Falcons get scare, win ESTA's 5-man shoot by mere 2 points

WAYNE, Pa., — The young, aggressive Patuxent Rod and Gun Club tossed a mild bombshell into the Eastern Skeet and Trapshooting Association's 5 - man shoot here Sunday at the Mainline Gun and Beagle Club grounds.

Taking advantage of near-perfect weather, the Marylanders put severe pressure on the champion Falcons of Baltimore before losing by a slim margin of two points, 233-231.

UGA revises amateur plans

Beginning in 1961, United Golfers Association will qualify its championship men amateurs in sectional meets, according to a joint statement issued this week by UGA President Howard Anderson, Toledo, and Franklin T. Lett, Detroit, chairman of the association's national tournament planning committee.

At its 1962 national tournament in Memphis, UGA will play only 128 amateur men in its championship division. These golfers will embrace the top qualifiers from six eliminations tournaments to be held in the regional districts of the association: New England, Eastern, Southern, Midwestern, Central and Southwestern.

• • •

PREIOUS RULE of play will be followed at this year's division tournament to be played Aug. 21-25 over the Ponkapoag Course in nearby Canton, Mass. Nine championship divisions will be played — pro, men's women's amateur, senior men and women and four sets of juniors.

Deadline for entires in the Boston tournament is set at midnight, Aug. 20, according to Mrs. Paul [illegible], UGA national tournament director, Washington, D.C.

Fleet Field Set for NCAA Sprints

Budd, Johnson, Jerome, Hinder booked to clash

PHILADELPHIA — The sprint field in the 100 and 220 - yard dashes for the National Collegiate Track Championship at Franklin Field here June 16 - 17 are packed with more good sprinters than ever before in the history of the 40 - year old meet.

Although Charley Tidwell of Kansas has graduated and won't be on hand to defend his laurels, never has the competition looked better.

THREE OF the outstanding sprinters have already equaled the world mark of 9.3 seconds for the century, including Frank Budd, the Olympian from Villanova; Dennis Johnson, San Jose State, and Oregon's Harry Jerome.

Jerome, winner of the Far West (Northern Division) 100 and 220 - yard titles a weeks ago, and Johnson, protege of Herb McKenley for Jamaica, are sophomores. Frank Budd is a junior who was eliminated in the semi-finals of both sprints in the NCAA meet a year ago.

The road to victory for any one of this trio will be a difficult one.

• • • •

PAUL WINDER, Morgan State College senior and double CIAA sprint champion this year, finished runner - up to Tidwell in the century at Berkeley last year, and landed third in the furious behind Tidwell and the returning Stone Johnson, Grambling.

• • • •

NOT TO be overlooked is Tom Robinson, Michigan sprinter, who recently successfully defended his sprint titles in the Big Ten meet at Iowa City. A native of the Bahamas, Robinson competed in both the 1956 and 1960 Olympic Games. Robinson was fifth in both races last year.

Another top flight Eastern representative is Penn State senior Bobby Brown, a native of Philadelphia, who was the 1960 ICAA double sprint king. Along with Budd and Brown from the East is Pete Golvas, the all-time Naval Academy sprint record holder from Oklahoma City who landed both the 100 and 220 in the Bentagonal championships.

• • • •

THE SOUTHWEST offers a real candidate for sprint honors in Ralph Alsaugh, University of Texas. This year he added the 220 - yard crown to the 100 - yard dash championship won a year ago in the Southwest Conference meet.

Larry Dunn, Arizona, again prevailed in the sprints at the Border Conference meet two weeks ago. Dunn finished third in last year's 100 in the NCAA meet.

The schedule calls for the heats of the 100 - ward dash on Friday with the semi-finals and finals on Saturday. However, in the 220 - yard dash, the heat and semi-finals will be contested on Friday with the final listed fifty minutes after the final of the 100 on Satureay.

DON JORDAN

Gibson, IBC head, faces 25 years

Convicted with 4 others of cutting in on boxer

LOS ANGELES — Truman K. Gibson Jr., former president of the far - flung International Boxing Club, this week is faced with a possible 25 - year prison sentence.

A jury of ten women and two men returned a verdict of guilty against Gibson and four others charged with extortion and conspiracy, here Tuesday.

Convicted along with the former president of the now defunct IBC were Frank (Blinky) Palermo, Frankie Carbo, Joe Sica and Louis Tom Dragna, all known police figures.

• • •

SPECIFICALLY, the five men were accused of trying to muscle in on the earnings of former welterweight champion Don Jordan.

Palermo for a number of years acted as a fight manager in Philadelphia and allegedly worked as front man for Carbo. The latter has been described as a one-time member of New York's "Murder, Inc." and underworld czar of boxing.

Sica and Dragna were declared to be the "enforcers" who beat up Hollywood boxing promoter Jackie Leonard at the direction of the others.

• • •

LEONARD AND Jordan's manager, Don Nesseth, were the chief government witnesses produced by special federal prosecutor Alvin N. Goldstein.

The former testified that he was beaten up and his house set afire in 1959, after he and Nesseth had received numerous threats of bodily harm by telephone. The latter offered corroborating testimony.

The guilty verdicts came at the end of a 13-week trial and three days of deliberations.

Federal Judge Ernest A. Tolin set sentencing for July 20.

POSSIBLE PRISON terms range from the 25 years for Gibson and Dragna to 125 years for Palermo. Sica could get up to 45 years and Carbo, who was scheduled for release from Rikers Island, N.Y., on Wednesday, faces as much as 85 years.

Carbo has just completed a two - year term for other activity as an undercover boxing manager and matchmaker. Previous to that, Frankie had served time on a manslaughter conviction.

• • •

IN SUMMING up the case against the defendants, Goldstein said:

"This case revealed the true nature of an underworld operation. It revealed an underworld boss—Carbo—who had his lieutenant — Palermo — come to California and called on two strongarm men — Dragna and Sica—to carry out the threats Palermo and Carbo had been making on Leonard and Nesseth.

"The prosecution also revealed collusion between Gibson, a head of a multi-million dollar corporation, and the underworld.

"The choice which this big business made was to use the underworld in order to obtain a monopoly in professional boxing and make millions of dollars at the expense of the poor fighters and the public."

• • •

TESTIMONY included a statement that former heavyweight champion Joe Louis was forced to pay 10 per cent of his purses for five years, while he was champion, to former champion Jimmy Braddock.

"Probably there were other persons involved," Goldstein said, "and there is some question whether Braddock got any money.

• • •

"THIS COULD explain why so many fighters are in income tax trouble; they're paying out parts of their purse to people who don't report it as income."

Sen. Estes Kefauver's anti-trust and monopoly subcommittee resumed hearings into boxing in Washington Wednesday.

Clowns, Royals headed for East

The Indianapolis Clowns, continuing their sensational hitting, play and tomfoolery on the current western barnstorming tour, again are headed for Washington and Baltimore.

The Clowns and their touring rivals, the New York Royals, are booked for Griffith Stadium, Washington, on Thursday night, June 15th, and Baltimore's Westport Park, on Friday night, June 16th.

The Clowns also have a Baltimore date on Sunday, June 18th, when they encounter the Winston - Salem Pond City Giants, a crack North Carolina aggregation which will be making its first appearance in this area in 10 years.

• • •

JOE (IRON MAN) CHERRY, versatile catcher-pitcher of the Clowns, will be missing when the Filmmakers invade this territory. Cherry was sold to the Chicago White Sox this week and immediately reported to the Sox's farm club at Daytona Beach of the Florida State League.

The Clowns, headed for Kansas City where they expect to play before 15,000 in an NAACP benefit game Friday, have picked up a replacement for Cherry.

Extortion rap sinks up—down Gibson career to lowest level

By SAM LACY

The checkered career of Truman K. Gibson Jr., sank to the lowest level of its ebbing process in Los Angeles on Memorial Day.

It as then that the one-time high government figure and wealthy Chicago insurance executive was adjudged guilty of conspiring with four characters to extort money from a former boxing champion.

• • •

GIBSON'S conviction as a fellow conspirator with Frankie Carbo, Blinky Palermo, Joe Sica and Tom Dragna stemmed from charges that they tried to muscle in on the earnings of ex-welterweight king Don Jordan.

As head of the now defunct International Boxing Club, Gibson was accused of trying to force Los Angeles promoter Jackie Leonard to bring the lucrative California fight promotion activity under the aegis of IBC.

Carbo and Palermo were found guilty of demanding a cut of Don Nesseth's earnings as Jordan's manager. Sica and Dragna were figured as the "rough men" who beat up Leonard as an aftermath of threats which the promoter ignored.

• • •

UNTIL THE conviction on Tuesday, the previous depth in the checkered Gibson career was reached early last year. He was shown briefly in a nationwide telecast handcuffed to federal agents following his arrest in Chicago.

The sight of the 49-year-old Gibson under manacle was a shock to thousands who remembered him in palmier days as a high government official, wealthy insurance executive and successful young lawyer.

• • •

GIBSON, a native of Atlanta, Ga., received his law degree from the University of Chicago in 1935.

In 1940, he as appointed assistant to the civilian aide to the Secretary of War. Three years later, he took over as civilian aide upon the resignation of William H. Hastie, now a federal judge in Philadelphia.

TRUMAN GIBSON

• • •

ASIDE FROM his work with the War Department in Washington, Gibson served as a member of the President's Committee on Universal Military Training, and later as a member of the President's Committee on Religion and Welfare in the Armed Forces.

In 1946, he was named director of the Chicago Supreme Liberty Life Insurance Co. That same year, he became legal advisor to heavyweight champion Joe Louis and headed up the Joe Louis Enterprises, Inc.

• • •

WHEN THE Brown Bomber retired from the ring in 1950 and joined the New York offices of the IBC, he took along Gibson to be installed as vice president and secretary-treasurer and was placed in charge of the IBC offices in Chicago.

In 1958, James J. Norris retired from the IBC presidency because of ill health. He appointed Gibson to succeed him at a salary estimated at $50,000 a year.

• • •

THE CRITICISM which fell around Gibson's head when he accepted a job Hastie quit as a protest against racial discrimination in the War Department, was nothing as compared to the humiliation of the handcuffs in 1960.

Both, however, pale in significance when they are evaluated alongside the Memorial Day conviction for mobsterism.

Jackie Robinson opener planned

CATONSVILLE, Md.—The opening game of the 28 - team Jackie Robinson Athletic Association promises to draw a huge throng of well-wishers here tomorrow (Saturday) at the Bannaker field.

A previous announcement listed the activity for a June 10 opening by mistake.

The Jackie Robinson loop embraces teams of the little league and pony league classifications throughout the Baltimore area.

Full details as to schedules, results and standings will be available to AFRO readers beginning with next week's editions.

SUMTER, S.C.—The sixth annual Joint Benedict—Morris Colleges Pastors Conference on "Community Life Problems" will be held at Morris College through Friday.
