A swinging hello and how are ya, Crawlers calling!

Got loads to tell ya, but first — with apologies to the smiling TV hacks — this brief message (like a thousand or so words).

This week's soap box piece deals with the future of the National Negro License Beverage Association.

NNLBA was born a year ago with the intention of improving the lot of colored licensees, their customers, and make valuable contributions to the community.

The organization held its first affair Saturday at the Coliseum, a jazz concert. Although the turnout of 1,245 was disappointing, sponsors felt they picked up several pointers which will prove valuable in future promotions.

Also disappointing was the number of members participating in the affair. Less than half the 26 charter members were on hand, according to Floyd Bartz, NNLBA local proxy.

It is hoped that a solution to the causes of this lack of involvement has been found, Mr. Bartz stated.

AN ATTEMPT to adjust minor disagreements, which have hindered the progress of the organization, will be made at future meetings, the president declared.

This is the only way NNLBA can achieve any of its outlined goals, according to Mr. Bartz, including making a substantial contribution to Provident Hospital.

Now on with the roundup.

FOR THIS set of seven, Crawlers turn the spotlight on a pretty swinging house, Casino.

Since grabbing the reins a few moons back, Charlie Burns has brought this mecca of gaylife a long way. First there was the fabulous renovating job which left it rather dazzling.

It completed the final phase of becoming a first rate supper club a couple of lights and darks ago when it kicked off live entertainment by showcasing Damita Jo with tremendous success.

Opening up this weekend is Margie Schaefer, backed by the jazziest house band around, Count Lantz and his men. Charlie tells Crawlers that Margie, a local product, will also become part of the standard procedure there.

Imported acts skedded in are the Willene Barton Trio, with Daton Selby, while Charlie and Earl Grant are trying to see eye-to-eye on a summer stand.

Frances, Bernice and Mapp make up the greeting committee.

SPEAKING of live entertainment, it's popping up all over town. Thus Crawlers agree with club owners that a bit of intelligence is in order.

Since the Burg has gone Broadway, there has been much confusion as to what constitutes cover charge, minimum or admission.

Taking first things first, cover charge is the fee tacked on the regular bill while the minimum is the smallest amount patrons agree to spend while catching a show. And naturally, admission is just what it says, you pay to enter.

Unlike the minimum, which guarantees a given amount of refreshments while being entertained, cover charge and admission have no bearing on your eventual tab.

Other short hops show Maceo's kicking off a fabulous second anniversary celebration, beginning June 5, featuring candlelight, hors d'oeuves, and organ music.

The big man at Red Fox, George himself, and that's no stage joke, sez Thom Wheatly is the baddest pianist ever to cross the portals to his fashionable lounge.

The jazz set thrown by Vicky and Ruby the past seven was strictly A-ok. Jazz lovers trooped in until they stood five deep and dug every minute of it.

Swinging out Oakland Park, Randallstown way, Crawlers found a nice deal on tap. Sunday while Joe Allen is on the Hammond organ, backed by drummer Reggie and sax and Gough, the Fashionettes will stage a cocktail sip and fashion show. It's going to be down, that's for sure.

On the sunrise side of the Big B., North End flings wide its summer garden gates come Tuesday next. A flowing champagne fountain, giving forth an endless supply of refreshments will decorate the spacious and charming out-door hideaway.

At Kleeco, Walter sez, and we agree, it party time all the time. With Jerry, Alice, Greta and Shirlee on tap, what a party?

At Rice's Casbar, down Ritchie Highway, it was Country Orbit again Tuesday. Just as the word implies, it was stone in orbit. At the mo, J. H. and Mrs. Rice are gearing to sooth the warm spirits of beachcombers in the coming months as they glide to and

Why is the whiskey on the right insured for One Million Dollars?

$4.70 4/5 qt. $1.50 ½ Pint plus state tax
SOLID-GOLD BARS issued through the courtesy of a U.S. Treasury Department gold licensee.

Answer:
The whiskey on the right is insured because it is Calvert's one million dollar "Standard of Excellence"—the lightest, finest, smoothest-tasting whiskey, we believe, ever created.
The Calvert Reserve on the left—and every bottle you buy—must match this "Standard of Excellence" for lighter taste, finer taste, smoother taste. Taste that never varies. Always "good as gold." Shouldn't you enjoy it tonight?

For lighter taste... finer taste... smoother taste...

from a dip in their favorite beach.

It's counterpart, Dotson's, is doing an equally smooth preparation job to please the batch of joy seekers who'll be making it to the wide open. This includes Frank's incomparable brand of bar-b-cue.

Bar-b-cue reminds that Big Bill Adams and his Adams Cocktail Lounge doesn't do a bad job in this department either.

Incidentally when Bill lays claim to having the most beautiful room in town, he isn't far from being right. If you haven't seen it, you should.

ANOTHER SUMMER-TIME hideway snaching gobs of attention is the sprawling Twin Pines.

It is rapidly becoming the favorite Sunday spot for picnickers, fisherman and lovers of life in search of a winging good time. And there's entertainment galore.

Thes, Dusty, Duke, and Jitterbug at Jones Cocktail Lounge are doing a lot of cavorting on during the Weekends. But then, knowing Dusty, who could be surprised.

Jack Perkins is still the man of the moment at Carnival. There are also some bad Sunday matinee sessions.

In addition to the usual batch of cocktail parties, and various other get-togethers, the crowd at Sphinx is now making like the Birds and Yankees, all wrapped up trying to cop the softball title of C.P.T. League.

There are five competing teams, and from what they showed Sunday, it appears Wardell Crockett's team is the one to beat.

MR. ORGAN, Cornell Muldrow is waxing hot at Lucky Number. When Cornell gets hot, man, like that's a lot of heat.

There's still a lot of living at Phil's and Chick's. While Chick's maintains its torrid pace of flame and flesh, Phil's enjoys the big cool sound of the Jazz Trio Plus One.

Ditto for Wendy Wilson's Vilma, with a dash of fabulous foods on the side.

The Cardettes had a ball at their second annual cocktail sip, Sunday last. While bending an ear to the pleasant sounds of the Dave Ross Trio, three guests took down prizes.

Miss Barbara Beasley copped the first place award of a fifth of scotch, Mrs. Emily Day claimed a set of antique glasses for second, and Lee McCoy was given an ice caddy, all for free yet.

Must breeze in on Millionaire's Club and Landay's Rose Room, meantime, must split the scene cause we are running late...SO, MUCH LATER.

BOAT RIDE COMMITTEE — Responsible for the plans for the June 2 boat ride of the M. J. Naylor Chapter of the Morgan State College Alumni Association are these committee members. Seated: Miss Lota Howard, financial secretary; Dr. Vernon Pennington, president; Robert Douglass, chairman of boat ride committee; John Waters, chairman of ticket committee. Standing: Oscar Shorter, chairman of publicity committee; Clarence Blount, co-chairman of boat ride committee; Miss Kate Layton, assistant financial secretary.

CONCORD, N.C. — The Thespians of BARBER SCOTIA COLLEGE presented two one-act plays, "Figureheads," by Louise Saunders, and "Over the Teacups," by Percival Wilde, in the College Chapel Friday night.
