ANNAPOLIS DOINGS

BY ELOISE RICHARDSON

The First Lady of Maryland, Mrs. J. Millard Tawes, was highlight Tuesday, when she was such a gracious hostess on Saturday when she honored the Woman's Auxiliary of Crownsville State Hospital at a Membership Tea in Government House.

Receiving with Mrs. Tawes were Mesdames Isadore Tuerk, wife of the director of the Department of Mental Hygiene of Maryland; Mrs. William H. Richardson, president of the auxiliary, Mrs. Shirley Diggs of Baltimore, vice-president of the auxiliary, and Mrs. Bruce Hamilton, coordinator of Volunteer Services of the hospital.

The line was introduced by Mrs. Helen James, vice-president of the Council of Women's Auxiliaries of Mental Hospitals in Maryland.

Those who poured included Mrs. Douglas S. Lacey of Annapolis and Mrs. Victorine Adams of Baltimore.

During the afternoon Mrs. Tawes welcomed the more than 100 guests and said that she felt the auxiliary was doing a fine job and that she wanted to do her part in helping the group grow larger.

She accepted honorary presidency of the auxiliary and was presented a sterling silver bracelet from the group.

Joyce Picot McManus, contralto, of Annapolis, dedicated a song to Mrs. Tawes and then sang a group of other songs. Mrs. Agnes Abernathy was her accompanist.

MRS. RICHARDSON, president of the auxiliary, greeted the guests and spoke on the work of the auxiliary. She stressed the need for a larger membership on a state-wide basis, the need of more volunteers, and defined the five areas in which the auxiliary functions.

She also presented members of the Board of Directors who were present. These were Mrs. Shirley Diggs, vice-president; Mrs. Ethel Jonson, recording secretary; Mrs. George Phelps Jr., corresponding secretary; Mrs. Margaret Brown, canteen chairman; Mrs. Olivia Spriggs, coffee hour chairman; Mrs. Geneva Hodges, Nearly New Shop chairman; Mrs. Clarice Richardson, membership chairman; Mesdames Agnes Brown, Norma Jillard, Mattie Dobson, members-at-large.

Others, who were unable to attend, were Mrs. Simon E. Carter, past president; Mrs. Ernest Magruder, treasurer, and Mrs. Catherine Torrence, hospitality chairman.

Miss Nan Wright, president to the Annapolis Branch of the auxiliary, introduced Miss her members, Mrs. A. W. McDade and Miss Eliza Norris. The group which has only been organized since early winter, has a membership of 25 and seven of the group have finished their course in occupational therapy, one in the arts in which the auxiliary works, and are now working regularly with the patients of the hospital.

Women from different parts of the state attended the affair. Among those seen about were:

Mrs. D. Ellwood Williams of Annapolis, and Mrs. John H. Merrey, of Linthicum, both members of the Anne Arundel County Board of Education; Mrs. Richard D. Walsig, wife of the president of St. John's College and also president of the school board;

Also Mrs. Jacob Crane, Mrs. Herbert S. Hillard, wife of the principal of Bates High School; Mrs. Cecil Burton, Mrs. Harry E. Kelner, Mrs. Joseph Hardesty, Mrs. Herman C. Stotz, Mrs. Edward J. Satterthwaite, president of the Maryland League of Women Voters; Mrs. Elizabeth Cook, president of the Community Chest; Mrs. J. Jack Thomas of Pasadena, Mrs. Harriet Hodges, director of nurses at the hospital;

Also Mrs. Douglas S. King, wife of the supervisor of secondary education; Mrs. Walter S. Mills, wife of the principal of Parole School, and principal of Ralph Bunche School; Mrs. Charles Wayman, Mrs. Sarah Randall, secretary of the Guess Who We Are Social Club; Mrs. Naomi Randall, president of the Non So Condo Club, all of Annapolis;

ALSO MRS. Henry Wise of Lanham, Md., a sponsor of the Maryland Debutante Ball; Mesdames David Henry and M. C. Hammond and Dr. Bessie Small of Denton, Md.; Mesdames Leon S. Roye and Otelia Bullock of Harvre De Grace; Mrs. W. H. Faunteroy and Miss Vonzella Caldwell, both of Easton, Md.;

Also Mrs. Paul D. Cooper of Snow Hill; Mrs. J. Dallas Blades of Federalsburg; Mrs. Eliot P. Y. Powell, executive secretary of the Annapolis YWCA; Mrs. E. Worthington Waters of Maryland State College at Princess Anne;

Also Mrs. Marshall Pressbery of Darlington, Md.; Dr. Julette M. Simmons, of Washington; Mrs. Evelyn H. Benston of Centreville, Md.; Mrs. Emma H. Johnson of Bel Air, Md.;

Also Mrs. Bernard Harris, Mrs. Vernice Reynolds, Mrs. Theresa Reid, Miss Sarah V. Jones, superintendent of elementary schools in Anne Arundel County, Miss Marion L. Jones, president of Provident Hospital Women's Auxiliary, Mrs. Irene Dodson, Mrs. Virgie Waters, Mrs. Mamie Diggs, Mrs. Gwendolyn Herbert, Mrs. Mary M. Brooks, Mrs. Helena Hodge and Mrs. Betty Lindsay, all of Baltimore;

Also Mrs. Cynthia Moore, field representative of the Maryland Association for Mental Health. It is regrettable that we do not have the entire list. This list was taken from responses to the invitations.

A "TRIBUTE to Woman-hood" was the theme of the dinner in Millard Tawes, was such a gracious hostess on Saturday when she honored the Woman's Auxiliary of Crownsville State Hospital at a Membership Tea in Government House.

Tributes were paid to women in the community by the sorors, who over a period of years, have performed to help benefit and make the community a better place to live in.

The first tribute was paid by Soror Ethel Wilson—Mrs. Ethel Thompson and Miss Martia Carroll; both teachers in the school system and staunch community and church workers.

The two women were among pioneers in Annapolis in the 40-in movement which resulted in opening the doors of the Bus Terminal Restaurant to colored people. Even more far-reaching is the fact that others have followed.

Soror Lois Randall paid a tribute to Mrs. Helen Jones, who has operated a pre-school in Annapolis for a large number of years, the first and only at present of its kind.

Rev. Ann Genevieve Dyson and Mrs. Julia Connor were cited by Soror Nan Wright for their faithful and consistent efforts in working with the Health Committee of Bates High School.

Mrs. Dyson has consistently worked in PTA work in the old Stanton School, now the new Adams Park School, Bates and Parole. For a long time she served as probram chairman for the Parole P-TA.

Miss Yvonne Fisher, a resident of the county and a teacher, was cited by Soror Anis Gazaway for her fine work with the youth of the Methodist Youth Fellowship. Miss Fisher was an outstanding graduate of Bates High School in the music department.

Beautiful solos were rendered by Mrs. Joyce Picot McManus and Mrs. Clarice Lanette.

AN ANNUAL contribution of $50 was presented by Soror Ann Goodwyn to Miss Esther King, director of the Anne Arundel County Public Library System for the purchase of books. The sorority has a creditable collection of books written about and by colored people and citizens are urged to visit the liberay and borrow these. A recent addition has been a collection of books on Africa.

Officers and members of the sorority are:

Sorors Matilda Harrison, president; Mural Holland, vice president; Mary C. Brown, secretary; Mary Wiseman, financial secretary; Rosa Wise, man. treasurer; Sorors Elsie Duvall, Nancy Gist, Anne Goodwyn, Orville Taylor, Marguerite I (who was in charge of the program), Williamas Barnes, Clyde Burrell, Agnes Abernathy, and Jean Sparrow.

Mrs. Preston Vauls Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Evelyn Fisher, spent the week-end Day weekend at Hampton Institute as guests of Mrs. Vaul's daughter, Miss Pauline Haigh.

Many activities were enjoyed including a pajama party the girls gave for their mothers, a tour of the campus, a banquet, at which time awards were made to the dormitories, and a dance.

Their guest speaker was Hon. Juanita Kidd Stout, judge of the municipal court of Philadelphia.

Waltz Time was a lovel evening occasion for the girls, their mothers and escorts in Williams Gymnasium. Miss Heigh had as her escort Rodney Johnson of Plainville, Conn.

Miss Mary Sue WELCOME, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry C. Welcome of Baltimore, was graduated from Palmer Memorial Institute, Sedalia, N.C., last week.

Miss Williams was duced by Miss Sue Hall. The mothers were introduced by Mrs. Kenneth of Durham, N.C., and Miss Dorothy Blue of Washington, D.C., along with many Muslims and friends.

and Mrs. James Smith and daughters Janice, Carol Reed and Sandra; the Rev. James E. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. William Blackmon and daughter, Cassandra.

Muslim leader cited on 7th anniversary

Members of Muhammad's Mosque No. 6 recently commemorated the seventh anniversary of Minister Isaiah Karriem in Baltimore.

Minister Karriem came to this city seven years ago and began workingin a place on Eager St. with a seating capacity of 30 persons.

A few months after he arrived, the membership began to increase rapidly, and a place was obtained in the 1000 block of Pennsylvania Avenue. The membership continued to increase, and the Muslims purchased their present home in the 500 block Wilson St. and set about to renovate it into a new modernistic building with enough space to accomodate 3,000 persons.

Present as guests at the banquet were Solomon Baylor, lawyer; Frank Walker, general manager of the North Carolina Life Insurance Company; Minister Kenneth of Durham, N.C., and Miss Dorothy Blue of Washington, D.C., along with many Muslims and friends.

In Memoriams 1

DOUGLASS — A tribute of love and memory of our beloved wife and mother, ROCHELLE, who passed away one year ago, June 1, 1960.

Sad the hour that golden was the call
We can but dearly loved by all.
Our loss is our gain, our gain
Gone to part with one so dear
Yet we hope to meet
We when all shall gather
Yours and I shall
Yours and I shall speak of how
We loved
To think you could not stay
Good-bye
Your eyes are closed
Your eyes.
Only if on you did your best
Oh, God, grant us eternal rest.
HUSBAND, FATHER, BROTHER AND CHILDREN-STAFF.

POTTS — A tribute of love to the memory of Mark Potts, who passed on May 30, 1921:

Sweet is the hour that God, our mother,
It is sweet to breathe thy name,
In life we love you dearly
In death, we love you still.
DEVOTED DAUGHTERS, MABEL RANDALL, MARGUERITE BENNETT.

In loving memory of KATIE F. THOMPKINS who passed away June 1, 1956:

Six years has passed since that day
We first the we loved was called away.
Calm her home — it was
His will.
Within our hearts she lies
Cousin, MARY GRAYSON

THOMPSON — In loving memory of our dear mother, LAURA V. THOMPSON, who passed away June 1, 1957; October 26, 1961; January 7, 1962 and Mother's Day.

We miss the eyes we gazed
Yet we miss the hands
Yet we miss the voice
Yet we miss the heart
Yet we miss the smile
Yet we miss the
Yet we miss the
Yet we miss the
