Morgan alumni set boat trip, dinner

with Lula Jones Garrett

Morganites have a new format for the 58th Alumni Day observance, this year Date is June 3rd. But on the evening before (Friday) they will spin down the Chesapeake on a boat ride . . and Saturday afternoon, have the annual buffet dinner.

There will be no citations this year, but special guests will be a 50-year graduate and the "Alumnus of the Year". They will have prizes . . going to the alumnus returning with the largest family, the oldest man and woman grad, ditto the ones from the greatest distances.

Special emphasis will be on class reunions, with a flock of class parties following the boat ride on Saturday evening.

The program has been arranged by a committee headed by Susie H. Clark, and including Dorothy Wiggins, Lota Howard, Kate Layton, Rowena Lewis, Nathaniel PProctor, Ella and Bruce Edemy, Agnes Underwood and Edna Wilson. Miss Sallie Ponzo is General Alumni secretary.

THE WEEKEND coming up will be filled with the most fascinating affairs . . in addition to the Friday, Saturday and Sunday schedule that will entertain the Gay Northeasterners at the 31st convention being held here.

For instance . . the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James S. Julian Jr., Sylvia Marie will be honoree at a reception at her parents' Winan Road estate in Randallstown, at six on Saturday.

Sylvia is one of this year's Me-De-So debutantes, having been presented at the April cotillion.

Chi Psi Sigma Fraternity will hold forth at its annual dinner meeting on Sunday in Wilson's Restaurant and Pi Beta Sigma Sorority will dance on the 27th, in the new Odd Fellows Hall.

And take a further step on the calendar — June . . and come up with the wedding of Marian Gregory, of the faculty of Morgan College, and Philadelphia Pharmacist Samuel R. Overton, on the 17th; and on the same date that of Marie Ellen Jones, daughter of Mrs. Thelma Marie Jones, and Melvin C. Watts.

The Overton-Gregory wedding will take place in Philadelphia. The Watts-Jones ceremony will be held in St. Peter Claver Catholic Church, and will be followed by a reception in the Madison Avenue Branch YWCA given by Mrs. Vivian H. Bundy.

Jean Harris and James Williams, both AFRO staffers, also have a June 17th wedding date.

Also married in June will be Vivian Roslyn Jackson and Sgt. Albert L. Mercer Jr.

And of course the first weekend in June, Baltimore Guardsmen will be joining others of their group for that party in Connecticut.

On June 16th and 17th, town Epicureans will, no doubt, be in Richmond, where the 10th anniversary conclave will be in session.

The Richmond chapter has set the theme: "A Midsummer Night's Dream-in the Pink," and will start with Friday "The Dream Begins" with a committee meeting and a formal dance followed by breakfast.

On Saturday's program are a business session, a dinner meeting and at midnight a "Gourmet Rendezvous".

They have learned that Lysol is one of the most successful preventives of environmental disease ever adopted.

Lysol is the quickest, safest, most effective way to eliminate disease germs while you do your regular housecleaning. Use Lysol Brand Disinfectant in the bathroom, kitchen, nursery, all through the house. Lysol added to your regular cleaning water is more effective than any bleach, any pine oil—at lower cost. ONE OF the most elegant dinner parties held in town each year is the annual banquet given by the Baltimore City Alumni chapter of Beta Sigma Tau Fraternity.

This, their Founder's Day affair, took place on Friday night in Wilson's Restaurant, and lived up to standard . . . from the beautiful red and white embossed programs, to the snappy music that followed for dancing.

In the interim they and their guests heard an address by Mrs. Juanita Mitchell Jackson, attorney, who urged the group to give of their time, their funds and their thoughts to securing first - class citizenship for themselves and for their children.

They heard Mrs. Verda F. Welcome, member of the House of Delegates of the State of Maryland, urge them to the full use of the vote to obtain their constitutional rights.

And they heard former Governor Theodore McKeldin say that a generation from now segregation in any area will be but a bad nightmare.

They made awards . . . their "Golden Rule" citation going to Mr. McKeldin; their "Achievement" one to Mrs. Welcome. And then to three members of the fraternity who had given outstanding services to the organization during the year, also went awards. Recipients of the latter awards were Robert Hawkins, William Parrott and Vernon Roberts.

An achievement award to Richard Adams, speech therapist, now in Iowa, was received by his mother, Mrs. Cecelia Adams.

All honorees received magnificent plaques.

Carrington, who gave the invocation and benediction; Charles Griffin who introduced Mrs. Mitchell, F. Vernon Roberts, chapter president, who gave remarks; Robert W. An organization does not grow old by existing a certain number of years, it grows old by deserting its ideals. Years may wrinkle the skin, but loss of enthusiasms wrinkles the soul."
