addition, he has sponsored for Bates Senior High School boys, a Basketball League program, which, for the past two years, has been conducted in our gymnasium, involving well over 100 boys."

The group award was given to the Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, and was presented by Frank B. Butler, retired vice-principal of the school.

THE GROUP was cited for many cultural and civic contributions it has made to the community. Here are some of them:

Five years ago it established a fund for the purchase of books to be given to the Anne Arundel County Public Library, starting off with $100. Each year since then, it has contributed $50 for the same.

For four years, during its May Week celebration, it has featured story hours at Carver, Pumphrey, Parole, Eastport and Adams Park Schools.

Volunteers from the group work in the annual Community Woman's Auxiliary at Crownville State Hospital. They are Mrs. Mary C. Brown and Mrs. Rose Wiseman. Also, another member, Miss Nan Wright, is president of the Annapolis Branch of the auxiliary.

The sorority also has conducted a Christmas party for patients at the hospital for the last four years.

Each year it provides a Christmas dinner for a needy family, cleared by the Department of Welfare, and new toys and a wrapped gift for each member of the family is included.

It has been presenting a cultural program at Boys' Village and the Barrett School for Girls for the past five years.

Members made a door to door carwash, to get out the vote during the presidential campaign.

The chapter, has sponsored a career conference for high school students for four years, and during the regional conference of the same project, eight school students from New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware attended.

The group has representatives on the board of the American Association of University Women. Mrs. Rose Wiseman, is secretary, and Miss Nan Wright is chairman of a study group.

The sorors have also given $3,200 in scholarships to Bates High school girls, has donated $50 to the nursery at the Parole Health Center for the purchase of a toy chest, a training chair, and toys.

The sorority chapter holds membership in the Northwest Street YMCA, and the Anne Arundel County Scholarship Fund Inc., which they have contributed to.

The sorority was praised for its foresight of retaining the need for increased sensitivity to the needs of others.

The Mysterious Gospel Singers, and the Cloveretts, both of Edgewater, and the Parker Trio appeared in a program of night for the benefit of Woman's Dya. Mrs. Mary Wells was sponsor. The Rev. Clarence Davis is pastor.

S. P. Scott leaves $53,163 estate

The late Simon P. Scott, who died here, April 1, left an estate of $53,163.85, according to inventories filed in Orphans Court, Monday. Mr. Scott, who lived at 4663 Falls Road, seven other properties adjacent to his home, in addition to properties at 1635 Gwynn Falls Parkway, 2505 McCulloh St., 2441 McCulloh St., 1 Lloyd Terrace, Court, at Highland Beach, on Spath Lane and lots on West Oakdale Rd.

OTHER ITEMS listed in the inventory included an automobile, truck and $2,181.35 in cash.

Mr. Scott conducted scrap iron and junk business. A widower, he is survived by five children: Roland S., Calvin L., and Morton Scott, and Mesdames Mary Ann Young and Prettia L. Banton.

The estate is being administered by Archie L. Williams, attorney.

Isaac Chapman

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Isaac Chapman, 65, 447 Orchard St., at the Arlington S. Phillips Funeral Home.

Mr. Chapman died last Friday at Ft. Howard Hospital after a week's illness.

A native of Craven County, Va., he was the son of the late English Rufus and Maggie Chapman of that city.

Before coming to Baltimore, Mr. Chapman had been a farmer in his home town. Since arriving here in 1923, he had been a construction worker until a year ago when illness forced him to retire.

Mr. Chapman married Mrs. Lillie Chapman in 1923 and she survives him.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons, David, Jessie Chapman, New York, two sisters, Mrs. Louisa May, Vanceboro, N.C., Miss, Elenia Chapman, N.C.; a brother, Lorry Chapman, Grifton, N.C.

tivities offered by the central city — would help to accomplish this."

Mr. Miller said further:

"ALTHOUGH WE cannot guarantee that the development of high-rise apartments would very likely increase the financial benefits to be realized by the city from Charles Center.

"A private developer's investment in an apartment building would undoubtedly exceed the investment required for the office building now contemplated in Area 1 thereby increasing the city's real estate tax return from the site for many years to come.

"In addition, the success of one apartment development downtown would undoubtedly encourage the development of other apartment sites outside the Charles Center project, thus multiplying the gain in taxable values.
