TRI STATE LEAGUE

Clinton, Galesville score loop victories

LA PLATA, Md., — A 3-run homer by Arthur Dent and fine relief pitching by Lefty Golightly enabled Clinton to defeat LaPlata, 8-2, here Sunday.

Clinton, one of the most improved teams in the Tri State League since the addition of several new faces, expects to give Brandywine a fight to the wire for the Southern division title.

• • •

GALESVILLE, Md., — Galesville took a double-header from the Maryland Senators, aided by the outstanding performances of William Neal and John Makell.

Neal turned in a beautiful pitching job in the opener and hit a triple and two doubles good for six runs. Makell chipped in a triple, two doubles and three singles for the afternoon. His bat led the entire cast for both teams.

• • •

GLENARDEN, Md., — One time Maryland State College star Al Weems used a sharp curve and blazing fast ball to baffle the Pomonkey, 4-1, on a one-hitter for Glenarden.

The loser's lone run came on a homer by Chase.

CHAMPS — At the City-Edmondson track meet for the Baltimore City MSA championship are, left to right, Mike McGoings, City, first in the 220-yard dash; Robert Adams, Carver J. V., Discus, 101 6½ feet; and shot put, 41.9 feet, and Guy Marlow, Edmondson, 100 - yard dash, first time, 10.1 seconds.

FLEET - FOOTED Mike McGoings of Baltimore City College, wins the 220-yard dash at the City - Edmondson Track Meet at Morgan State College for the Maryland Scholastic Association championship. His time was 23.1.

Burkett-Howard-Marlow battles loom in MSA meet

By SAM LACY

Athletes of Douglass, Dunbar and Carver high schools, plus tan representatives of Forest Park and City, loom as prime contenders in the Maryland Scholastic Association track and field championships, which open today (Friday) at Morgan State College.

Junior varsity preliminaries were held yesterday on the Hillen Road oval.

• • •

FOREST PARK'S Norm Burkett, for example, takes the track as a imposing figure in the dashes. He swept the MSA 100 and 220 - yard titles last year and goes into today's meet with the best times for the current campaign.

Burkett's 10 seconds flat for the century, however, has been matched by Dunbar's Mel Howard. And the speedy Forester ace may be in for some real trouble from Guy Marlow of Edmondson, who has come fast in the late season to pose a serious threat.

• • •

MARLOW TURNED a flashy 10.1 to beat City College's classy Mike McGoings in the divisional championship at Morgan earlier this week, and only a few days before that Guy topped Carver's Milt Brown in 10.4 in a dual meet over a heavy track.

In the 220, Burkett has posted a time of 22.1 seconds. But Clarence Bynum of Dunbar has hit the tape in 22.4, and McGoings and another new threat, Bill Klabfleish of Patterson, are not too far off with clocking of 23 seconds flat. These two, incidentally, performed their feats in the last ten days, which means they could be reaching top form.

• • •

DOUGLASS, perhaps, pins her chief hopes in the half-mile strength of Maurice Brice, who on Friday recorded a 2:03.7 best time in winning a dual outing with Forest Park. In this one, Brice was chased to the wire by his teammate, John Cook.

Here, too, however, the gold medal could be up for grabs. City's Junius Wilson is a terrific competitor, and his best time for the spring is only ⅙ tenth of a second off Brice's. Wilson had a 2:03.8 earlier and came back in the divisional title meet Tuesday to hang up a 2:04 on the Morgan cinders.

• • •

STILL ANOTHER battle looms in the 440 - yard dash, where City's Nick Lee boasts a best time of 50.4 seconds. Nick's main competition may come from his own teammate, Steve Lamb, and Dunbar's Cal Maddox. Lamb has run a 51.6 quarter this spring and Maddox a 51.7. Lee, however, showed that he has retained his edge when he registered a 50.5 for first place in the intertwisional battle with Edmondson on Tuesday.

RICHARD FAULKS promises to give Carver a voice in the dispute for hurdles honors. His 15.8 seconds for the 120 highs is second fastest in schoolboy ranks this spring, behind Lud Hayden's 15.4 for City College. Both clocked their times in meets during the past week indicating that they are ready for their best this weekend.

The same situation exists in the 180-yard hurdles. Hayden sped a 21-second race in the head-on clash with Edmondson and Faulks chalked up a 21.8 while winning against Edmondson in a dual meet last Friday.

• • •

WHILE THE high hurdles forecast a tight fit between Hayden, Faulks and Dunbar's Purcell Woodrum, the low hurdles may develop into a genuine scramble.

For over the low fences, these two can expect some formidable opposition from at least three other challengers.

Robert Brown of Douglass, shaped up as a dangerous foe when he clicked off a 21.4 race against Forest Park last week. This place him in a speed bracket with his teammate, Gerald Boyd, who already had been caught in 21 seconds flat.

Also leaping into the picture in the past week is Walt Schmidt of Patterson Park. He hit a sizzling 21.6 against Mt. St. Jos on Monday.

• • •

CITY COLLEGE appears to have the track to herself in the mile relay. The collegian foursome of Mike Wyche, Nick Lee, Wilson and Lamb have toured the distance in 3:26.5, a full seven seconds faster than her closest rival, Dunbar.

In the broad jump, City's Luther Avery shows a 21-foot, 9¼ - inch mark, with Burkett closest at 21 - 1, and Carver's Tate next at 20-8.

• • •

OVER THE high jump bar, it appears to be Dunbar's Shelton at 5-10, with Edmondson's Woodley next at 5-8.

Lane at Edmondson, and Richter of City, may battle for the discus crown. The former has 114 feet, 6½ feet as opposed to the latter's 113-8 feet.

In the shotput, Milt Brown of Carver, is credited with a 44-6 effort, much better than the 43-0 by City College's Mike Cohen.

Four tan golfers eye '61 U.S. Open

Four tan golfers will seek berths in the 1961 United States Open tournament here Monday, when they tee off with 19 other hopefuls in the qualifying round for the area at the difficult Pine Ridge course.

Headed by Dick Thomas and the veteran Walter (Chink) Stewart, the tan quartet will have eyes focussed on the four slots available to the greater Baltimore district.

• • •

THE OTHER two tan candidates are Joe Flowers of this city, and youthful Gordon Chavis, who recently took over as assistant pro at Carroll Park Golf Course.

Chavis is a former Maryland junior champion and national UGA junior titlist.

Thomas, who lives in Annapolis, is a familiar name to the U.S. Open. He has never failed to qualify for the top event. Stewart has been the Carroll Park professional for many years.

• • •

THE MONDAY pairings list Chavis as the first of the foursome to try his hand. He is scheduled to tee off in a twosome with amateur John O'Donnell at 9 a.m.

Thomas goes off at 9:18 o'clock, with Flowers down for 9:42 a.m., and Stewart clocked for six minutes later.

Should any, or all, of the four survive the initial test, the next stop will be the sectional qualifier in Washington, D.C., on June 6.

Texas Southern winner of SWAC track crown

BATON ROUGE, La. — (ANP) — In a nip and tuck contest that was not decided until the final day, Texas Southern University of Houston defeated the host team Southern University in a two-day track and field meet which ended here Saturday night.

In winning, Texas Southern outpoined the Jaguars, 65½ points to 58, to end Southern's two year hold on the Southwestern Athletic Conference title.

• • •

ALTHOUGH THE Texas Southern team performed well, two big breaks weighed heavily in the victory.

In the 100 - yard dash, Stone Johnson, of Grambling College, favored heavily to win, pulled up lame and failed to qualify in the initial heat, and Southern's Gene Duhon got no further than the third hurdle in the 120 yard high hurdles in failing also to qualify.

• • •

THEN IN the 200 - yard dash, Southern's fleet quarterniler, William Miller, also pulled up lame after the first 50 yards of the race, and Dan Mounton, after overtaking Charles Frazier of TSU and running all alone in the second leg of the relay, dropped the baton less than 25 yards from the relay point for another major setback for the Jaguars.

Seven new records were set in the championship finals, including three major marks by TSU.

Bob Young 'unsung hero' among 143 Bear athletes

One hundred and forty-three athletes, including a football lineman designated as the "unsung hero" of 1960, and members of an undefeated girls basketball team, were awarded varsity letters at Morgan State College Wednesday night.

The occasion was the annual athletic dinner in the college refectory.

• • •

ROBERT (BOB) YOUNG, 20 - year - old lineman from Baltimore, was recipient of an engraved watch as the first winner of the newly-installed "unsung hero" citation. Young, son of a former Lincoln University star, was designated by Earl Banks, head football coach.

Banks described the ex-Dunbar High School athlete as "a plugger who played 57 and 58 minutes of every game, regardless of the score and the tide of battle." He said he felt Morgan should have such an award for athletes whose efforts escaped the public and were overlooked in the headlines.

At the same time that he presented the watch, the coach announced the appointment of Young as Morgan's 1961 football captain.

• • •

DR. EFFIETEE PAYNE and her girls' basketball team were accorded an ovation for their successful year, in which they swept all ten of the games played.

Included among the victims were the University of Maryland, Goucher College, Delaware State, Mount St. Agnes, Notre Dame and Towson State Teachers College.

• • •

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER of the evening was Dr. Leroy T. Walker, coach of track at North Carolina College and president of the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Dr. Walker stressed the importance of "the three D's" in the life of a successful athlete. He asserted that discontentment, diligence and devotion should be the guidelines for chartering their course.

The speaker suggested that young athletes must be discontented with their achievements and always strive for improvement, that they must be diligent in preparing themselves for any challenge, and devoted to their aims.

• • •

BRIEF REMARKS were contributed by J. Bruce Edemy, president of the General Alumni Association; Dr. Albert Whiting, dean of the college; Sam Lacy, AFRO Sports Editor; President Martin D. Jenkins, and T. R. Still, who introduced the main speaker.

Dr. Richard I. McKinney served as master of ceremonies.

Following is the list of athletes honored:

Native of Detroit, he was a student at San Jose State College.

Citizen Award to Jackie Robinson

Pupils at the Charles H. Houston Junior High School on Friday honored former baseball great Jackie Robinson in elaborate ceremonies in the school auditorium.

Robinson, one-time star of the six-time champion Brooklyn Dodgers, was selected by the Sophist Club at Houston to receive the 1961 Distinguished Citizens award.

He was the second athlete so honored. Baltimore Colts halfback Lenny Moore was cited two years ago.

• • •

A HANDSOME, sterling silver tray and engraved plaque were given Jackie by the club. Making the presentations and reciting fitting tributes were Juanita Hudson, Connie Green and James Bell.

Robinson also was recipient of felicitations from Gov. J. Millard Tawes, along with an honorary commission as "Admiral of the Chesapeake Bay."

• • •

PRIOR TO the presentation ceremonies, Robinson participated in a round-table discussion during which he was interviewed by Sports Editor Sam Lacy of the AFRO, and four student interrogators: Dorothy Dingle, Ruth Mayden, Joseph Bowie and Maurice Blackwell.

Buddy Young, former Baltimore Colts star and present assistant-general manager of Radio Station WEBB, served as moderator.

• • •

MUSIC, FURNISHED by the Dunbar High School Choir under director Venoris Williams, won sustained applause and a glowing tribute by Robinson.

Others taking part in the exercises were Eileen Franklin, Hermione Green, Ralph Withers, Carolyn Peterson and Jenifer McKinley of the student body.

Principal Frank J. Sorrell and Maryland Assemblywoman Verda Welcome also spoke briefly.

Gals 'Puff' stake precedes Preakness

The Powder Puff Preakness, the only race in the nation under official conditions in which the horses are ridden by ladies, will be run for the tenth time at Pimlico tomorrow (Saturday).

It is one of the extra events which highlight a full day's program of entertainment on Preakness Day when track gates open at 9:30 a.m.

A record field of ten horses and feminine jockeys is expected to parade postward at 12:15 p.m. and will include Joyce Bachner, wife of horse trainer Martin Bachner, who has won five runnings of the Powder Puff, and Doris Riley, a mother of two daughters, who has won it twice.

O'Ree traded to Canadiens, tops in big league hockey

CHICAGO (ANP) — Willie O'Ree last week completed the big jump from the minor leagues to the major's to a front running ball club when he was traded to the Montreal Canadiens by the Boston Bruins in a four - player National Hockey League trade.

Going to the topnotch Canadiens increased the possibility for O'Ree of playing on a world championship team next season. The dominant team in hockey for the past several years, the Canadiens led the league in regular season play before being squeezed out of the Stanley Cup championship playoffs.

The Chicago Black Hawks eventually defeated the Detroit Red Wings for the world's championship.

• • •

THE FIRST colored player to reach the major league in hockey, O'Ree is a left winger who is considered to be one of the fastest men on the ice.

Perhaps his fine play against the Canadiens helped influence the trade. He has scored game winning goals against both the Canadiens and Detroit.

O'Ree is an ambitious player who has set a great goal for himself. He said he is confident he can score 20 goals in league play in one season. He also seems sure of himself, remarking recently: "I feel now as though I belong (in the major league)."

He had a rough time with the race problem in the minor leagues. Once he was even spat upon, and opponents often called him vile names.

WILLIE O'REE

However, like Jackie Robinson in baseball, he stuck it out. He might have, but chose not to fight back on the tacit advice of his coach at Quebec. When Willie broke into professional hockey with the "Becks," in 1956, the team's coach, Punch Imlach, told him to stick it out and he would eventually make it to the majors.

"Punch told me that no matter what abuses I had to take, to work hard and I'd make the NHL because I had the ability," O'Ree quoted the coach as remarking.

• • •

AS IT turned out, Imlach was right. O'Ree not only weathered the storm, but he made it to the majors. Now he has become a member of the Canadiens, the New York Yankees of hockey. Playing with Montreal is the goal of practically every player in the big show— and the at Quebec also made the minors, too.

Incidentally, O'Ree's coach grade. Imlach is now coach and general manager of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

As the only colored in the NHL, O'Ree has been accepted with complete fairness. He claims he has been treated as any other player, which is exactly the way he wants it. "I'd like to be singled out only for making a good showing on the ice," he once remarked.

• • •

A NATIVE of Fredericton, New Brunswick, O'Ree, 25, got his big break this past season when the Bruins called him up from Kingston, Ont., of the Eastern league. However, he had played two games with the Bruins three years ago.

O'Ree was traded to the Canadiens along with Stanley Maxwell for minor leaguers Cliff Pennington and Terry Gray.

Dunbar golfer ousted in MSA quarter-final

Dunbar High School lost her dream of a golf championship Wednesday when Ken Hemsley, the school's final hope in the Maryland Scholastic Association tourney, bowed out in the quarter-finals to John O'Donnell of Calvert Hall.

Hemsley was a 7 and 6 victim of John O'Donnell of Calvert Hall at Mount Pleasant. O'Donnell, son of the Mount Pleasant professional was medalist of the tournament for the third straight year and is one of the top choices to take the title.

HEMSLEY, who qualified last Friday with a card of 86, entered the quarter - finals as an upset winner over Edmondson's Eddie Frey on Monday. The victory brought him into the Wednesday clash with O'Donnell.

Dunbar's Sherman Snell, who qualified Friday with 89, was ousted by Gene Johnson of Calvert Hall, on Monday.

ENTERED IN the tourney but failing to qualify were Earl Divers, Dunbar (96); Preston McCord, Dunbar (97); Thomas Wilson, Douglass (98); Alex Teal, Carver (103), and Bernard Thrower, Dunbar (118).

In Wednesday's other quarter - finals matches, Mel Rifman of City, defeated Loyola's Bill Knott, 1 up. Byron Hertzlet, Poly, downed Ron Stevens, City, and Gene Johnson, Calvert Hall, turned back Poly's Eric Fleet.

The semi-finals are scheduled today (Friday) at Mt. Pleasant.

Carver crowned Jayvee champs

Paced by a pair of double winners, Carver High School captured the junior varsity track and field championship Tuesday at Morgan State College.

The Cubs' cubs scored a 63-50 edge over City College in the interdivisional JV title meet, aided by Robert Adams and Jimmy Wheeler. Adams won the shotput and discus event and Wheeler took the high hurdlers crown and tied for first in the high jump.

Adams tossed the shot 41 feet, 9 inches and hurled the discus 101 feet, 6½ inches. Wheeler was clocked in 9.1 seconds in taking the 70-yard high hurdles. He cleared 5 feet, 7 inches to tie City's Herm Lee in the high jump.

Carver's foursome of Cox, Sheppendson, Parham and Atkins teamed to hit the tape in 1:36.5 in the half - mile relay. And their ace sprinter, Fickling took the 100-yard dash and finished second in the 220.

The meet marked the final team efforts of the season. Carver captured the Division 2 title and City the Divisional crown. Individual championships are at stake today and Tuesday at Morgan.
